Family Week Plan Of Church Group

SANDY—The Berean Class—the adult fellowship of the Community-Presbyterian church met in the church annex Saturday and after an evening of entertainment planned the Family Week for the church which will be the first week in May.

Lewis Hall had ben appointed by the Session to head up this work and his committee was the membership of the Berean class. H. D. Slaughter is president of the group. They proposed the following ideas:

Family week is to begin Sunday, May 1, with special emphasis in the morning worship service and a move to get families to worship together as units that day. They have planned a fellowship period following the service.

The Wesminster Fellowship has been requested to plan the evening program to include the families of the church. The midweek Bible study groups are to prepare their evening to help families in their daily worship at home. The women's association of the church will unite 'n sponsoring a family pot-luck dinner Friday, May 6, with entertainment and program provided by the Mariners—the young adult fellowship of the church.

Family week will conclude on Mother's Day, May 8, with special emphasis planned by the church school.

Methodist Women Present Speaker

ESTACADA — The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Estacada Methodist church will present Mrs. Harriet Krause, an informed and excellent speaker, at the Methodist church this Thursday evening, April 21, at 8 PM.

She is well known for her Voice of America radio program and her magazine of the same name. She is the deputy commissioner of the fair employment practices law in the Bureau of Labor. Mrs. Krause states that the interpretation and enforcement of this law is a challenge to the God-given potentialities of all Oregon's Christian womanhood.

A refreshment hour will follow the program to give the audience an opportunity to meet Mrs. Krause.

Roberta Douglas To Speak Sunday

ESTACADA — Miss Roberta Douglas from the Oswego Methodist Youth Fellowship will speak Sunday morning, April 24, at the 11 AM service at the Estacada Methodist church.

She will give the speech which she gave at the youth contest on the subject My Christian Witness Which is Needed in the Public High School Today. Her speech was very highly rated both for beautiful delivery and present day challenge to youth, according to Rev. Bolliger.

Rev. Bolliger will bring the morning sermon on the subject, The Summons of the Young and Fearless Prophet.

Youth Choir Sets Sunday Program

SANDY—Under the inspiring leadership of Miss Carol Emerson, the Youth Choir of the Community-Presbyterian Church has made great strides during the past months.

They have added much to the worship service on the Sundays when they have brought the Ministry of Music.

This next Sunday they will again lead in worship as they sing Whispering Hope.

Children's Hour Held Each Monday

ESTACADA — The Methodist Children's Hour, a study class for school-age children, is held every Monday afternoon at 3:30 PM at the parsonage.

The current study course is Christ First. The youngsters are also working on May baskets to be distributed on May Day.

Church Program Vote Slated

SANDY—The Community-Presbyterian church organization will vote this Sunday, April 24 on the building committee recommendation to empower church officers to raise $2500 and purchase temporary buildings for additional church school space.

The voting will be held at a special corporation meeting following the regular 11 o'clock worship service. All who have supported the church financially or by their attendance during the past year are eligible to vote.

For over a year, church officers have considered ways of making space in the present building for a pastor's study but each suggestion meant reducing much needed classroom space of the church school.

Spurred on by winning fourth place in the Oregon Council of Churches Town and Country improvement awards, a committee was appointed to investigate all possibilities for creating a study. This committee quickly discovered that a growing church school enrollment involved more than merely taking care of present needs, so that the problem was returned to the session of the church. Elder Don Deming was then appointed to form a building committee representing all of the groups of the church to investigate possible solutions to both needs.

The building committee studied the many phases of the problem, considering past history and future needs of the church, as well as the immediate problems. The present building was built around 1910, added onto in the 1950s and the annex, formerly the old Gun Club building, was moved in following World War II.

It was the general feeling that within the next ten years the Community-Presbyterian church will need to extensively remodel existing facilities or move from the present location. The corner s a choice business site, but parking facilities are limited, as well as expansion space.

Two sub-committees investigated building programs for the available space south of the present annex. One committee headed by Ralph Hames, investigated cost of new construction, while the other committee, headed by William Blake, looked into the possibilities of purchasing two defense housing units from the Kellogg Park project.

The building committee, composed of church officers and many interested persons heard their reports, and voted to recommend to the congregation that $2500 be raised to purchase, move and establish two of the 24 by 26 foot units. These units will then be improved to provide classroom space, a pastor's study and more suitable nursery facilities for the regular worship services.

The present building is serving the church and community to the fullest, being in almost constant use. In addition to church meetings and activities, the annex is regularly used by the Kiwanis club and the Kindergarten, three Girl Scout troops, one Cub den and the Firwood extension unit.

Sandy Pastor Is Battery Chaplain

SANDY—Rev. Philip R. Hampe, pastor of the Sandy Community-Presbyterian church, has been named 1st Lt. Chaplain for the 722 A.A.A. Battalion, with Battery C at Gresham.

Commanding officer of the unit is Lt. Col. Ira D. Miller.

Walther Leaguers Elect Officers

SANDY—The Walther League of Immanuel Lutheran church elected officers at their April 1th meeting. Barbara Neuman will head the organization as president for the next year. Lyle Schwartz was elected vice-president, Elisabeth Dey, treasurer and Ernest Schwartz, secretary.

Lulu Clark, Christian Growth chairman, led in a discussion and Bible study of the topic, My Witness in Worship.

Jon Isakson told about the Youth Night the Leaguers attended at Immanuel Lutheran church in Portland. The group enjoyed the church service followed by singing and refreshments.

Carl Neuman was appointed chairman of a skating party and chili feed to be arranged next month.

Following the meeting Elisabeth Dey and Barbara Neuman led in games and singing. Lyle Schwartz and Carl Neuman served refreshments.

Last Sunday a group of leaguers joined with Washougal Walther Leaguers in an outing on Mt. Hood.
