SUNDAY SCHOOL 9:45 A.M.
MORNING SERVICES 11:00 A.M.
YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR 7:30 P.M.

Next Sunday will be observed as Father's Day, both in the Sunday school and at the 11:00 service. Sermon theme: "The Husband's and Father's place in the home and in the church." All men are especially invited.

Think Ye On These Things

Is it possible for a man to sincerely believe himself to be right religiously, but yet be wrong? We should examine our religion very thoroughly and not take the word of any man for it. I do not ask any man to take my word, but to "search the scriptures daily to see if these things are so." If what I say, or any man, is not according to the Bible, it is not so.

WILL YOU ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS FOR YOURSELF? Have you taken the word of your preacher for your religion? Do you know that your religion is right according to the Bible? Have you examined it to see? Can you find divine approval for all your religious practices; your way of being saved, way of worship? Can you find the name of the church you are a member of in the Bible? If not, why can't you? If not is it a divine institution? Do you use mechanical instruments in your worship? Did Christ? Did the apostles and early Christians? If so where is it found in the New Testament? If you can not find it, why do you use it? Do you want to be pleasing to God or please yourself? Are you perfectly happy with your condition in life; with your salvation? Are you ready to meet God in your condition? Are you perfectly happy with the practices of the church you attend? If not why not seek for one that is better, and right?

Wy'east Garden Club To Meet At Wemme Community Hall June 17

The next meeting of the Wy'east Garden Club on June 17 at the Wemme Community Hall, promises to be unusually interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Potter of Rhododendron are the speakers on the subject, Preparation and New Ideas for Flower Shows, followed by a round table discussion. Mr. and Mrs. Potter both write different horticultural magazines, and they publish one of their own.

The regular business meeting will begin at 11 a.m. Sandwich luncheon is at noon, with birthdays for April, May and June being celebrated. The program, as outlined above, begins at 1 p.m.

Mrs. William Drips, club president, reports that the garden club has been asked to join with the American Rhododendron Society in a picnic at Tollgate on Sunday, June 22. After dinner the group will adjourn to Laurel Hill, where the Rhododendron Society planted rhododendrons, including one very rare wild white one.

The executive board meeting of the Wy'east Garden Club was held at Mrs. A. B. Bradley's on Tuesday, June 10.

The Seven Castles Visit Sandy Chapel; Shut-ins Entertained

Guest artists at the Sandy Baptist Chapel on Sunday were "The Seven Castles." Among the songs they sang were "Traveling Home" and "A Medley of Old Time Songs." Solos and trio numbers made up a variety of talent among which were many written by members of the group.

Such thought provoking statements as the following are brought out in the weekly prayer meetings at the Sandy Baptist Chapel: "When did you, as a Christian, ask the Lord to search your heart?"

A group from the Sandy Baptist Chapel visited the shut-ins of the community on Sunday afternoon, singing choruses, reading scripture and distributing fresh fruit.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed by the members of the Sandy Baptist Chapel at the Sandy Grange hall in Kelso last Friday evening.
