The new officers were installed as follows: Phyllis Bell, president; Shirley Flath, vice-president; Grace Reich, secretary, and Bina Bell, treasurer.

The retiring president, Clara Sandstrom and vice-president Eliza Fuerstenau were both presented with two matching pictures each as a remembrance for a job well done.

South Carolina Is Scene Of Wedding For Betty James

Miss Betty James, who lived with her sister, Joyce Bistorious (Mrs. George Bistorious Jr.) at Rhododendron the past four years, has returned to South Carolina to marry a high school sweetheart.

She was married to Norman Whitfield Jr. on Thanksgiving Day at 5 p.m. at Townsville, South Carolina. The bride wore a navy blue suit and carried an orchid on a white Bible. She was attended by Ann Reeves who wore a rosecolored suit with navy accessories. A sister, Mrs. Clarice Mitchiner, came from Louisville, Kentucky, with her family to witness the ceremony and a brother, Charles James, came from Albany, Georgia. Hal Davis was best man.

Norman, a former GI, is attending Clemson College in Seneca, South Carolina and is majoring in textile manufacturing. Betty is working for a wholesale grocery concern in Seneca.

Miss Barbara James, younger sister of Joyce and Betty, and who was also living at Rhododendron with Joyce the past four years, was married Monday, December 3 at 5:30 p.m., to Kenneth Klawitter, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Klawitter, Wemme, in Vancouver, Washington, by Rev. Kunzman in his home. Her sister, Joyce, served as witness. Barbara and Kenny are living with Kenny's parents at Wemme.
