

Nell's Notes...

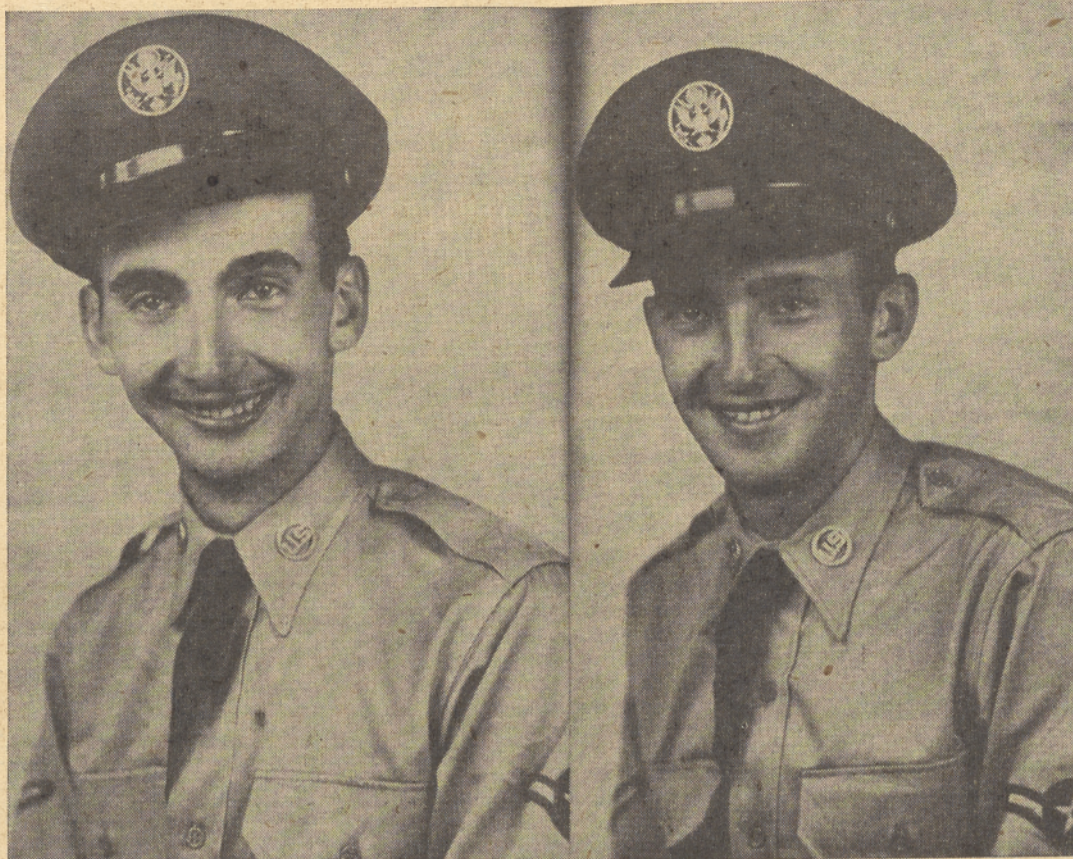

DAVE TEMPLE, AL ROUNDS and CHARLIE DUNHAM, three grand guys, who joined up together and put a new roof on the HUDDLESON home—PANCHO, the LAMBERTS' wonder dog is now the proud father of 12—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the birthday party given Mrs. F. H. TAWNEY — TED ZOG with a spiffy new car, although his old one could perform some remarkable feats—What do you know! Some studdings are now up on the HOWE'S dream house—Wish the person who wrote that anonymous letter would give forth with the news we seem to be overlooking. It would be gratefully received. We truly aim to please, dear one.

Orchids to HELEN and ED COOK for the donation of their pool and property for the Red Cross swimming classes. No orchids however to the few children who mistreated the furniture and property—MRS. WALTER KREBS is home after her many weeks in Medford—JO DRIPS, JENNY WELCH, HALLIE ADAMS and BOBBY BOYD back from Crater Lake and with a car full of beautiful pine cones—The versatile MRS. O'DEA was even undaunted to climb to a tree top to carry on some necessary disciplinary rules—BUTTERCUP is the only one who can pick daisies while swimming—TOM and EDNA SCALES enjoying a vacation in the mountains—IRMA and IVAN BARTLEY back to collect the things they left behind when they moved—GENE BOWMAN made a hurried trip to Denver and back—IRENE PETRIE doing a good and noble deed.

The Wy'east Garden to picnic at JOHN and ISABEL LAKE'S Thursday, August 21. Program will be given by MRS. F. E. BOYDEN—DELL HOWARD'S new shop is real super-duper—There are a lot of nice things about WALKIE PROCTOR—That is a mighty pretty garden that 'SAMS' wife has created around their new home at the bend of road in Cherryville — JENNIE WELCH would like the mornings better if they came later in the day.
