Past Noble Grands Honored At Rebekah Meet Thursday

Past Noble Grands of Sandy Rebekah lodge were honored at the regular meeting of the lodge last Thursday evening, April 22. The hall was beautifully decorated with daffodils from the Oregon Bulb farm.

Under good of the order, all past noble grands retired and were escorted into the hall by Betty Searls, warden, and Mildred Taylor, conductor. They were welcomed by Maude Johnson, noble grand and Grace Lamb, vice-grand. Norma Lee Banta and Betty Owen presented them with corsages from the lodge.

Each one told of her term as noble grand. Mrs. Percy Shelley was the only living charter member and was noble grand in 1915. Mrs. Dave Thomas played several selections on the accordion.

Past Noble Grands honored were Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. V. Dell Butler, Mrs. Carl Gomoll, Mrs. Adolph Amstad, Mrs. R. S. Smith, Mrs. Sadie Bosholt, Mrs. Percy Shelley, Mrs. George Strope, Mrs. Ed Bruns, Mrs. Arthur Colson and Mrs. Dave Thomas.

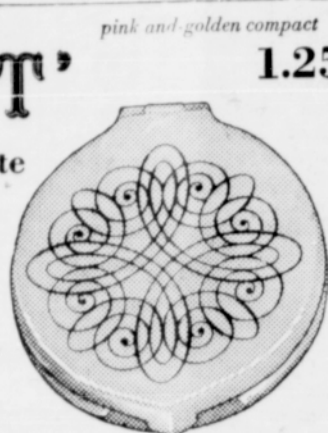

Also Mrs. Erma Stromberg, Mrs. Will Bell, Mrs. Roy Colson, Mrs. Alta Van Ausdell, Mrs. Susan Kellher, Mrs. Richard Ilge, and Mrs. George Beers.

Refreshments were served by the noble grand and her officers.

In activity we must find our joy as well as glory; and labor, like everything else that is good, is its own reward.—Edwin P. Whipple.

Miss Janet Smith Talks on Creative Art at PTA Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Sandy PTA was held Tuesday evening, April 20 at the Sandy grade school.

The program opened with the invocation by Rev. Phil Hampe of the Sandy Community-Presbyterian church.

The resignation of Mrs. Elmer Johnson as vice-president was announced during the business session by Mrs. Ruben Hoffman. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting.

Miss Janet Smith, art director of Girls Polytechnic school, Portland, spoke on the development of creative art in children. She stated that the most creative stage is between the ages of four and six. They draw objects as they see them and are not influenced by the works of others. She also showed pictures by Portland students illustrating the different stages of art development.

Refreshments were served by the second grade mothers.

Sandy Ridge Club Sets Last Meet Until Fall

The Sandy Ridge Women's club will hold the last meeting until fall on Thurs., May 6 at the Sandy Ridge school.

It will be an all day meeting with a no-hostess potluck luncheon served at noon.

Reveals Plans

The engagement of Miss Jo Anne Drew of 435 N. E. Hood st., Gresham, to Byron C. Edmonds, has been announced.

Miss Drew is a graduate of the Gresham high school and is at present employed at the First National Bank in Gresham.

Byron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Edmonds, Rt. 1, Box 143, Boring.

A late spring wedding is planned.

Kindergarten Tots Present Program at Grange Auditorium

The auditorium of the grange hall at Kelso was filled to capacity Saturday evening, April 24, when the Sandy Grange presented a program and entertainment.

The program started at 8 p.m. and featured the young entertainers from the Sandy Kindergarten in a 'Circus Parade'. A recitation by Judy Jonsrud introduced the program.

BAKEBACK RIDERS

Nancy Nichols and Beverly Babcock, dressed as bakeback riders, drove their flower bedecked steeds (Terry Owen and Steven Ackers). John Christensen performed the part of ring master. Patsy Colson and Jackie Scales were circus clowns and Sandra Lamb portrayed the fat lady.

CIRCUS COP

Lorriane Townsend was Little Bo-Peep and Daisy Connell took the part of the gypsy. Judy Jonsrud, Butch Woodward, Julie Nichols, Tommy McElhinny and Nancy Hite were cowgirls and cowboys. Larry Loundree was overseer as the circus cop.

There were several songs by the boys and girls and in a mixed chorus. Terry Owen gave a recitation during the program and Tommy McElhinny closed with a recitation. Barbara Beecher played intermission numbers on her accordion.

After the program, Bingo was played. Lunch was served later by the ladies in the dining room. The program was not planned to take the place of the regular card party which had previously been cancelled because the date fell on the night before Easter Sunday. The next regular card party will be held on the third Saturday of the month, May 15.

Bornstedt Boosters to Meet at Lindsey Home

The Bornstedt Boosters club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ray Lindsey this afternoon, Thurs., April 29 at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Orville Bissaunt will be hostess.

FFA Parent and Son Banquet Highlights Chapter Year

The Sandy Chapter of Future Farmers of America held its tenth annual Parent and Son Banquet Tuesday evening, April 20, at the Sandy high school.

The banquet, highlight of the FFA year, began with an impressive candlelight ceremony by the chapter officers, Ed Schwartz, Byron Edmonds, Si Lund, Jack Knox, Vernon Gillham and Lyle Buswell.

Arden Converse gave the invocation.

The dinner, served to 150 guests, was prepared and served by the Future Homemakers of America and their advisor, Miss Verlaene Walker.

ENTERTAINMENT

Musical entertainment was furnished by Udene Urban, Juvenile Locking, Claire Uglestad and Gary Gadwood. The FFA creed was then recited by Rodney Zeimer, Clyde Robbins, Danny Amstad, Larry Caudell and Ernest Schwartz.

Byron Edmonds, Sentinel of the State Association, was the speaker of the evening. His topic was "Farming as an Occupation". Si Lund and Lyle Buswell gave the reports on activities and conventions.

AWARDS PRESENTED

Harold Babcock, chapter advisor, presented the following awards: Safeway awards: Lyle Buswell, first; Bob Brauer, second. Public speaking: Lyle Buswell, first; Byron Edmonds, second; John Stuart, third. Foundation awards: Byron Edmonds, public speaking and chapter star farmer of the chapter; David Horrtor, soil and water management; Ed Schwartz, farm electrification; Kenneth Kubitz, safety; Jack Knox, farm mechanics.

LETTERS AWARDED

Letters were awarded to Byron Edmonds, Ed Schwartz, Jerry Goff, David Horrtor and Lyle Buswell. These letters were earned through various FFA activities.

HONORARY MEMBERS

Duane Knapp and Gus Zumwalt were given honorary memberships by the chapter officers for their interest in the work of the FFA.

Chapter officers performed the closing ceremonies. A movie of the National convention was shown. Four boys from the Sandy chapter attended the convention.

COMMITTEES

Committees for the banquet were: Byron Edmonds, Udene Urban and Edwin Woody, program; Si Lund, David Horrtor, and Doug Barker, food; Lyle Buswell, Jerry Goff and Dean Klein, publicity; Vernon Gillham, Danny Barker and Jack Knox, decoration; Jerry Goff, Marvin Farmer, and Greenhands, cleanup.

Past Noble Grand Club Meets at R. Smith Home

Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Richard Ilge were hostesses for the Past Noble Grands club at the Smith home Monday evening, April 19.

After a short business meeting a social time was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Members present were Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Arthur Colson, Mrs. Sylvester Hall, Mrs. Erma Stromberg, Mrs. Alta VanAusdell, Mrs. Roy Colson, Mrs. George Beers, Mrs. Ed Bruns and the hostesses.

Two Rainbow Members Visit Portland Group

Janet Scheel and Gladys Sue Potter, members of the Sandy Rainbow Assembly, accompanied by their mother advisor, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, visited Waverly Assembly in Portland last Wednesday evening, April 21.

Janet, as immortality, was one of the courtesy officers who took part in exemplifying the ballot. The courtesy officers were visiting officers from other assemblies.

Montana Residents Make Two Day Stay Visiting Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lumley of Red Lodge, Montana, parents of Mrs. L. H. Will of Rt. 2, Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sullivan of Livingston, Montana, spent two days last week at the Will's home and also at the Tom Kubitz Jr. home on Rt. 1, Sandy. Mrs. Will, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Kubitz are sisters.

The Sullivans and Lumleys were enroute home from a three week's trip which took them through California, where they visited many other relatives. The trip was in honor of the Lumley's 50th wedding anniversary.

While here, Mrs. Sullivan, who does a great deal of oil painting, painted a picture of Mt. Hood and gave it to her sister, Mrs. Will.

Other visitors at the Will home last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Anderson of Olympia, Wash. Mrs. Anderson is also a daughter of the Lumleys.
