Guest Day Event Of Sandy Woman's Club

By Mrs. Robert Jonsrud

Guest Day at the Woman's club of Sandy on Thursday, November 6, proved to be of unusual interest and enjoyment. This was due in part to a display of the artistic work of the Wy'east garden club in the form of wreaths, door knockers and corsages fashioned by its members from cones and seeds of a variety of coniferous trees and shrubs found in the mountain region. Mrs. Elsie Creighton explained the process used in this work, stating that she was one of the busy "ants" of the club who gathers the materials. She was accompanied by Mrs. Nell Bistorious who is one of the artists of the Wy'east club as are Jennie Welch and Mrs. William Drips.

Mrs. Quentin Norquist gave an informative talk on the techniques of television.

Alma Francis Fields presented LuRee Landis in two vocal numbers and Elgin Burns directed a brass band of four pieces in a program of German music. Mrs. Tom Seales had charge of the program.

The club voted to send Christmas gifts to the patients at the Veterans hospital in Roseburg. Copies of the Oregon Club Digest were distributed to member subscribers.

Hostesses for the tea served to the forty members and guests present were Mrs. Ivan Barker, Mrs. Olaf Andreson and Mrs. R. Jonsrud.

The hall was decorated in flowers of orange and red tones. The floral centerpiece on the tea table was flanked by colorful ears of corn.

Mrs. R. S. Hall and Mrs. George Hartwig poured.

Food For Entertainment Brightwood Unit Theme

By Irene Petrie

Numerous plans for the near future were discussed at the regular meeting of the Brightwood extension unit executive board.

At the regular unit meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Rueben Meyer, Mrs. F. J. Lyne will present the program, "Foods for Entertaining."

Mrs. A. Olson will discuss program planning with the group in the afternoon.

The group's Christmas party was discussed and tentative plans made.

An extensive report in regard to 4-H scholarships was given by Mrs. Arlie Mitchell. The scholarships are to be awarded in the near future.

Jones-Ellis Rites Held At Stevenson

Stevenson, Washington was the scene of the marriage of Miss Leatha Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones of Pleasant Home, and Sydney Ellis of Estacada. The wedding took place Wednesday, October 26. Those attending included Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hollenbeck, Miss Sherry Fuller and Miss Beverly Linton.

While you live, tell truth and shame the devil.

Sandy Rebekahs Pay Tribute To Leader

Sandy Rebekah lodge was honored by an official visit of the president of Oregon Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Olive Ramey of Hillsboro, at a special meeting held Wednesday evening, November 5, at the IOOF hall with more than 75 in attendance. Three candidates were initiated at this time.

A skit, "Hunting For Pencils," was featured during which a gift was presented to the local state president by the local lodge. Audrey Colson, noble grand, Mildred Seaman and Colleen Sheldon represented the lodge in the presentation.

A beautiful garden was arranged in the hall by Mrs. Alta Van Ausdell, degree captain as a tribute to the state president. Mrs. Ramey was taken for a walk in the garden where she picked a dozen long stemmed red roses.

Mrs. Christina Limbaugh presented a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Ramey in behalf of the junior IOOF.

The hall and tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Visitors from Portland and Vernonia were present.

Vancouver Rites Unite Pleasant Home Couple

Miss Dixie Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sparks, of Pleasant Home, became the bride of Alvan Null, son of Mrs. Anna Null, also of Pleasant Home, in a ceremony performed in Vancouver, Washington, Friday evening, October 31. The bride wore a gray suit with red accessories.

Mrs. Melvin Holt and Dee Sparks were attendants.

Other wedding guests included Mrs. Anna Null, and Mrs. Dewey Sparks.

The couple are at home on Pleasant Home road.

Shower Honors Bride At Meeting Of Sandy Ridge Woman's Club

by Mrs. M. L. Steff

The Sandy Ridge Woman's Club met at the home of Shirley Flath on November 6. Assistant hostesses for the pot luck luncheon were Helen Fritchie and Myrtle Deming.

A Christmas dinner party with husbands invited was slated for December 4 at 6:30 p.m. The birthday song was sung to Mary Allen and Shirley Flath.

A miscellaneous shower was held for Mrs. Bob Minyard (Joyce Elaine Wilder) whose wedding was an event of last month.

The club has started a rug project and a prize went to Liza Fuerstenau for sewing the most rags, and to Mrs. Widmer for tearing the most.

Door prizes for holding the lucky numbers were awarded to Helen Fritchie and Lucille Wagner.
