Colton Win Scored

COLTON — An outclassed Sandy B squad dropped a non-league game with the Colton varsity here this week 15 to 3.

The Sandy team looked ragged, according to its coach, George Potter, because it hasn't had any field practice. Sandy played its sophomores and freshmen against the Colton regulars.

tight competition on the preliminaries on the 16 yard range, the 10 to 15 trap shooters who appear every Sunday for the telegraphic competition face big clubs which field 30 to 40 guns out of Medford, Eugene, Portland.

Thirty-nine clubs are competing for the right to get in the shootoffs in Portland and each of the clubs are aiming at the Sandy position.

The shooting on the telegraphic matches ends April 24. The top 25 teams will compete in the shootoffs.

Each Sunday night, Sandy phones the scores of the three top shooters on the first 25 pigeons into the Journal where scores from all over the state are compiled and matched.

Baseball League Meeting Readied For Monday Night

SANDY — The organization meeting of the Sandy boys baseball association will be held in the all-purpose room of the Sandy grade school Monday night at 7 p.m., according to the president of the association, Mrs. Ruben Hoffman.

The meeting will get the association organized into clubs with officers. Officers to be elected will be a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer.

Officers of the association last year were Mrs. Hoffman, president; Laverne Will, vice-president; Ralph Richardson, secretary, and Ken Frederickson, treasurer.

Last year the association fielded four teams. As soon as the new officers are elected Monday night, Mrs. Hoffman said, team managers will be picked and schedules will be worked out. The association now has enough equipment for the teams, Mrs. Hoffman said.

fect scores. In the scoring, topping the other clubs in the competition brings two points and tying with another club holds the club to one point.

years when the gun club was organized. The gun club is one of two divisions in the Sandy Sportsmen's club. The other division, besides the parent organization is the Trailriders, a riding club.

Now invested in the big lay-out south of Sandy is a $12,000 trap field with a new all-electric trap, a clubhouse, and perfect visibility over a low horizon.

Trapshooters can use the range for an initiation fee of $2, another 75 cents for 25 targets and about $2.75 for shells.

If Sandy goes to the shootoffs, the club will face a possibility of handicaps up to 27 yards.

President of the club is Bob Smith.

Barker's Bugle...

It's funny those who have the time and money to be sinful can't afford to get caught at it.

Boss: "Say, when I hired you two weeks ago you told me how good a man you were. Tell me again, will you, I'm getting discouraged."

"One seat for tonight's show, please, well forward, center, and down stairs. Do you have it?"

Usher: "Can you play a violin?"

When a woman puts her hand out of the car it means only one thing—the window it open.

Mr. Wimple said that when his big old wife was getting ready to go on a trip she said: "Sweetie, while I'm away I want to give you something to knit."

"What did she give you?" asked McGee. "A sweater?"

"Nope," replied Wimple, "A broken collar bone."

Uncle Homer says some people drive as though no accident will be avoided if they can help it.

Bill: "Say, I'm going to get a divorce. I went home last night and found my wife posing in the nude for a painter."

Pete: "Well now Bill, don't be hasty. Maybe she is artistic."

Bill: "This was a house painter."

Angie: "You sure were a dud this evening. I take you out to visit nice folks and you sit there all evening with a sour look on your face and never said a word. What's the matter with you anyway?"

Sid: "I couldn't find the spittoon."

Kissing doesn't actually shorten life, but it makes the time pass more quickly.
