With today's KODAK CAMERAS
Snapshots are more fun than ever!
You get 1 Black-and-white snapshots...
2 Full-color snapshots 3 Flash snapshots...
day and night, indoors and out...
anytime, anywhere

Brownie Hawkeye Camera, $6.95.
More than three million people have bought it... just in the last two years. Reason? Because, while it's just as simple and sure as you expect a Brownie to be, it gives you daylight snaps and flash shots... in black-and-white or full color. It's the slickest, most talented Brownie camera ever. Flashholder, $4.

Kodak Duaflex III Camera, Kodolens, $14.95.
You line up your picture in that big hooded viewfinder at the top and there's your subject big and clear... just as it looks in a finished snapshot. As easy to use as a Brownie camera. Safety shutter prevents double exposures, so you don't take one picture on top of another. With Kodar/8 Lens, $22.50. Flashholder, $4.

Kodak Pony 135 Camera, Model B, $34.75.
Here's a "miniature" with new, easy, no-thread loading. Its sharp lens gives you crystal-clear black-and-white prints—and (with Kodachrome Film) those wonderful color slides, so crisp and brilliant you can hardly believe your eyes. You can project them and also have color prints made from them. Flashholder, $7.95.

Kodak Film is planned to make picture-taking simple, easy, sure, at the click of a button. For black-and-white snapshots, look for Kodak Film in the new, thrifty Duo-Pak. Two rolls of film—one for your camera, one for a spare—in the popular 620, 120, and 127 sizes. Also available in single rolls. For full-color snaps, use Kodacolor Film—comes in all 6 popular sizes.
