St. Michael's Card Party Lots Of Fun

The members and friends of the St. Michael's Catholic church spent a very enjoyable time at the Sandy Grange hall January 17. Luncheon was served by five members of the club: Mrs. Steffel Sr., Mrs. Steffel Jr., Mrs. Eugene Packard, Mrs. Bob Grashorn, and Mrs. Lloyd Holt.

The door prize was won by Jimmy Wolf. First prize winners in 500 were Mrs. Virgil Nelson and Eugene Packard; low were W. C. Carroll and Mrs. Andrew Zakrzewski. Winners in pinocle were Mrs. Louise Koene-man and R. C. Murray; low were Mrs. Mary Tillington and F. Pahlke.

Sandy Grange Draws A Full House At Social

Sandy Grange drew a full house at their social meeting Saturday evening, January 19. Cards were enjoyed the first part of the evening succeeded by a couple of hours of dancing. A splendid record player with loud speaker furnished excellent music. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. W. R. Beehler, Mrs. Victor Bodley, and Mrs. Emma Harder.

These social affairs are open to the public and held on the 3rd Saturday evening of each month.

PNG's Celebrate Eleventh Birthday

The Past Noble Grand club of Sandy Rebekah Lodge celebrated their eleventh anniversary with a pot luck luncheon on Wednesday, January 16. Eighteen members were present. Mrs. Garland Seaman was a guest, and also three of the younger set: Tully Bell, Laurie Hergert and baby Russell Markvardson.

During the business meeting Alta Van Ausdel was installed as vice president, Margaret Kotzman as treasurer. Other officers of the club who were installed at the December meeting are: president, Agnes Hergert; secretary, Edna Hall; chaplain, Edna Amstad, and musician, Arleigh Hall.

The PNG club was instituted by the late Bess Rehberg at the home of Margaret Kotzman in January, 1941. The first officers were: Verna Strobe, president; Margaret Kotzman, vice president; Jennie Markvardson, secretary; Vera Smith, treasurer, and Mabel Kealiher, chaplain.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday evening, February 18, at the home of Hazel Brown with Harriet Mel-nig, Marie Motejl and Georgia Whitlock as co-hostesses. All members are urged to attend.

on their 25th wedding anniversary by having a surprise party for them at the Dover school house on Saturday evening, January 19.

Ray Hortter acted as master of ceremonies and kept things lively. The Jolly O'Brien family furnished the music: Maur-teen and Mrs. O'Brien played guitars; Jolly and Ray Work-finger entertained with harmon-icas, and all joined in singing.

A set of silverware, service for 12, was presented to the honor guests from the commu-nity.

Cake, jello, coffee and cocoa were served to the 70 men, women and children attending. Mrs. Ray Hortter baked a four-tier wedding cake, her daughter decorated it, Mrs. Bews, the guest of honor, cut it, and they all ate it. Many other cakes were also served.

Mrs. George, Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Kiefl were on the commit-tee.

Eagle Creek Grange Has Big Attendance

The meeting of Eagle Creek Grange No. 297 was attended by a large membership January 19. Several visitors from Multnomah Grange and from Garfield Grange were guests. Six new applications for membership were received and two were trans-ferred to Eagle Creek Grange.

Brother Ewalt presented a talk on insect life. He also stated that there was a decline in rural telephone companies are slowly but surely absorbing the rural co-operative telephone com-panies.

In a comic contest conducted by Mrs. Ewalt, three couples tried to tie a package, with plenty of applause and humor from the sidelines.

Refreshments were prepared by Mrs. Tony Bullinger, Mrs. Ed Bruns and Mrs. Will Bell and served to the 52 persons attend-ing the meeting.

The Eagle Creek Grange just completed new modern indoor rest rooms as well as other im-provements on the buildings and grounds.

The 4-H Mountain Homemakers Meet

4-H club work has been getting underway for a new year up the mountain.

Wednesday afternoon, January 16, a 4-H homemaking club was organized at the A. E. Mitchell home. Five members were pres-ent.

Officers for the club are: Pres-ident, Dixie Jenks; vice president, Gerry Shanks; secretary-treas., Carole Alt; reporter, Ellen Mit-chen, and game chairman, Edward Mitchell.

"The 4-H Mountain Homemak-ers," is the name chosen for the club. Mrs. A. E. Mitchell is the leader.

Rebekah And IOOF Lodges Hold Joint Installation

A joint installation for IOOF 195 and Rebekah Lodge 193 was held at the IOOF hall Mon-day evening, January 14, with more than 100 members pres-ent.

District Deputy President Vi-let Gomoll was installing officer for the Rebekahs and installed Noble Grand Audrey Colson, Vice Grand Mildred Seaman, Re-cording Secretary Arleigh Hall, Financial Secretary Edna Hall and Treasurer Edna Amstad.

Deputy Grand Master Herman Steinke installed Vern Alt as Noble Grand of the IOOF and Guy Wilcox as Vice Grand.

Patsy Colson presented her mother with a bouquet of roses with sweet ceremony. The offi-cers presented Mrs. Eralm Stromberg, outgoing noble grand, a gift and she in turn gave all her officers a gift.

The Olaf Andersons Honor Guests With Turkey Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Anderson honored the sixth wedding an-niversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger and the 26th anniver-sary of Mr. and Mrs. George Floyd's wedding day, with a turkey dinner Sunday at their home on Dover road.

Other celebrants were Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Eggers, Allan An-derson and tiny Judy and Rick-ey Metzger.

Sue Griffin Attends Liberal Arts School

Miss Sue Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Griffin, Rhododendron, is one of three Oregon students registered at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Miss Griffin is a freshman at the Colorado liberal arts school.

Colorado College's nation-wide student body now comes from 38 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Alaska and seven foreign countries. The state of Colorado leads the list with 402 students, followed by 124 from Illinois, 63 from California and 36 from New York. Included in the 10 states with the highest representa-tion are Kansas, Iowa, Massa-chusetts, Missouri, Wisconsin and New Mexico.

Among the seven foreign coun-tries listed, Canada, as usual, leads the list with 16 students. Three are from Germany, with one each from Nigeria in West Africa, Mexico, China, Burma and Trans-Jordan.

Continuation of the Study of the Deityship of Jesus
This is another of the great fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion. Jesus predicated his work on the fact that he was divine. Disprove that fact and the entire fabric of Christianity falls.

A Christian is one who believes wholeheartedly in Christ and who has accepted obediently the terms of pardon revealed in God's Word. Being born again, being added to the church, being converted, all mean about the same thing. How may we know we have complied with the requirements that make one a Christian? We cannot depend upon our feelings. Our conscience is influenced by education and may be misinformed or misled (See Acts 23:1-26:9). We must know exactly what God's Word teaches only then can we determine whether we have met its requirements. We should follow Paul's instructions, "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus" Col. 3:17.

There are two laws of pardon revealed in the Scriptures. One is for the Christian who has sinned and who desires to return to the favor of God. The other is for the person who never has been a Christian and who desires to become a child of God. The law for the erring Christian is "Repent . . . and pray God" Acts 3:22. But this Scripture does not apply to the person who never has been a Christian. He has no right to pray God to forgive and save him until he obeys the requirements of the gospel through which forgiveness is promised. "Why call ye me Lord, and do not the things which I say," Luke 6:46. Then again we read in John 9:31; "Now we know that God heareth not sinners; but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth." To the Jews on the day of Pentecost, who had never been Christians, Peter said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2:38)
