cumulated for the popular Purdys, who are now living in Annette Eneff's home. Purdy will be working for Dave Faubion as soon as the weather settles.

Jim Langdon has finished his First Aid class with all members taking the examination and graduating.

June English and Daisy Schaffer went to Oregon City last Friday, spending the day taking lessons in Main Dish Meals, which is the subject for the next meeting of the Brightwood extension unit on May 12.

Walter Creighton is still seriously ill in Emanuel hospital, following an operation for gall

Barker's Bugle . . .

"I know I'm not much to look at," admitted the suitor. "Oh, well," philosophized his bride-to-be, "you'll be at the office most of the time."

Hobo (to housewife): "It isn't that I'm avoiding work, ma'am. There just isn't much doing in my particular line. I'm a window box weeder."

"Did you learn very much on your first day of school, Johnny?" asked mother.

"Not enough, I guess," replied Johnny. "I have to back again tomorrow."

When paying a visit to George Bernard Shaw, a distinguished visitor expressed surprise that the author had no vase of flowers in his home. "I thought," he said, "you were exceedingly fond of flowers."

"I am," Shaw retorted shortly. "I'm very fond of children too. But I don't cut their heads off and stick them in pots all over the house."

Since little Johnnie's personal horizon had been greatly extended by several months at kindergarten, his mother decided to inquire concerning his current loyalties.

"Dear," said she, "whom do you love the best?"

The youngster pondered the query soberly and then replied. "Well, I love you best, Mommie, and Daddy next best, and my teacher the least. And in between come a lot of dogs."

The knife thrower in a carnival had imbibed too freely and had injured his assistant. However, he promptly found another target for his hurtling cutlery—lazy Luke, a local store porch sitter.

"You're plumb crazy, takin' that job, Luke," said a friend. "Why?" drawled the loafer. "Oh, I've got to stand up durin' the act, all right, but the gent throwin' the knives does all the work."

Cannibal mother (reproving her son) "How many times must I tell you not to talk with someone in your mouth?"
