Nell's Notes...

IRENE, wife of the now famous DORREL PETRIE, entertained last Tuesday—The Golf Course is now open and going strong. If this were Hollywood they would describe it as being Superlative, Stupendous and Splendacious—Be sure to listen on May 21 to the KGW Hostess House Party. TONY CARLSON AND COMPANY will make their Radio debut—It was WALTER CREIGHTON who shot the mauling coyote that was causing considerable concern in our midst—BILL FAUBION driving what he calls the Teddy Roosevelt Rough Rider with a few added descriptive words—The BILL HUGHES and the M. E. MARZOLFS have a-fishing gone—IRENE FABRI has her car in the garage for repairs and has taken up fishing in a big way. She is also chopping wood for the first time in her life—Have you seen WALT BLAISDELL'S new cap? Now there is something to make you stop dead in your tracks—Amazed to see a sign in front of MERT WHEELER'S garage with big bold letters stating: "Entering Sandy." CECIL SKAER was in the hospital last week—We square dancers are certainly stepping high, wide and handsome and getting faster and fiercer all the time. It's more darn fun—A lovely evening was spent at the JIM LYNES—The loss of JACK GREENWOOD is greatly felt. Our nice people always leave us too soon.

Funeral Rites For R. H. Shearman

Raymond Hemilup Shearman of Rt. 1, Box 130 Sandy quietly passed away at his home Friday, April 25 at 1:40 p. m. after a lingering illness.

Mr. Shearman was born on November 18, 1873 at Allegheny City, Pittsburgh, Penn., and at the time of his death was 78 years of age. For many years he was an agent and operator for the Pennsylvania Railroad, and then became a farmer. He made many trips to the West, and often stayed for more than a year. In 1931 he left Pennsylvania and settled in the Sandy area. At the time of his death he was a night watchman at the Bittner Mill in Sandy. On Sept. 24, 1905 at Vancouver, Wash., he was united in marriage to Miss Lois A. Wyman. His first trip west had been in 1899.

The surviving members of his family include his wife, Lois, at Sandy and a daughter, Mrs. L. L. Oathout of Tacoma, Wn., three sons, Roger C. Shearman of Van Nuys, Calif., Russell M. of North Hollywood, Calif., and Richard R. of Sandy. There are six grandchildren. He has many relatives in Pennsylvania.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 29, at 2:00 p. m. in the Chapel of Carroll Funeral Home, Gresham with cremation at Lincoln Memorial Park. Rev. W. L. Killiam of Sandy Community church offered the service and William Elliott sang. Final committal took place in Urn Garden at Forest Lawn Cemetery, Gresham.
