Wedding Vows Said In Late Afternoon At Lutheran Church

The Immanuel Lutheran church, Sandy, was the scene of the wedding Saturday, May 29, of Miss Dyann M. Kahny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Kahny, Gresham, to Richard L. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus L. Alexander of Boring. Rev. N. E. Dey read the nuptial ceremony at 4 p.m.

Eldon Kahny, brother of the bride, was soloist. His songs were "O Perfect Love", "The Wedding Prayer", and "The Lord's Prayer." Otto Schneewind was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves, and sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil fell from a pearl decorated crown. Her bridal bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations with white streamers, was centered with an orchid.

Honor Attendant

Mrs. Rod (Helen) Binger, sister of the bride, was her honor attendant. Cyrus (Bus) Alexander, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held at the young couple's new home where a dinner was prepared and served by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Huhman. Mrs. Eldon Kahny, sister-in-law of the bride served the wedding cake and Mrs. Catherine Lundbom poured. Don and Norma Dubarko assisted with the serving.

Wedding Trip

Mrs. Alexander chose for traveling, a blue suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Their wedding trip took them to the Oregon Caves, the Redwoods and the Oregon coast. They are now at home near Orient.

Mrs. Alexander is secretary at the Sandy Union high school and the groom is an employee of the Farm Tractor company, Gresham.

Sewing Circle Closes Meetings Until Fall; Pot-Luck Supper Held

Members of the Golden Rule Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Reuben Meyer for lunch at their May meeting.

In the afternoon another quilt was tied and made ready for edging. More quilt pieces were cut and segregated for another top. Five large quilts and seven baby quilts have been made by the group since January.

Mrs. Beth Bradley took two baby quilts into the "Friends Service Club" at Portland. They were to be sent to Korea.

On June 2, the Circle rounded up their work until this fall with a pot-luck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Morris. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Meyer and Mrs. Daisy Schafer.

Though the women will not be meeting during the summer, they will be busy cutting and sewing quilt pieces at home to be ready for the fall meetings.

Professional Women Install Officers

Formal installation of new officers for the Sandy Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday, June 2 at Bergs Chalet, closed their current year. Mrs. Florence Schmitz was installing officer.

The vocational scholarship given by the club was awarded Pauline Hollenbeck, Sandy high school senior. She will enter business college this fall.

New officers were Mrs. Walter Eberling, president; Mrs. Florence Schmitz, vice-president; Mrs. Ed Anderson, recording secretary; Mrs. Ed Perrin, corresponding secretary and Mrs. William Bollinger, treasurer.

Mrs. Ed Anderson, Mrs. Walter Hoffman and Mrs. Harold Gunderson are members of the executive board.

Guests for the evening were Hilda Fries, Portland; Mrs. Seamatter, Mrs. Lorraine Martin and Mrs. Geraldine Hartwig.

Cleaning Day Planned For Ladies Aid Meet

An all day meeting and pot-luck luncheon will be held by the ladies Aid of the Sandy Community-Presbyterian church on Wednesday, June 23 at the church annex. The regular meeting is planned as a cleaning day. A business meeting will be held also.

Wed at Bethel Baptist

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Edmonds exchanged wedding vows at a double ring ceremony at Bethel Baptist church in Gresham. After a wedding trip to Nevada, California and the Oregon coast, the young couple are now at home at route 1, Boring.

Drew-Edmonds Nuptials Read At Bethel Baptist Church

Miss JoAnne Drew, Gresham, became the bride of Byron Carol Edmonds in a double ring ceremony held Friday, May 28, 8 p.m. at Bethel Baptist church in Gresham.

Baskets of spring flowers decorated the church. Rev. James E. McDowell read the double ring ceremony. Mrs. H. K. Bishop was organist and John H. Peters was soloist.

Miss Drew is the daughter of Mrs. Marion Giusto, Portland and Ernest Drew of Coos Bay. Byron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Edmonds of route 1, box 143, Boring.

Bride's Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net over satin, entrain. The fitted bodice was of lace-styled with lace collar and long sleeves. The finger-tip illusion veil was arranged from a headpiece of hearts. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and pale pink roses centered with a white orchid. Sprays of lily of the valley were knotted in the white ribbon streamers.

Miss Claudia Cooper, maid of honor, wore a gown of pastel green taffeta with net trimming at top of the bodice. She carried a bouquet of carnations and roses.

The Misses Valerie Cox and Fay Ownbey were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of pink taffeta. Velvet ribbons hung from the V neckline in the back of the bodice. Their bouquets were of carnations and roses.

Si Lund was best man and Douglass Hering and Jim Sitzman were ushers.

Ring Bearer

Nancy Nasshahn was flower girl. She was dressed in a frock of pale pink sheer over taffeta. Her flower basket was trimmed with red roses. Bernard Giusto was ring bearer. He carried a red velvet pillow with white streamers. Glenda Kaser and Raylene Evans were candlelighters.

A reception was held in the church basement with approximately 250 guests attending. Mrs. John Flanagan poured. She was assisted by Miss Barbara Stone. Mrs. A. K. Kaser cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Eugene Lambert passed the guest book. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Esther Hays and Mrs. George Christian. Gifts were in charge of Miss Leah Ownbey and Miss Judy Nasshahn.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a blue tailored suit with white accessories and her white orchid. Their trip took them to Nevada, California and the Oregon coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds are now at home at route 1, Boring.

Dubarko Home Scene Of Wedding Shower For Mrs. Pat Hall

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Pat Hall, the former Cherie Schultz, was held at the Louis Dubarko home on Sunday, June 6 with Mrs. Dubarko and Mrs. Ronald Krebs as hostesses.

A bride's cake decorated with wedding bells and roses and the names of Cherie and Pat inscribed on the cake centered the refreshment table. Coffee, punch and ice cream were served with the cake.

Guests present were the bride groom, Pat, and his mother, Mrs. Harry Hall, Mrs. Robert Schultz, mother of the bride, Mrs. Helen Dahrens, Mrs. Eddie Adson, Mrs. Carl Krieger, Mrs. Harvey Griffin, Mrs. Edward Deltrich, Mrs. Carl Hane, Mrs. Lucille Wagner, Mrs. Lawrence Hall, Mrs. W. H. Hartwig, Mrs. Chester Waiter, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Otto Schneewind and David, Don Dubarko, Mrs. Henry Schwartz, Mrs. Emil Reich and Mrs. Norbert Dey.

Boring Rebekah Lodge Slates Rummage Sale

The Boring Rebekah lodge held its regular meeting Thursday, June 3 at the Boring IOOF hall. Plans were made for the rummage sale in the Telford building across from Lyle and Matt's Country Store on the afternoons of June 24-25 and from 10 o'clock on Saturday June 26.

Mrs. M. F. Gerber, who served as the district deputy, was honored with a tribute under good of the order. Mrs. Milton Layng and Mrs. Walter Markham were chairmen. She was presented with a gift.

Officers Installed At Last Meeting of Sandy Womens Club

The Womens club meeting held at the clubhouse Thursday, June 3 was a festive occasion. First, a luscious potluck dinner with the most tempting dishes the ladies could put forth was served, for a very good reason. It was plotted by one of the club schemers, to measure waist lines after eating, then exact a penalty for each inch measured. A goodly sum was collected.

V. Dell Butler, one of Sandy's pioneers, was speaker for the day. His topic was "Oregon History." He refreshed the memories of those present on how important a part of the little town of Sandy played in the making of Oregon History. He reminded them that they should be very proud of the Old Oregon Trail and the Barlow Trail, and to teach the children to help preserve these historical markers.

The installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. Ed Bruns. New officers are Mrs. F.M. Forman, president; Mrs. Charles Croston, vice-president; Mrs. R.S. Hall secretary; and Mrs. Alfred Meinig, treasurer.

Trustees installed included Mrs. Ivan Barker, Mrs. Homer Bullion, and Mrs. Thomas Seales. Each were presented with a corsage made by Mrs. Homer Bullion. Mrs. Ivan Barker, woman of the year, was also presented with a corsage.

Mrs. E. Schmitz, Mrs. R. Weselink, and Mrs. A. Kotzman were hostesses. Receptionists were Mrs. Kotzman and Mrs. F. R. Averill.

Mrs. Barker made the presentation of a German hand cut glass vase to the out-going president, Mrs. Homer Bullion, as a gift of appreciation.
