Bornstedt Boosters Enjoy Yule Party

The Bornstedt Boosters held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mary Jane Berry Saturday, December 13, with 17 members and one visitor taking part.

After a short business meeting, a gift exchange was enjoyed followed by delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Berry.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lydia Soderland.

Mrs. Paul Namhie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ramlow of Cottrell, underwent an appendectomy at Portland Sanitarium.

Mrs. Steve Gregus and small son Larry went to San Francisco to spend Christmas with her husband who is in the U. S. Navy. The Breen family are caring for the other two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fox of Boring and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Earley of Sandy were among guests who attended a homecoming for Lt. J/g Duane Tarpenning, just home from Korea, at the David Murphy home in Gresham last Friday. During the evening Lt. Tarpenning showed movies he had taken while aboard the Princeton and while he was in Japan.

Officers of Christian Endeavor, Sandy Community church, for the 52-53 year were recently installed in a candlelight service conducted by Dr. Wm. Killian, pastor of the church.

Barbara King led the congregation in singing the opening hymn. Then all the lights were turned off except the candles which were in the windows and on the piano and the officers entered, following Dr. Killian. As he told each officer his general duties, each lit a candle from the single tall taper on the table. Dr. Killian told the meaning of the candles and talked about the purpose of the young people's society in the community.

Retiring president Maureen O'Brien turned the service over to the new president, Gilbert Oldenkamp; Barbara led the congregation in another hymn and Dr. Killian closed the service with a prayer.

Gala Party Held By Wy'east Gardeners

By Mrs. A. B. Bradley

The last meeting of the Wy'east Garden Club for this year was held in the Wemmes Clubhouse on Dec. 16. Changes in the By-Laws were discussed; namely, changing the fiscal year so that it begins on June 1 instead of Jan. 1, as requested by the Federation of Garden Clubs. Action will be taken later.

The Boy Scouts were given $10.00 as a Christmas gift, and to help them off to a good start next year.

New officers for the year were elected, as follows; Jo Drips, president; Nell Howe, vice-president; Beth Bradley, secretary; Agnes Reinmunde, Corresponding secretary; and Elsie Creighton, treasurer.

The regular birthday party was postponed until January and the 17 women present got to work on swags and green wreaths. They finished 19 beautiful swags, two for the two churches up here and the rest for the Veterans' Hospital.

The Garden Club held its annual Christmas dinner and party on Thursday, Dec. 18, at the Community Hall, with about 75 people present. It was a most enjoyable and successful event. Mrs. Tom Jones and her assistants served a wonderful turkey dinner. The tables were beautifully decorated by Elsie Creighton. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Alt provided and decorated a lovely Christmas tree. The program was in charge of Gladys Perkins and was as follows:

Piano solo, Dance of the Wooden Shoes— Jeannie Closter

Songs, Mansion over the Hill, Lets all Sing like the Birdies Sing — Louise Park.

Piano Solo, Dolls Dream of Christmas—Karen Lund

Songs, The Big Black Bear— Little Yellow Chicken—Dawn Mrochak

Duet, Birds of Paradise— Wilma and Glee Houghtaling

Recitation, The Last and the Best—Janice Howe.

The children all did well and were heartily applauded, but little Louise Park, five years old and making her first public appearance, was especially appealing.

After the program (and wasn't it nice to have our own piano this year?) Santa Claus appeared, looking remarkably like Pat Rogan, as his beard had been lost since last year. He distributed gifts to the children.

Then Jo Drips, president of the club, pulled a big surprise. She presented "engraved" Certificates of Merit, beautiful "Gold" medals, and really beautiful poinsettias (her own personal gifts) to her chief helpers during the year. After appropriate appreciative speeches, the medals were hung around the recipients' necks by husband Bill Drips. Those receiving the rewards were: Mrs. Nell Bistorous, as Mrs. Door-knocker (she originated them); Mrs. John Lake, as Mrs. Secretary; Mrs. Welch as Mrs. Della Robbia; Mrs. Elsie Creighton, as Mrs. Wild-life (Walter said that it should be Mrs. Wild Wife!);

Sandy Masons Elect New Slate Of Officers

The following officers of Sandy Lodge No. 158 AF&AM were elected at the December 17th meeting.

Senior deacon, Fred Decker; junior deacon, John Metzger; chaplain, Albert Barrow; senior steward, Lennis Edwards; junior steward, John Hillyard; and tyler, Carl Klein.
