The next day everyone but Ivan reported that instructions had been carried out faithfully. "Don't you love our leader?" the teacher asked Ivan. "Oh, yes," he answered, "but I couldn't hang my picture on the wall because we have no wall. Our family lives in the center of the room."

Rhododendron Meeting Attended By Four Mountain Residents

Mr. and Mrs. James Langdon, Mr. William Drips and Mrs. Walter Creighton attended the meeting of the American Rhododendron Society on Laurel Hill Sunday, June 22. A. L. Sersanos of Portland, president of the society, gave an interesting talk on rhododendrons, his hobby. A picnic was held, beforehand, at the Barlow Forest Camp.

Mrs. Drips, president of the Wy'east Garden Club, gave a short talk on the rhododendron garden which the club is planning to make on the Ranger Station grounds in the early fall. She was presented with two rare rhododendrons by Mr. Esch, a Portland nurseryman; and another nurseryman from Camas, Washington gave her five more plants, all specie plants from Himalaya. These will be taken care of during the summer by Mr. Langdon, who will plan and landscape the proposed garden at the proper time.
