

OES Heads Honored On Birthday

SANDY—A special program commemorating Easter highlighted the Tuesday night meeting of Mountain View Chapter OES held April 12 at the Sandy Masonic hall.

Harold Neuman, worthy patron of Troutdale chapter, sang the solo, The Holy City while the courtesy ladies holding lighted candles stood before a large white cross in front of the worthy matrons station. He was accompanied at the piano by his wife, Faye, who is worthy matron of Troutdale chapter.

It was announced that the Social club would hold a bake sale Saturday, April 16, at Frederickson's Appliance. Also the Rainbow girls were sponsoring a dance Saturday, April 16, with advisory board members acting as chaperones. All members of the Masonic and Eastern Star groups were invited to attend.

Frank Willis told of the newly organized Square and Sheaf club of the Sandy Masonic lodge and plans for a box social to be held in a few weeks.

Ed and Helen Nelson were honored on their wedding anniversary with a song by Mrs. Rus Cannell (LuRee Landis), I Love You Truly. Mrs. Cannell is a former member of the Sandy Rainbow Girls and was here visiting from her home at Las Vegas, Nevada.

April birthdays were honored by the worthy matron with gifts of sugar scoops for the women and tack pullers for the men. Those present having birthdays were Eleanor Seibert, Julia Herz, Augusta Bruns, Robert Norman and Rodney Nelson.

The surprise of the evening was the adenda and presentation of gifts and birthday cakes to the worthy matron, Hazel Murray and worthy patron, Clarence Brown. The gift to the worthy matron was an Eastern Star cup inscribed with the names of all her officers. Her birthday cake was a large oblong cake beautifully decorated in blue and pink the colors she chose for her

Hoodlands Group Sets Meet Tonight

ZIGZAG—The last meeting of the Hoodlands Valley Association took place at the Barlow Trail on April 7 with about 30 members present.

Main business on the agenda was the election of a president to fill the unexpired term of Warren Hyland, resigned. Bill Stienbarger of Wemme was elected. George Clark of Rhododendron and Glen Barstad of Wemme were elected as executive board members to fill vacancies. Important business considered was the making of plans or a big opening day on May 1, participating in by all mountain businesses.

Details for opening day plans will be given at the next meeting which will be at the Golf Course Thursday evening, April 14, at 8:30 P.M. The executive board and the by-laws committee will meet there, two hours earlier to consider changes in the by-laws. The committee consists of Hugh Pattie, chairman, Maude Grebs, George Clark and Beth Bradley. Mrs. Arba McPaul will give a membership report at that time.

Grangers Attend Colton Meeting

SANDY—Sixteen members from the Sandy grange attended visitation night at the Colton foothills grange Saturday night, April 16. Over 100 members representing 13 granges were in attendance.

Included on the evening program was the showing of a color film by a member of the forest service of the Estacada district. David Fox of Portland, playing his own accompaniment on a string instrument, presented several songs. Barbara Beehler of Bull Run played an accordion selection and Leah Bodley gave a reading.

The Sandy grange will hold a social night this Saturday evening, April 23, at the grange hall at Kelso.

Autographed Pin Given Bride-Elect

BORING—The home of Mrs. Otis Rich was the scene of a recent bridal shower honoring Miss Beverly Colt.

Two large white tissue bells with bow of white satin ribbon, suspended over the white cloth covered gift table were the decorations. A rolling pin autographed by the guests was presented Miss Colt.

Mrs. Genevieve Valberg assisted with the luncheon of angel food cake with whipped cream and coffee served on glass trays with nut cups topped with miniature brides.

SOUND OFF

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif.—Two Sandy, Oregon, Marines, Pvt. Jackie D. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Thompson of Hillcrest and Pvt. Jackie G. Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Hunter, Sandy, are scheduled to finish four weeks of individual combat training April 25, at the Marine Corps Base here.

The course of instruction at this huge training base includes the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications, and advanced schooling on weapons.

The trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

The training is given to Marines scheduled for duty overseas and to all graduates of recruit training before they are assigned to new duty stations.

Explorer Scouts Set May Schedule

SANDY—The Explorer Scouts met Friday, April 15, for a plan of advancement. A list of things to do from now until the end of the school year was scheduled.

A clean up day is set for the hospital property Sunday, May 1, if weather permits. A hike is planned May 5 and again later in the month, either May 14 or 15. A social event is slated Thursday, May 19.

Sandy Students To Hear Concert

SANDY—Arrangements have been completed to provide transportation for Sandy grade and high school students attending the Portland Junior Symphony youth concert at the Civic auditorium this Saturday morning, 11 AM, April 23, according to Mrs. Jan deGraff, chairman of the Saturday morning concert.

The final concert of the Portland Junior Symphony's 31st season presents a very special feature—the Portland Junior League's Puppet Theater dramatizing Ernst Toch's "Circus". In this lively and descriptive music the audience will be able to hear the animals roar, the trapeze artists "fly through the air with the greatest of ease" and the ringmaster crack his whip as the animals and clowns, bareback riders and myriads of other artists travel around the rings and do their acts. At the same time, the audience will be able to watch puppets do these things in the Junior League's blue and red gaudy theater.

Immediately following the concert the audience will be invited to the auditorium south wing to meet the soloists, members of the orchestra and the puppets. Conductor Avshalomov will be there and the orchestra members will bring their instruments for the young people to see and perhaps try to play. The late Jacques Gershkovitch, founder and conductor of the Junior Symphony for nearly thirty years, resided at their country home on Music camp road in the Dover district. Mrs. Gershkovitch has continued to make her home there since his death.

Brightwood Unit Elects Officers

BRIGHTWOOD—Election of next year's officers was conducted at last Thursday's meeting of the Brightwood Extension unit held at the Community hall. About twenty members were present.

New officers elected were Clara Gaumon, president; June English, vice-president; Jerry Steinbarger, secretary; and Beulah Gaulke, treasurer.

Bessie Lindstrom and Gladys Farr served luncheon, with table decorations of daffodil, hellebore, and hyacinths. All the flowers were home-grown—the hostesses live down in the Bannana Belt. Dorothy Phelps, games chairman, introduced two games, prizes for which went to Beth Bradley and Nell Bistorous. Edna Phelps won the white elephant.

Mrs. Grace MacDowall, county agent, was present to conduct the program. She gave an interesting talk on Accessories for the Home.

Senior Students Attend OSC Event

SANDY—Ten seniors from Sandy high school will visit Oregon State college this weekend for a preview of college educational opportunities and student activities.

The program gives graduating seniors a chance to explore career possibilities in the various fields of study and to get acquainted with college life. Talks with staff members in the various schools on job prospects are part of the program.

At OSC, the senior weekend is known as a Beaver Preview and is part of the program conducted by all state system schools. Seniors are guests in the OSC living groups.

Special events include student entertainment shows, a style show, dances, boxing, and track and baseball contests.

Local seniors who have notified OSC they will participate are listed below. Others may be included since all seniors have been invited.
