PNG Club Have Gala Holiday Party At Van Ausdell Home

By Olive Pearson

The Past Noble Grand Club met Monday night, December 15, at the home of Alta Van Ausdell with 22 members present. Hostesses were Alta Van Ausdell, Vera Smith and Manda Colson.

A delicious turkey dinner was served at tables beautifully decorated in Christmas motif.

After dinner the regular meeting was held and the new officers for the coming year were installed by the junior past president. Officers installed were Alta Van Ausdell, president; Erma Stromberg, vice president; Audrey Colson, secretary; Arleigh Hall, treasurer; Ethel Butler, chaplain; and Agnes Hergert, musician. A pretty corsage was presented to the incoming president by the outgoing president.

Plans were made for the next meeting which will be our annual party at the home of Augusta Bruns and will be pot luck.

The club presented Agnes Hergert with a gift which was a beautiful ceramic made by Harriet Meinig.

Everyone brought a Christmas gift to be given to our shut-ins.

A game, pin the nose on Santa, was played. Sarah Ilge won first prize, Marie Motejl second, and Bina Bell third.

Marie Thomas played several selections on her accordion and a wonderful time was had by all!

Sarah Ilge Heads New Officer List Of Rebekah Lodge

The following officers were elected by Sandy Rebekah Lodge at their meeting held Tuesday evening, December 9 at the Sandy IOOF hall:

Mrs. Sarah Ilge, noble grand; Mrs. Maud Johnson, Vice grand; Mrs. Manda Colson, recording secretary; Mrs. Violet Gomoll, financial secretary; and Mrs. Edna Amstad, treasurer. Mrs. Marie Thomas, district deputy, will be installing officer at the installation slated for Thursday, January 8.

Miss Sheila Anne Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Chase of Rt. 1, Box 146A, Sandy, became the bride of Calvin Gilbert Jones, son of Mrs. Earl Beach of Cocolalla, Idaho, in a single ring ceremony performed at Sandy Community church by Rev. Melvin Erickson of Troutdale Saturday afternoon, December 6, at 2 p. m. Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

Barbara King, soloist, sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." Edward Hall was musician.

The bride, in a gray suit and hat with black accessories and carrying a nosegay of pink rosebuds, pink bouvardia, and small white mums, was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Roy

MacDonald in a navy blue checked suit and wearing a double gardenia corsage was honor attendant for the bride while Roy MacDonald was best man. Approximately 50 guests, all relatives, attended the ceremony. Out of town guests included Mrs. Earl Beach, mother of the groom.

A reception was held after the rites were performed in the annex of the church. Mrs. Frank King poured while Mrs. Arthur Haugland cut the cake and Mrs. Roy Anderson helped serve. Barbara King passed the guest book.

The wedding trip took the pair to Idaho. They will make their home in Sandy.

Sunday Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. John Parr

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. John Parr (Mabel Byers) was given by Mrs. Floyd Pratt of Sandy Bluff Sunday afternoon, December 7.

The rooms were decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, golden sprays and large white bells.

A miniature horse and buggy and an old fashioned bride and groom, hand made by Mrs. Earl of Portland, centered the dining table and was surrounded by flowers and candles.

A program of music preceded the opening of gifts. Sheila Chase sang, "The Day of Golden Promise"; Phyllis Lehman at the piano played "Sweethearts," and "Tea for Two"; Loretta Byers, daughter of the bride, sang, "My Mom"; and Mrs. Pratt read "Today is Your Day," and played "Sweet As You Are," and "Here Comes the Bride."

A pink and white four tiered cake was cut and served with ice cream by Miss Lehman. Mrs. Ralph Harper of Sandy poured. She was assisted by Mrs. Harvey Watkins of Cottrell. Others helping were Mrs. Jess Hite, Mrs. Earl and Mrs. Burlingame.

Mr. and Mrs. Parr went to Canada on their wedding trip and will make their home in Portland where Parr is employed as pressman for the Oregon Journal.

Brightwood Extension Holds Christmas Party

It was a gay occasion at the Wemme Community hall on Thursday when the Brightwood Extension unit held their Christmas party there. Christmas turkey with all the trimmings was served at noon by hostesses Mrs. Alan Olson, Mrs. Bessie Lindstrom, Mrs. David Howe, Mrs. D. Petrie, Mrs. J. Langdon and Mrs. J. Lyne.

Mrs. J. Langdon decorated a Christmas tree and also assisted Mrs. Rueben Meyer in decorating the tables.

After singing Christmas carols the ladies took part in several games planned by Mrs. Harry Gaumon.

Each lady received a Christmas gift which they opened and displayed.

Mrs. Lloyd Jenkins delivered many Christmas cards sold for the benefit of the unit.
