Miss Dorothy Anderson Speaks at Dinner Meet Of Sandy BPW Group

The Sandy Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed a talk by Miss Dorothy Anderson of the U.S. National Bank, Portland, at a recent dinner meeting.

Mrs. Katherine Bollinger, chairman of the finance committee, introduced the speaker.

Miss Anderson stressed that we could talk ourselves into a depression. She discussed ways of avoiding such a condition, such as buying what we need as we need it. Clearing up our debts, and by accepting the leveling off of high wages and high prices.

Members enjoyed a surprise visit by Mrs. Florence Johnson, who now resides at Seaside but it still a member of the local club.

Paul Warren Speaks At Welches P T A; Students Entertain

The Welches PTA held their regular meeting Friday evening, Jan. 8, at the Welches school. The meeting was presided over by president Mrs. Lorraine Lynn.

A letter of resignation from the secretary, Emma Lou Dodd, who has moved to Estacada, was read and accepted. A new secretary will be elected at the February meeting.

Shenanigans

The annual "Shenanigans" show was discussed and Friday night, March 26, was the date set for this event. Mrs. William O'Dea was selected as chairman; Mrs. Addie Perry will make the posters, and Mrs. Nell Howe will handle tickets and publicity.

More Competing

"There are two new organizations competing this year," said Nell Howe, publicity chairman, "so the show will be bigger and better than ever."

"Keep the date in mind," said Mrs. Howe, "and plan to attend this enjoyable entertainment."

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. DeSpain and her 4th grade gave a folk dance demonstration.

Folk Dances

Mexican Hat Dance by Hope Farnsworth and George Howe; Irish dance by Caroline Matheson and Laurie Bartley; Dutch dance by Susan Perry and George Dodd; Norwegian dance by Ruth Hanson and George Dodd; Scotch dance by Lana Searls and Verne Mann; Square dance patterns by Marilyn Johns, Lavelle Jenkins, Darrel Currier, and Richard Lathrop.

The children were dressed in authentic costumes.

Talk Given

Paul Warren from the Secretary of States office was introduced. He gave an interesting and informative talk on school bus safety. Slides were shown by Mr. Warren on the do's and don'ts for school bus drivers. Questions were answered and a lot of points that parents were hazy about were cleared up.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the 4th grade mothers.

Douglass-Crone Nuptials Read at Chapel of the Hills

The Chapel of the Hills was the scene Tuesday, Dec. 29 at 8 p.m. of the marriage of Miss Maridene Thelma Crone and George Robert Douglass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crone of Rt. 2, Sandy and Mr. Douglass is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglass of Grandview, Wash.

The double ring ceremony was read by Mr. Robert Vance in a setting of yellow chrysanthemums and white snapdragons. Mr. Vance and the Capella choir of Abilene Christian college provided the music.

Wears White Satin

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a lace panel insertion in the front of the skirt. The lace yoke bodice was trimmed with pearls and she wore lace mitts. A pearl cornet held her finger-tip veil in place and she carried a white orchid on a white bible.

The bride's mother wore a chartreuse dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Douglass wore a black dress with white trim and a corsage of red roses.

Carry Chrysanthemums

JoAnne Hawkins, maid of honor, wore a ballerina length blue taffeta gown and carried a semi-shower of matching chrysanthemums. The Misses Anne Hudelson, dressed in a ballerina length blue gown, Barbara Clark, wearing a lavender gown, and Marilyn Markham, gowned in yellow, were bridesmaids. They carried matching bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Flower Girl

Little Colleen Crone, niece of the bride wore a floor length dress of lavender satin and tulle. She carried a basket of pink bouvardia. Stephen Andrews was ring bearer carrying the ring on a white satin and lace cushion.

Raymond Douglass of Seattle, Wash., was best man for his brother, Earl Butcher, George Roth and Charles Crone were ushers. Earl Butcher and George Roth lighted the candles.

Permanent Officers to Be Selected at Next Toastmistress Meeting

The newly organized Toastmistress club met at the home of Mrs. George Hartwig Tuesday evening, Jan. 5 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Hartwig acted as temporary president, Mrs. Alfred Meinig as temporary secretary, and Mrs. Monte Waldron as temporary treasurer. Permanent officers will be elected at the third meeting.

The name "Gateway Toastmistress" was selected by the group. It was decided that meetings would be held the first and fourth Tuesday of each month. A meeting place will be selected before the next meeting by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Mrs. Dean Barnett and Miss Liz Dugan were appointed to prepare speeches for the annual speech contest conducted by the club.

Refreshments of fruit salads, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Eight Sandy members attended the Gresham Toastmistress club Tuesday evening, Jan. 12.

Any interested woman is eligible to apply for membership until the quota of 30 members is filled. Members learn speech techniques timing, program parliamentary law, and proper handling of such speech situations as presentation and acceptance, introduction of speakers, reporting on meetings, and conventions, publicity writing, and participation in panel forums, etc.

Farewell Party Honors The Alfred Lee Family

A farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee and son Alan was held at the Sandy Community Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Jan. 6, after the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting.

Miss Lois Harvey played two piano selections. Burton Blake, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Wesselink, sang two songs, and Alan Lee played a piano number.

Mrs. Don Deming made a presentation speech as she presented a gift, a framed picture, to the Lee family.

Games arranged by Mrs. Sylvester Hall were played. Mrs. Lewis Hall was hostess.

Refreshments of home-made cakes, jello, punch and coffee were served.

The Lees will attend a church at Aims.

Sandy High Students Speak at Meeting of Sandy Woman's Club

Four members of Robert Taylor's public speaking class from Sandy high school were featured speakers at the Sandy Woman's Club meeting held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7 at 2 p.m. Jean Sweeten, first speaker, chose as her subject, "I Speak for Democracy". "The Sandy Memorial Hospital" as the theme used by the other three: Donna Bigelow, Ruth Sidebottom, and Bob Neely. The speakers were introduced by Mrs. C. Croston, program chairman for the day.

Antique Display

An antique display was also part of the program. Antiques were brought by the various members of the club and each member told the history and age of the antiques she brought.

In keeping with the antique theme, the hostesses, Mrs. R. V. Smith, Mrs. F. M. Forman, and Mrs. Ida Mae Meeker, wore dresses created in the gay 90's or thereabouts. Mrs. Helena Wesselink, also a hostess, was not in costume.

Antique Decor

Table decor carried out the antique motif. A fringed tablecloth covered the table. A floral centerpiece in nosegay fashion was arranged in a beautiful pedestal bowl. A spoonholder full of spoons was reminiscent of times gone by. Coffee was served from old-time iron ware. Open-face sandwiches, pickles, olives and relishes along with coffee and tea were served.

During the business portion of the meeting, Mrs. Byron Elerath was admitted as a new member of the club.

Ways and means of raising enough money for a new roof for the Woman's Club hall were discussed.
