

I DON'T WANT POLITICS, I JUST WANT MY PURE AND WHOLESOME SUPPLY OF MILK!

Oregon's steady supply of pure, wholesome milk should not be meddled with by politicians or organizations seeking personal gain.

Oregon's health authorities and grade A dairymen have worked harmoniously for over 20 years to provide children of Oregon with the finest, most sanitary milk in the world.

The mountain Lions Club, at a recent directors meeting, decided to buy the Wemme Community hall from its present owners, the First Aid Group. They will modernize and improve the hall, putting in new rest rooms, enlarging the main hall, finishing up the long room in the back which is now a woodshed. They plan to buy additional lots on the east and west of the present site to make sufficient parking. The building as improved will continue to be used as a community hall. Half-dozen or more organizations are now using it for community projects.

The community hall was first started a number of years ago by a gun club of old-timers, but it was never finished. A group of mountain women, the First Aid Group, took it over eleven years ago, finished the building, used it for Red Cross work during the war and generally looked after the property. Remaining members of the group are Leannah Morris, Elsie Creighton, Hannah Morris, Vesta Tilden and Lenora Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arba McPaul have recently returned from a 5000 mile, 17 day auto trip to Wisconsin where they visited friends. They went by the northern route and returned the southern way, visiting on their return at Coffeyville, Kansas, with Mrs. Tom Jones and her daughter, Betty Smith. They hit very hot weather, over 100 in some places, but report beautiful scenery all along the way.

John Morton has bought the Hoodway cafe, opened it on Oct. 4, and plans to keep it open all winter. He is assisted by his wife, whom he brought out from Texas with his two daughters. Mr. Morton worked as a foreman on the new Zigzag-Rhododendron highway when it was being paved. He is a cook by profession.

Mrs. Helen Bradley celebrated her ninetieth birthday last Friday, Oct. 15 at the home of her son, Brooks Bradley in Zigzag. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. King of Portland, old-time friends, were with her for a birthday dinner, and other friends dropped in during the afternoon to share birthday cake and ice-cream and to admire her cards and remembrances.

Joey Smith, who formerly managed the ski shop at Timberline, has opened her own shop in the Asher furniture factory building in Rhododendron. She will handle skis and ski rentals and will do repair work. She has bought the Conway house on Henry Creek avenue for her own use.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vermaas have moved to Portland from their home in Rhododendron, on account of a change in his bus schedule. He has been driving the local bus to Portland, and has been changed to a long distance run.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Walt Blaisdell of Wemme, a nine pound, 8 ounce boy on Oct. 13 at the Portland Orthopedic hospital. This is the Blaisdells' fifth child. Dorothy Meyer is taking charge of the Wemme post office during Naomi Blaisdell's absence.

Vesta Tilden is back in Wemme for a short time with her daughter, looking after her house here before returning to California.
