Candlelight, Palms Accent Church, Scene of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Heiman have returned from their honeymoon trip which took them to Lake Tahoe and will be at home at Orient where Walter will engage in farming.

The wedding took place at Trinity Baptist church, Portland on Friday, September 5. The bride was Miss Alice Amelia Bachofner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Bachofner, Portland, before the ceremony. Walter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Heiman, Boring, and a graduate of Sandy high school.

The church was decorated with gladioli and palms, accented by flickering candles in tall candlelabrum. Reverend Wobig performed the rites.

The bride, in a rich white satin and lace dress, her elbow length veil held in place with a crown of flowers and carrying a bouquet of white roses and white gladioli, was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Lillian Heiman, the bride's sister, in a pink lace over satin gown was matron of honor. Her bouquet was of pink roses and gladioli.

Arnold Heiman, the groom's brother, was best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors where a four-tiered cake topped by a tiny bride and groom centered the refreshment table.

The bride chose an aqua two-piece dress and black accessories for her going-away outfit.

Community Church To Observe Lord's Supper

Next Sunday, October fifth, Sandy Community church will unite with worldwide Protestant churches in the observance of "The Lord's Supper," an annual affair in most of the Protestant churches throughout the world.

Special music, a brief Communion meditation, and baptism of infants have been arranged.

Installation of Sunday school officers will be held during the close of the Sunday school hour.

State President To Visit Boring Rebekahs

Plans are being made by Boring Rebekah lodge for a visit of the state president on November 6th.

At the last meeting, Boring Rebekah lodge was visited by members of the Pi Nu Gamma club of Portland. Noble grand Louise Shield opened lodge.

Reception committee included Rena Manary, Genevieve Valberg, and Mildred Johnson.

Birthday Of Teacher Celebrated By Picnic

Mrs. Dean Barnett, sixth grade teacher at Sandy grade school, was honored on her birthday with a picnic party given by the sixth grade girls' Health club of which Mrs. Barnett is leader. Elerath's Alpenhaven farm, located 2 miles east of Sandy, was the scene of the picnic Wednesday afternoon, September 24 from 4 to 6 p.m.

Games were played, then the picnic dinner was served. The menu included salads, sandwiches, baked beans, potato chips, and relishes with cake, both chocolate and white, served with icecream and frozen strawberries for dessert.

Members of the health club include: Earlynn Anderson, Ruth Andersen, Judith Bittner, Nancy Blake, Eleanor Butchko, Joyce Copher, Linda Dallsies, Lucille Davis, Luwanna Edes, Barbara Elerath, Judy Eri, Donna Farmer, Karen Gannon, Velma Gifford, Darlene Gray, Sharon Gunderson, Shirlene Hunter, Verlene Judson, Peggy Katt, Nancy Lamb, Virginia Lauderback, Loraine Marshall, Sandra Nasshahn, Janice Osterback, Ernestine Phillips, Donna Ray, Karen Ridenour, Shirley Schmitz, Marily Tarlton, Barbara Whitlock, Diane Williams, Ellen Wilson, and Marie Wolf.

Teachers and others who attended and assisted were: Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. C. C. Chase, Miss Goldie Carroll, Gil Christian and Mr. and Mrs. Elerath.

Community Church Sets Apron Fair October 22

An "Apron Fair" has been slated for Wednesday, October 22 at 2 p.m. at Community church annex. The program for the afternoon will include apron exhibit and judging, and tea.

Awards will be given for the following entries: oldest apron in years; most attractive scrap bag apron; most inexpensive apron; most original design; children's apron.

All aprons entered with the exception of the oldest apron are to be donated to the apron booth for the church bazaar to be held on Tuesday, November 4 for the benefit of the Sandy Community church.

"Everyone is invited to enter as many aprons as they wish," adds Mrs. Lewis Hall, church official.

R. Jonsrud Entertain Guest From Scotland

Mrs. Janet Stewart of Campbelltown, Argyllshire, Scotland is a house guest of the Robert Jonsruds. Mrs. Stewart arrived by plane in the early part of June from Scotland to Calgary, Alberta, to spend the summer with her son and daughter-in-law, the Ronald Stewarts of Calgary. Mrs. Don Stewart, the former Dorothy Jonsrud accompanied her mother-in-law for a visit to Sandy before the former returns to her home in Scotland the middle of October. She will make the return trip by air also.

Mrs. Stewart, who is well versed in the history of her own country as well as world events, has been delighted to meet a number of her countrymen in Sandy and is superlative in her praise of Oregon scenery and of her reception here.

The R. Jonsruds had a family gathering in honor of Mrs. Stewart on Sunday. Those present were: C. A. Lindell, Alice Draper and Harold McNeill of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jonsrud and daughters Judy, Leslie and Laurie.
