Sandy Women To Support
 Portland Symphony Groups

Five Sandy women are carrying on the chain of "coffee hour" next week, for the joint benefit of the Portland Symphony society and the Junior Symphony association.

Mrs. Winton Bouray of Brightwood was the first hostess in this area to keep the Portland chain unbroken. She invited four friends for coffee and a sweet roll. Each guest contributed one dollar, and agreed to continue the chain by inviting four women as her guests.

The hostess at the first Sandy coffee hour, May 6, will be Miss Esther Fichtner. Her guests, Mrs. Al Meinig, Mrs. Reuben Hoffman, Mrs. David Bell, and Mrs. Warren Decker will continue the chain by inviting four guests Monday, May 12.

In Portland, providing the chain is a strong one, the second week will bring $1080; the

Engaged

Miss Ann Elizabeth Otto, sophomore at Lewis and Clark college in Portland, whose engagement to Gilbert Christian, sixth grade teacher at Sandy grade school, was announced recently.

Pink And Blue Shower
 Honors Mrs. C. Paul

A pink and blue shower was given in honor of Mrs. Charles A. Paul at the home of Mrs. Henry Perret Friday evening. Mrs. E. Lloyd Holt of Kelso and Mrs. G. Hathorn were hostesses.

Harold Gunderson Is Honored With Party

Harold Gunderson was honored with a surprise birthday dinner party Tuesday, April 22 at his home. Those helping him to remember his birthday besides his wife, hostess of the affair, and his daughter Sharon were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris and Ronnie of Orient; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eliason and Joann; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gunderson; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gunderson, Wallace Jr. and Carol Ann of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beil and family, and Mrs. Ellen Radford.

Sandy Grade School Faculty Dinner Held

The annual dinner given by the Sandy grade school faculty for the members of the school board was held in the grade school cafeteria at 7 o'clock Tuesday, April 22. The guest of honor was Herman Steinke, who is retiring at the close of this school year after more than 10 years as janitor of the grade school.

Clark Lund, president of the Sandy grade school teachers' association, welcomed the group and presented Mr. and Mrs. Steinke with the faculty's gift—a compact travel-kit of cooking utensils to use on their fishing trips.

After a delicious ham dinner, cooked and served by the Sandy teachers, the group enjoyed several accordion numbers by George Hale, readings by Cecil Chase, a tuba solo by Clifford Sanders, and tenor solos by Gilbert Christian. The speaker for the evening was Floyd Light, former Sandy high school principal, now superintendent of schools at St. Helens. Mr. Light spoke on "Good Faculty-School Board Relationships."

Members of the board and special guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Hoffman, Mrs. J. M. Miller, whose husband is chairman of the board, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith; George Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Light, Clifford Sanders, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steinke.

Augusta Bruns Plays Hostess To PNG Club

Past Noble Grand Club met at the home of Augusta Bruns Monday evening, April 21. Emma Rannow and Clara Sandstrom were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Bruns won the white elephant prize. Entertainment included games and a cake walk. Harriet Meinig gave the club an electric clock to be presented to the Rebekah Lodge as a gift from the PNG club.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served the 17 members and six guests from Boring PNG present.

The next meeting will be held at the Woman's Club hall Saturday evening, May 26 with Marie Thomas, Edna Amstad and Olive Pearson as hostesses. Members of the PNG club of Gresham will be invited to attend.

Clara Ellis Honored With Going-Away Party

A "going-away" party in honor of Clara Ellis was given April 22 at 7 p.m. by the Christian Endeavor of the Community church in the church annex.

Those present at the party were: Clara Ellis; Howard Higgins; Barbara King; Paul, Shirley, Janice and Don Dove; Mr. and Mrs. Jolly O'Brien, Maureen and Kathleen; Karl Hartmann; Myrna and Dennis Slaughter; Donna and Sandra Deming; Janice Major; Mona Creekmur; Udene Urban; Sharon McCormick; Rita Gamble, and Richard Ziemer. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Deming and Mr. and Mrs. Ziemer and boys joined the party.

During the evening games were played. While refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were being served, Clara was presented with a lovely camellia corsage. The C.E. pin that had been ordered did not arrive until the next day when it was given to her. The party was brought to a close by everyone singing several favorite C.E. songs.

Sandy Eastern Stars
 Attend District Meeting

Members of the Eastern Star of Sandy attended the district meeting at Estacada Tuesday evening, April 15, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McAllister, and Mrs. Sarah Mode were initiated. Mrs. Alice Robinson, worthy grand matron, paid an official visit.

The Estacada high school barbershop quartet sang several numbers, then refreshments were served.

Musical Program
 And Tea Set For Sunday Afternoon

A musical program honoring motherhood sponsored by the Sandy Community church and Sunday school will take place Sunday afternoon May 4 at 2:30 p. m. at the Sandy Community church. The program being arranged by Mrs. David Bell, choir leader, will feature choir voices, high school girl vocalists, and instrumental solos and duets.

After the program the adults will be served refreshments by the 7th and 8th grade and high school girls and engage in a social hour in the annex of the church while the younger ones remain in the auditorium where three films especially selected for the event will be shown. The names of the films are: "I'll Take the High Road," a color film of the Canadian Rockies; "Your Heritage," and "The Littlest Angel," a picture that has taken the public by storm. After the pictures are shown refreshments will be served to the children.

Housewarming Given For The Roppelles

A housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Mathias R. Riopelle who were recently married was given at their home in Portland on Sunday afternoon.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Ray Hughes, daughter of Mrs. Riopelle, and Mrs. Larry Hughes, a granddaughter, both of The Dalles.

Thirty-five guests attended, many from the Sandy and Boring areas. The couple was presented with many beautiful gifts. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostesses.
