Ice-Breaker Speeches Given by Two Members At Toastmistress Meet

Gateway Toastmistresses met at Fireside Tuesday evening, March 23 at 6:30 p.m. The program included a speech entitled "Spring Beauties" by Theda Tucker of Estacada; and a talk, a five-minute icebreaker, by Helen Lamke. The two speakers were introduced by toastmistress Evelyn Lawrence. Alma Francis Fields was critic for the two speeches.

Topic mistress for the evening was Dorothy Elreath who assigned one minute topics to the members present. Agnes Hartwig timed the talks.

The meeting opened with invocation by Helen Lamke and closed with inspiration by Betty Mackey. Elizabeth Dugan evaluated the entire meeting.

The business portion of the meeting was conducted by Harriet Meinig, president. Two guests were introduced: Emily O'dell Riley of Portland, chairman of council No. 5; and Mrs. Robert Cooke of Estacada.

Array of Talent Displayed at Welches PTA Shenanigans

By Nell Howe

The Welches PTA Shenanigans show had the largest attendance ever this year and to my estimation the best show.

The Rhododendron Booster club won first prize with a presentation entitled "Omnibus". It was a little of this and that, barber shop singing, a take off on an opera singer by Mrs. Roberta Gadwood that was wonderful, and a ballet and tight-rope dance by Mrs. Bella Dolp that was priceless.

Second prize went to the Mt. Hood Hoppers Square Dance club. They did "Sailing Down the Old Green River" square, "Josephine" round dance, and the men did "Texas Star" square using brooms as partners. Very refreshing and pretty to watch.

Tie For Prize

Third prize was a tie between the Wy'east Garden club and Brightwood Extension Unit. The Garden club presented a play entitled "Queen for a Night", pat-

Ladies Aid Meet at Richard Ilge Home

The Ladies Aid of the Sandy Community-Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon, March 24 at the home of Mrs. Richard Ilge.

Present for the afternoon were Mrs. Ella DeLong, Rev. and Mrs. Phil Hampe, Mrs. Ray Allen, Mrs. Don Deming, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Ed Scheel, Mrs. Robert Ihrke, Mrs. Vance Hewitt, Mrs. Deane Wessellink, Mrs. Sylvester Hall, Mrs. Joann Williams, Mrs. Herbert Grover, Mrs. Roy Allen, Mrs. Herb Slaughter and Mrs. Ilge.

The next meeting will be the last Wednesday of April at the church annex, when the group will honor the "Golden Age".

Rites at Vancouver Unite Sandy Couple

Miss Geraldine Krebs and Wm. Hartwig were married March 10 at Vancouver Lutheran church in Vancouver, Wash. Rev. Kunzman performed the ceremony. Mrs. C. McRoberts of Portland attended the couple.

The bride wore a teal blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenia and pink rose buds.

The couple left on a wedding trip through California and parts of Nevada. They are now at home in Sandy.

Intermission Solos

Intermission numbers were solos by Gary Gadwood, solos by Martin Clark, accordion numbers by George Hale, Chorus of the Sandy high, solos by Clare Uglestad and songs by Henry Nagae. Milton Fox was MC and gave his usual thoroughly enjoyable performance. Thanks for a job well done.

Judges

The judges were Mrs. Alma Francis Fields, Mrs. Thomas Scales, and Dr. Elton Leavitt. Dr. Albert Lamke came as an alternate judge. Thanks to them for making the trip to the show.

The Welches PTA would like to take this opportunity of thanking all the organizations for their participation and hope to see you all again next year at an even better show if possible.

Miss Clifton Engaged To Marry Robert Evans

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Velma Faye Clifton to Robert Eugene Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Evans of Sandy.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. D. N. Miller of Eldorado, Kansas.

Velma is a student at Sandy high school and Gene is a 1953 graduate of Sandy high. No date has been set for the wedding.
