Beautification Week Theme For Womens Club Meet May 6

A discussion of the county management form of government was the featured attraction at the Woman's Club meeting held Thursday afternoon, May 6, at the Woman's Club hall, Mrs. Robert Ludwig, Lake Grove, vice president of Clackamas County League of Women Voters, favored the measure to be voted upon at the primary election, May 21, while County Treasurer La Farge opposed it. Speakers were introduced by Mrs. Alfred Meinig, program chairman.

A plant exchange emphasizing "Beautification" Week was included in the program. Each member brought a plant, showed it, told its name, and its history.

The business portion of the meeting was conducted by Mrs. F. M. Forman, vice-president. A bid submitted by R. S. Hall to re-shingle the roof of the Woman's Club hall was accepted.

Mrs. Lewis Hall reported that eight new books had been added to the Sandy Library's bookshelves.

Officers elected to serve next year include Mrs. F. M. Forman, president; Mrs. C. Croston, vice president; Mrs. R. S. Hall, secretary; and Mrs. Alfred Meinig, treasurer. Trustees named were Mrs. Ivan Barker, Mrs. Thomas Scales, and Mrs. Homer Bullion.

Beautification committee Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mrs. Ivan Barker, Mrs. Alfred Meinig and Mrs. F. M. Forman reported on duties performed by the committee in cleaning up the building and grounds.

Hostesses Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. John Williams, and Mrs. Edna Lawson served refreshments at a beautifully decorated table featuring a May pole and dancers.

Mariners Club Has 'Shipwreck' Party And Scavenger Hunt

The Mariners club meeting and "Shipwreck" party was held at the Community-Presbyterian church annex last Saturday evening, May 8.

The club room was decorated in the marine motif. Walls were decorated with blue and white to resemble the waves and fish nets were used to complete the setting. Mrs. Dean Owen, Mrs. Alvy Lamb and Mrs. Alvin Sheldon were on the decorating committee.

Members were asked to come dressed in what they might be wearing if shipwrecked at midnight. Costumes were in a variety of night gear and sailor garbs. Mr. and Mrs. Aikens from the Fairview Mariners club were judges.

Mrs. Tom Boothby won first prize for the women and John Metzger was winner of the first prize for men.

A scavenger hunt in groups of six was the main event of the evening. Items from brick to dog wood were on the list of the hunters.

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served.

Edward Herzes Return From an Extended Trip Through Several States

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Herz of the Kelso district, returned home Saturday evening from an extended trip which took them to Reno, Las Vegas, Boulder Dam, Zion and Bryce National Parks and the Grand Canyon. Also Phoenix, Death Valley, Palm Springs, San Bernardino and Yosemite National Park.

On the way home they stopped at Sacramento, Calif., to visit their daughter, the Frederick Kublers. They were accompanied on the trip by their other daughter, Miss Julia Larson of Portland.

Toastmistress Club Plan Gresham Visit

"A Small World" was the topic Agnes Hartwig chose for her speech slated at the Toastmistress dinner meeting Tuesday evening, May 4 at Zigzag Inn. In this talk she told how quickly people can gather in one spot, giving as an illustration the Toastmistress district speech contest held at Gearhart recently, to which speakers came from as far away as Canada and Alaska.

Two other speakers were featured: Alice Will who gave an autobiography which she entitled "Two Score and Ten", the number of years her parents have been married; and Alma Francis Fields who told the story of her life in the theatrical world in a talk she called "Loving Every Minute". Dorothy Elerath, toastmistress, introduced the three speakers.

Topicmistress Virginia Seal secreted table topics in May baskets arranged at each place setting. Theme of the topics was "Spring Flowers". Critics appointed to criticize the three talks were Theda Tucker and Norma Triplett. Mrs. Tucker also gave the invocation which opened the meeting. Evelyn Lawrence was timekeeper. Leonie N. Brooke evaluated the entire meeting.

During the business portion of the meeting, conducted by president Harriet Meinig, it was decided to change the meeting dates to the second and fourth Mondays of each month. An invitation from Gresham Toastmistress Club to attend their next meeting was accepted.

Visitors included Marie Motegi, Ruth Anderson and Edith Whitlock.

Music in May Features Joint Hi-School Concert Broadcast

May time is music time in Forest Grove. "Music in May", the annual musical extravaganza at Forest Grove, will be held from May 13 to 15 at Pacific university.

A network broadcast will be presented Saturday, May 15 at 3:00 p.m. over mutual stations.

After three days of rehearsing, the 400 students will give the seventh annual Music in May concert at the new high school auditorium in Forest Grove at 8:00 p.m. May 15.

Eight members of the band: Richard Carvey, Beverly Colt, Steven Colt, David Duncan, Betty Haven, Kenneth Hovda, Clifford Sander, Jenean Mills, and fifteen members of the choir: Carol Calkins, Kay Closser, Bernadine Dietz, Shirley Dove, Millie Dyal, Gary Gadwood, Frances LaPier, Jim O'Dea, Myrna Slaughter, Marylee Stroup, Udene Urban, Richard Ziemer, Fay Hanson, Claire Uglestad, Burton Blake, will attend this three day schedule of events.

Four hundred out of 1000 applicants from about 80 high schools in Oregon and Washington were accepted.

Richard A. Greenfield, chairman of the Music in May committee, said that students who are chosen to attend Music in May do outstanding work in his organization at school.

Music in May will get underway with registration Thursday morning, May 13, followed by an assembly "Under the Oaks". Rehearsals, campus tours and scholarship interviews will be given through the day.

"University Night", a concert sponsored by Pacific university, will entertain the students attending at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, May 13.

The Music in May banquet, dance, and mixer will highlight Friday, May 14.

"One of the most enjoyable and educational experiences for high school singers and instrumentalists is the annual Music in May at Pacific university," declared Mr. Burns, music instructor at Sandy High.

A registration fee of $5 paid by the student includes housing, banquet and dance fees.
