Mariners "Hobo Party" Attended by Big Crowd Dressed For Occasion

Twenty-nine couples attended the January meeting of the Mariners club and "Hobo Party" Saturday night at the Community-Presbyterian church annex.
 The guests were greeted at the door by the "Hobo" Boothbys and entered the "jungle" thru a length of sewer pipe.
 A short business meeting was held and the evening was spent enjoying various games.
 Mrs. Bob Marcum won first prize as the female hobo. George Burg, nattily dressed in baggy trousers and wearing a shoe polish beard, won first prize for the men.
 The newly formed Mariners club is sponsored by the Community-Presbyterian church and is open to all young married couples whose combined ages do not exceed 80 years-of-age.
