Smith-Schmitz Wedding Held In Chester, England Church

St. Werburgh's church, Chester, England was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sheila Margaret Smith and Jack Clinton Schmitz, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lex Schmitz, Sandy, on July 30.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith of 6, Winchester Square, Lache Estate, in a gown of white lace and tulle and tulle veil, came down the aisle on the arm of her father. She carried a spray of red carnations on a Prayer Book.

Miss Patricia MacDonald, in a lavender taffeta and tulle dress and carrying a bouquet of mixed sweet peas, was bridesmaid.

B. G. Daniles, USAF, was best man. Father Corcoran performed the ceremony.

After a reception at Upton Village Hall, the bride and groom left for Torquay. Jack graduated from Sandy Union high school in May 1950. He enlisted in the air force on October 4, 1950 and arrived in England in February 1951 where he has been stationed since.

Mrs. Dubarko's Home Scene of Meeting

The August meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League was held at the home of Mrs. Louis Dubarko with Mrs. Herbert Huck as co-hostess.

The business meeting began at 1:30 p.m., with 21 members present.

Rev. Dey led the LWML topic, "Gaining the Indifferent Worldling."

It was decided that the league purchase a liturgy book for Pastor Dey's use in church.

The president, Mrs. Henry Schwartz, appointed the following committee to serve for the Sunday school picnic: Mrs. Harvey Kubitz, Mrs. Elmer Wagner, Marie Krieger, Mrs. Curtis Weatherby, Mrs. Emil Reich and Mrs. Henry Schwartz.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Anderson with Mrs. Norman Erickson as co-hostess. Mrs. Harvey Kubitz and Mrs. Helen Dahrens will present the program for the day.

Silver Tea Honors George Hoar Family

Boring Rebekah lodge met at the IOOF hall Thursday, August 7. Mrs. Louise Shields, noble grand, presided.

Mrs. Alberta Frost, Mrs. Katie Menser, and Miss Judy Johnson, hostesses, served pie and coffee after the meeting.

A silver team honoring the George Hoar family was held Thursday August 14 at the home of Mrs. Albert Valberg. George Hoar is slowly recovering from the serious spine injury he received in the Boring first aid truck accident. He is in Emanuel hospital, Portland.

Farrs Entertain At Their Ranch Home

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Farr entertained Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Vandergrif, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crawford, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farr on Sunday at their ranch home on Three Six road off the Loop highway.

The dinner menu included barbecued beef, spare ribs and chicken, corn roasted in shuck, roasted potatoes, baked beans, cole slaw, hot rolls, berry pie and coffee.

The Farrs have a beautiful natural picnic ground on upper Cedar creek.

Bonney Clan Holds Family Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shields, daughter Bonney, son Mathew, and nephew Richard, of Boring; and Mrs. Shield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Schuts of Gresham, attended a reunion of the Bonney clan which was held at Settlemier park at Woodburn, Oregon.

Bonney Shields was one of the seventh generation Bonneys present. About 75 relatives turned out for the reunion.

Boring Folks Attend Square Dance Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Ritter of Boring and Mr. and Mrs. L. Bickels of Lake Grove attended the fifth annual folk dance camp at the College of Pacific at Stockton, California.

They drove down the coast route and visited friends in Alameda and Oakland on their way to Stockton.

They spent a week going to school learning folk and square dances from instructors coming from all over the USA and Europe.

The Dalles-California highway was the route of the return trip.

Metzger Clan Gathers For Seventeenth Annual Reunion

By Mrs. J. H. Dollowitch

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred O. Stafford and her mother, Mrs. Julia C. Alder on Hayden road, was the scene of great activity over the weekend when relatives from far and near met there for the 17th annual meeting of the Metzger clan, descendants of John and Mary Metzger who crossed the plains by ox teams from Illinois to Sheridan, Oregon 100 years ago.

Mrs. Julia C. Alder, 86, long time resident of the Victory community, is the only living child of this pioneer couple. She was the next to the youngest of the 17 children of the Metzger family, nine of whom grew to maturity. Some of the children failed to survive the hardships of the wagon train. Seven of these nine children were represented by their descendants who were present for the reunion.

Saturday evening about 50 persons enjoyed a pot luck supper on the lawn, which was followed by visiting and square dancing to records with Marion Kitchen doing the calling.

Officers Elected

Sunday afternoon, following a picnic dinner, the annual meeting of the clan was held with the election of officers. Bob Brown was chosen president. Mrs. Jean Daymon was elected vice-president and Gary Hayden was chosen as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Julia Alder still holds her undisputed title as Queen.

More than 70 relatives were present at the Clan meeting, including several from California, and many more from Portland and other towns in the state. The California visitors included: Mrs. Minnie Heard, Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis, Mrs. Pauline Bibler, Mrs. Hazel Olson, Mrs. Myrtle De Camp, all of Oakland. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Canfield and their week-old son, Steven, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clay Brown, of Sutherlin; Mrs. Etta Ladd, of Sheridan and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and son of Reedsport. Many Portland and Gresham relatives were present.

A. Bartschs Attend Bramhall Reunion At Battleground, Wash.

The forty-first annual family reunion of the descendants of Elaiser S. and Martha A. Bramhall who settled in what is now known as the Aims country in 1884 was held Sunday, August 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bramhall, Battleground, Washington.

A lengthy table under the shade trees on their spacious lawn was loaded with the contents of a basket dinner featuring fried chicken and huckle-berry pie with all the "trim-mings."

Elaiser Bramhall was in quest of fine timber and eventually built and operated a sawmill on Deer creek near the site where the Martin family now resides. William Bramhall of Battleground is now the only surviving member of the original 10 brothers and sisters. The family tree lists about 200 descendants.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bartsch, route 2, Sandy, attended the meeting. Mrs. Bartsch organized the reunion association in 1911 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bramhall who then resided at Pleasant Home. They later lived near Sandy.

The first meeting was attended by all the members living at that time.
