Spring Round-Up Topic Of Wy'east Garden Club

By Mrs. A. B. Bradley

The next regular meeting of the Wy'east Garden club will be held on May 20 at 11 o'clock at the Wemme Community hall. Business meeting in the morning, with sandwich luncheon at noon. Mrs. Bessie Rogan and Mrs. Daisy Schaefer are hostesses this time, according to Mrs. Walter Krebs, hospitality chairman.

The program at 1 o'clock will be devoted to a Spring Roundup. There will be no outside speaker, but the emphasis will be on wild flowers with Mrs. Walter Creighton giving a talk. Mrs. James Langdon will discuss birds, and there will be talks on primroses by Mrs. William Hallam and the president, Mrs. William Drips. An informal round-table discussion will be held afterwards.

The executive board meeting of the club was held at Elsie Creighton's on Tuesday, May 13.

LWML Sets Used Clothing Drive

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League met at the home of Mrs. Emil Reich with Mrs. Erhard Ulrich as co-hostess on May 10, 1952.

Business meeting started at 1:30 p.m. with the hymn, "O Blessed the House, Whate'er Befall," followed by scripture reading and prayer. Rev. Dey presented the topic, "Charitable Endeavors of the Church."

Nineteen members were present and one visitor.

Mrs. Louis Ulrich reported on the convention at Hillsboro. Others attending the convention were: Mrs. N. E. Dey, Mrs. Helen Dahrens, Mrs. Emil Reich, Mrs. Emil Fuerstenau, Mrs. Aaron Meyer.

It was decided to have another clothing drive this month. Clothing is to be good used clothing and will be sent over to Korea. The deadline for clothing drive will be June 15. Clothing may be left at the Harry Hall home.

The Cheer and Welfare Committee reported making up nine potted plants and giving them to some of the older women of the league and to a few who were sick. They also delivered three baskets of baked goods to the older men of our church, who were living alone. This was done for Easter. The committee was also commended for the grand work in the visiting and cheering of the sick and older members.

The next LWML zone rally will meet on May 22 at 10:30 a.m. with luncheon at noon, at Molalla, Oregon. Rev. and Mrs. Ring will talk on their work among the deaf and also will show slides and a movie.

As project for the day, Mrs. Henry Schwartz showed the project of Leather Cutting and Carving carried on by the 4-H club of the Lutheran school children. Belts, billfolds, knife shields, comb shields were shown.

The next meeting will be held at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Emil Fuerstenau with Mrs. Floyd Wagner as co-hostess. The program for the day will be presented by Mrs. Kenneth Flath and Mrs. Carl Neumann.

Oregon Trail Riders Hold Gay Party, Pie Social

By Myrth True Neilson

A pie social was held by the Oregon Trail Riders club at their club house Saturday evening, May 3. It was a gay party and everyone had an enjoyable time.

Entertainment chairman Virginia Seals was assisted by Josephine Lamb and Eunice Eliason. Music committee was Mike Lamb and Ralph Neilson. John Mills, auctioneer, was assisted by Guy Wilcox.

There was dancing and square dancing and the three little Brightwood lads, Darrell, Victor and La Verne Smothers sang several numbers. The musicians were Dorothy Smothers, Al Rounds and Charles Dunham of Brightwood and our own Mike Lamb and Ralph Neilson.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. William Smothers and sons Darrell, Victor and La Vern, and Al Rounds of Brightwood; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wills and daughter Frances and son Douglas; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Keller, Don Farmer, Rolla Longnecker, Guy Wilcox, Howard Eliason and daughter Jo Ann, all of Sandy; and Patsy Tonkins, Gresham.

The regular business meeting with committee reports on the tentative plans of our annual field meet to be held in conjunction with the strawberry festival was held Monday evening, May 5. At this meeting Dr. Claude Lewis of Portland became a member. Welcome to you, Doc Lewis.

King's Daughters Have Banquet For Mothers

The King's Daughters of the Sandy Baptist Chapel with their leader, Mrs. Moore, held a banquet for their mothers on Friday evening, May 9 at the Women's Club hall.

A good number attended the banquet and program afterwards upstairs. The menu consisted of chicken and noodles, mashed potatoes, tomato juice, salads, punch, pie and coffee. A fine group of fathers turned out to serve the mothers and daughters and to wash dishes afterward.

Mrs. Clifford Peach, state president of the King's Daughters, was speaker of the program. The girls furnished the rest of the entertainment with singing and instrumental music. Mrs. Peach told of the King's Daughters over the State of Oregon and their purpose. They are girls groups in the churches who are organized in Bible study and missionary activities to promote evangelism, personal Christian growth and missionary vision. They have badges and uniforms and are advanced through different ranks as they follow up their course. The girls also go to camp in the summer months. A most enjoyable evening was had by all.

Mrs. R. Jonsrud Voted Grange Mother Of Year

At the meeting of the Sandy Grange on Saturday evening, May 10 Al Gantenbein, supervisor of the Kelso area air raid ground observation corps talked to the grangers about the new 24 hour alert instituted recently by the government. Mrs. J. A. McReynolds member of the Sandy grange who has acted as chief observer of the Kelso post also spoke. The grange voted to sponsor an educational moving picture valuable in training observers and the public. The date for this picture will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. William Giese of Welches were admitted to membership. Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts of Springfield were among the 30 members present. The Sandy grange voted Mrs. Robert Jonsrud as grange mother of the year. She was presented with an exquisite bouquet of pink rosebuds by Victor Bodley.

The display table featured a variety of garden flowers.

Coffee, cake, pie and sandwiches were served at the meeting with Mrs. R. Jonsrud acting as hostess. Table decorations featured lilacs.

Bake Sale Featured By Home Ec Club Is Success

The Home Ec club of the Sandy Grange met with Mrs. Ed Herz on Tuesday, May 16 for a potluck luncheon at noon, with 11 members and one visitor, Mrs. A. Bloder, present.

A bake and home-cooked food sale was planned and successfully carried out at the Smith Motor company on Friday, May 9. The committee in charge was Mrs. William Pearson, Mrs. Emma Harder and Mrs. R. Jonsrud.

It is our pride that makes another's criticism rankle, our self-will that makes another's deed offensive, our egotism that feels hurt by another's self-assertion. —Eddy
