The Sky Pilot Speaks By Rev. L. C. Des Voigne

The Philosophy of the Resurrection is an age old subject. Job of old asked the all important question, "If a man die, shall he live again?", with joy the Christian answers "Yes". It is his abiding assurance and hope to live eternally with a better life in a better world in the glory land. This is made possible by personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. It is his imparted and imputed righteousness that makes it possible for the Christian to live a hopeful and joyous life in the midst of sorrow and trouble. The doubter has no definite answer to Job's question and that is why his life is not hopeful and happy.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

So They Stopped Baiting Each Other

If you want to hear a real hassle, listen to Cob James and Whitey Baker on trout fishing sometime. You'd think it was more important than anything.

Cob favors dry flies. Whitey pooh-poos anything but wet flies. Cob swears by a Fan-Wing Royal Coachman; Whitey won't hear of anything but Silver Doctor. And so it goes—they can't even get together on steel rods versus bamboo rods.

But on Saturday, each got back from Fox Creek with a catch that couldn't have differed by more than a couple of ounces! Then over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right . . . which is how so many arguments should end. From where I sit, life would be a whole lot pleasanter if we all respected one another's opinions—whether about trout flies, or having a glass of beer, or voting. After all, a person has a right to follow his own line of thinking.
