Many farm owners find that their source of water supply is not close to existing power lines—in some cases it might be several thousand feet away. Here is what PGE will do. PGE WILL INVEST up to $50 for every horsepower you install, in line extension facilities to serve you. And PGE maintains these facilities at no cost to you. This liberal policy helps PGE customers to have low-cost power exactly where they want

it. Just another service PGE customers enjoy.

PGE will help you

PGE's other free services include: gauging the flow of small streams, helping to compute the amount of water stored in ponds, offering advice on well testing and advising customers about needed permits.

Your PGE Rural Service Representative has details and material which are available to you. Why not contact him this week?

IOOF officers are Al Gunderson, noble grand and Dean Owen, vice-grand.

PTA County Council Slates Meeting at Battin School Feb. 2

The Clackamas County Council of PTA will meet at Battin school on Wednesday, Feb. 2 from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. All PTA members in the county are urged to attend.

Highlights of the program will be the talk given by R. E. Lieutallen, state chairman of the Tuition Scholarship. He will try to clarify the details of the scholarships and will answer questions after his talk.

The nominating committee will present its panel and the election of new officers will be held.

PTA Month

As February is the month PTA was organized, an interesting Founder's Day program is planned. The past presidents will also be honored. The pupils of Battin school will give a musical program.

During the lunch hour, representatives of the State PTA office will be present for the registration for the State convention to be held in Portland in April. It is very important each unit have a representative present to register the number expected to attend the convention.

A minimum charge will be made for the luncheon and a nursery will be provided for the children.

Sandy Rebekahs Attend District 2 Convention At Clackamas Saturday

The 49th annual Rebekah convention District No. 2 was held at Clackamas on Saturday, Jan. 22. There were 125 members and 17 visitors present for the all-day meeting which started at 10 a.m.

Shamrock Rebekah lodge No. 113 was the host lodge and the meeting was held in the Clackamas school auditorium.

Convention officers from the Sandy lodge were Mrs. Roy Colson, secretary; and Mrs. Art Colson, marshal.

Mrs. Roy Colson was elected vice-chairman of the convention and Mrs. Betty Searls was appointed conductor. Mrs. Goldie Gibson of Needy was elected chairman and issued an invitation to the convention to meet at Needy.

President of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Byrle Drury of Co-burg, was present for her official visit to Shamrock lodge.

Attending from Sandy Rebekah lodge were Mrs. Roy Colson, Mrs. Art Colson, Mrs. V. Dell Butler, Mrs. Allan Searls and Mrs. Susan Kellier.

Even Stitchers Club Has New Member Join

By Heidi Boyd

The Mt. Hood Even Stitchers club added a new member. Marilyn Johns came to the Jan. 20th meeting at the leader's home.

This is her second year of 4-H. She will make a garment project for her first project. The group reported on their special project of sewing on buttons. Jeanie has sewed on three since the last meeting. Carolyn Matheson was in charge of the business meeting.

Heidi Boyd served pop and cookies to Joan Christensen, Jeanie Closner, Carolyn Matheson, Marilyn Johns and Jill Boyd.

The next meeting will be Feb. 3 at the Mitchell home.

Past Noble Grands Meet at Bruns Home

The fourteenth anniversary of the Past Noble Grand Club of Sandy Rebekah Lodge was celebrated with a pot-luck luncheon, Wednesday noon, January 19 at the Ed Bruns home. The dessert of angel food cake and ice cream was served by the hostesses Augusta Bruns, Arleigh Hall and Edna Hall.

A business meeting followed the luncheon with Audrey Colson, president, presiding. Erald Stromberg acted as secretary in the absence of Alta Van Ausdel, secretary, who has been ill and was unable to attend the meeting. The club sent a contribution to the March of Dimes. Edna Amstad won the white elephant.

The fourteen members present were Ella Baumbach, Clara Sandstrom, Audrey Colson, Margaret Kotzman, Manda Colson, Mildred Stewart, Marie Thomas, Erald Stromberg, Edna Amstad, Verna Strope, Edna Hall, Arleigh Hall, Augusta Bruns and Sadie Bosholt.

Homecoming Dinner Honors Bill Rannow

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rannow of Mabery entertained at a homecoming dinner honoring their son Bill, who recently received his discharge from the U. S. Army.

Present were his grandmother, Mrs. Hans Koch, Mr. and Mrs. George Rohweder and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vaeretti and son Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob McGinnis and son Martin.

Mr. McGinnis also received his discharge from the service at Camp Crowder. The two men drove home together.

Wy'east Gardeners Awards Prizes for Essays and Posters

The last Wy'east Garden club's meeting, called to order by Mrs. Langdon at the Wemme Community hall on Tuesday, Jan. 18, was a most interesting one, and it was well attended. The short business meeting featured a good deal of correspondence, one letter from the Veterans hospital nurses thanking the club, and Mrs. George Stein, chairman, for help with Christmas decorations and their Christmas party. It was voted to give $10 to the state scholarship fund, providing summer schooling for a worthy student. June English was appointed GC chairman for the Welches school Shenangans to be held in April.

Adjourn to School

About 2 o'clock the whole meeting adjourned to the Welches school house, where the sixth, seventh and eighth grades assembled in the gymnasium to listen to a talk by James Langdon, subject "Conservation" which means "Wise use" of our natural resources such as water, forest products, wild life, protection of soils, re-forestation, etc. A delightful colored movie, "Rainbow Valley" was then shown by Paul Merris, principal of the school.

Prizes Awarded

For essays and posters on conservation was made by June English, conservation chairman for the Garden Club.

This is an annual project of the club. This year's entries far surpassed those of last year and a decision by the judges was hard. Twenty essays were submitted by 8 grade pupils, also four posters. Prizes were awarded as follows: For essays, Barbara Eacret 1st; Pat Bryant, 2nd; Dixie Winfrey, 3rd. For posters, Barbara Eacret 1st; Joyce Bittman and Bill Perry, tied for 2nd place; Norman Nuxoll, 3rd. Awards were made strictly on a point system set up by the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs.

Home Ec Club Changes Meeting Place to Hall

The regular meeting of the Sandy Grange Home Ec Club will be held in the Grange hall at Kelso on Tuesday, Feb. 1 instead of at the home of Mrs. M. L. Lee as planned due to illness in the family.

Club members are planning to clean the hall in preparation for the serving of the luncheon for the Berry Growers Association.

Bornstedt Boosters --

The Bornstedt Boosters club will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Nakun this Thursday, Jan. 27 at 1:30 p.m.

Brother and Sister Have Happy Reunion After Fifty Years

Mrs. Margaret Krieger returned home Saturday night via United Airlines from Chicago where she spent about five weeks visiting her brother, Henry Glanz, his wife Margaret and their children.

Mrs. Krieger had not seen her brother since she left Russia in the spring of 1905. She knew he had come to America several years later and had received a few post cards and letters at that time, postmarked Chicago. Contact had been lost with him until this fall when her daughter, Kathryn Pahler, discovered his whereabouts by looking through a Chicago telephone directory while making a visit in New York.

Kathryn stopped off at Chicago on her return to Portland and San Francisco to call them. At that time Mr. Glanz said he would come out west and spend Christmas with his sister but in the meantime he had an operation and was unable to travel.

Since he couldn't make the trip Mrs. Krieger decided to fly to Chicago, as she was very anxious to see her brother again. She reports having a wonderful visit with her brother and family and thoroughly enjoying her first plane trip.

JoEllyn Skala Takes Gavel at Installation Of Boring Theta Rho

JoEllyn Skala was installed head officer of Boring Beta Delta Theta Rho girls in ceremonies held Jan. 12 in the Boring IOOF hall.

Installing officers were Shirley Meyer and Beverly Colt, past presidents, and Mrs. Lulin Shurtz, acting as chaplain and Mrs. Minna Colt, musician.

Mrs. Emma Alm, junior past president of the Rebekah lodge, was a visitor.

Other officers installed were Bonney Who, vice-president; Valrae Seeger, secretary; Patricia Ponter, treasurer, and Beth Shurtz, junior past president. Miss Shurtz was presented with a past president's pin.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Michael Burg Honored On Eighth Birthday

Michael Burg celebrated his eighth birthday, which falls on Jan. 16, two days early with a party held in his classroom at the Sandy grade school.

A few members of his class gave the play "The Three Little Pigs", with the honored guest portraying the part of the wolf. Birthday cake decorated with the Roy Rodgers and Trigger motif and ice cream were served the children.

The following Sunday Michael's grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Albright of Portland, had a small party for him at her home. His birthday cake was decorated in the Circus theme.
