

Pie Auction, White Elephant Sale Featured At Bull Run PTA Meeting

AIMS-BULL RUN — A very pleasant and successful meeting of the Bull Run PTA was reported last Thursday night. The meeting featured an Easter program, white elephant sale and pie social plus entertainment. Dick Anderson sang two well-known Easter songs, The Stranger of Galilee and The Holy City. Nancy Kitchen played a piano solo and the class taught by principal Fairbanks demonstrated the use of visual aid pictures in the class room. Following the entertainment youngsters enjoyed fishing in the 4H fish pond and adults purchased white elephants. All adjourned to the kitchen for refreshments of coffee and cookies and the pie auction.

Aims Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Emil Stromberg Wednesday afternoon with ten members present. Mrs. Edna Lawson of Sandy, formerly of Aims was a guest. Mrs. Lawson was one of the original founders of the club about nine years ago. It was decided to hold the postponed pot-luck party Saturday, April 23.

Hostesses Mrs. Stromberg and Mrs. Elser served refreshments at the close of the afternoon meeting.

The American Legion and auxiliary of Corbett met Friday evening. Most of the meeting was devoted to discussion of plans for the coming annual Salmon supper. Members voted the sum of $26 for non-veteran child welfare.

There will be no regular May meeting but the ladies will attend.

Pixie Group Is New Brownie Unit

SANDY—The Pixie troop of the Brownie Scouts of Sandy held their first investiture ceremony at the regular meeting Monday.

Those invested and receiving their Brownie pins of the newly formed troop were Carol Hicks, Frances Parker, Carol Ackers, Carol Searls, Geraldine Redmon, Katie Leavitt, Diane Limbaugh, Sandra Deming, Mary Henselman, Willma Pearce, Ruth Walker and Lana Searls.

Brownie Scouts and leaders expressed their appreciation to all who helped to make their cookie sale a success.

tend a gathering at Mrs. Van Ausdell's for the purpose of making flowers for the wheelchair parade on May 13.

The Easter Sunrise Services were held at Corbett Christian church instead of Rooster Rock because of the rain. Some 100 persons were in attendance. Special music was furnished by the Aims choir and a trumpet solo added to the program. Following the services a ham and egg breakfast was served by the ladies of the church.

The Sunday school program at Aims church Sunday morning was well attended. The adult portion of the program included a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Goertz and a solo by Earl Weeks. The junior class presented a skit representing a radio broadcast of readings from the Bible with questions and answers. Recitations were given by members of the children's class and the primary grade closed the program with songs. There will be evening services Sunday at Aims hall.

Traffic Safety Is Program Topic

BRIGHTWOOD—At the social meeting of Mt. Grange last Saturday evening the lecturer presented a program on traffic safety. Al Rounds was there with his square dancing class of juniors who demonstrated several routines in square dancing.

Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Al Rounds, Mrs. Louise O'Dea, Mrs. Spooner, Mrs. Kare, Jim O'Dea, Tony White and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Purdy. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Irene Petrie and assistants. Later there was dancing by both adults and juniors.

Sandy Grange Sets Card Party

SANDY—The Sandy Grange will hold its regular card party this Saturday night, April 23, at the grange hall in Kelso at 8 PM.

Working on the evening committee will be Margaret Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Elmer.

Next month the card party will be held on the regular date on the third Saturday of the month.

Theta Rho Girls Fete Bride-Elect

BORING — Marilyn McHaffy was initiated into the Beta Theta Rho Girls club of Boring at their regular meeting held Wednesday, April 13 in the Boring IOOF hall. President JoElynn Skala called the meeting to order and minutes were read by Valrae Soeger. Fifteen girls answered roll call. Two Rebekah members were present.

Following the meeting, the girls were invited to the home of their advisor, Mrs. Erma Rich and a bridal shower honoring Miss Beverly Colt was given.

Beverly is a charter member of the club and also past president.

Flowering quince, a bride doll and white candles decorated the lace covered bride's table. Favors of nut cups covered with lace doilies, with blue ribbon bows and filled with small colored marshmallows represented a bride's nosegay. Small colored paper slippers were made for place cards.

Many pretty and useful gifts were received by the bride-elect. After the gifts were opened, a lunch of open face sandwiches and cocoa was served by Mrs. Florence Colt and Mrs. Erma Rich.

Lutheran League Has Evening Meet

SANDY—The April 18th meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Wewer with Mrs. Emil Reich as co-hostesses.

Topic of discussion for the evening was taken from the Lutheran Woman's quarterly, Help Train Soldiers of the Cross.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Hall at 1:30 PM, Thursday, May 12.

Rita Eloise is the name given the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wallace of Route 2, Sandy. The baby was born March 31 at the Osteopathic hospital in Portland, weighing in at 9 pounds and 9 ounces. She has two brothers, Willard and Lawrence and four sisters, Jeanette, Donna, Karen and Lesa.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Marie Wulnsche of Route 2, Sandy and Mrs. Bee Wallace of Oak Grove is the paternal grandmother.

Beth Bradley at Zigzag

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Lawrence and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buehner and two children, all of Portland, spent a long Easter weekend with Mrs. Sinclair Wilson at her home on the Sandy river.

Bill Steinbarger and Bub Stone caught two good big fish one day last week and came home all set for a Fish Fry. This turned into a kind of free-for-all chicken, elk, venison and fish buffet at the Steinbargers' home for about 18 neighbors who all joined in the cooking as well as the eating thereof.

Nell Howe is serving on the jury at Oregon City this month and she's having fun finding out how the law operates. Walt Blaisdell is also a jurymen.

Bill and Jo Drips had a twenty-fourth wedding anniversary on April 4. They celebrated by having dinner out at one of the Mountain's good eating places. Nell Bistorious had a birthday on the same day, but she folled her neighbors' efforts to give her a birthday celebration by being gone all day to town and in the evening of First Aid class.

Forest service men at Zigzag have been busy the last ten days repairing the northwest corner of the office building, which was wrecked in the recent big blow. They also cleared up all the fallen trees and blow down from the storm. Fortunately the Wy' east Garden club's rhododendron test garden was not damaged by the falling trees which did damage of $4,000, to forestry buildings.

Pat Rogan is working for the forest service again now.

Ed Morton and two helpers have been working on the late Harry Morton's place near Zigzag mountain, getting it ready for the summer.

Both Zigzag Inn and Barlow Trail Inn folk have been busy since the snow melted, getting rid of fallen trees and blowdown left all around them by the big wind storm. No harm was done to the main buildings although out-buildings were damaged. Seven trees fell at the Zigzag Inn.

Dean Barnett closed his Gate-way store at Zigzag for most of last week, while he himself helped Art Baumbach's crew to hoist the building and move it back. The service station and duplex are already raised to highway level and filing will be done this week. The post office will be raised and moved over next to the store. The little building in between was taken down.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler are moving into Norman Park's house on Truman road, which has been vacant several months.

W. H. Perkins, an old-time Oregon newspaperman, has taken one of the cottages on the Bill Drips property for a year. He gained fame in newspaperdom by assisting in the capture of a notorious criminal named Malarkey near Klamath Falls in 1925 when Walter Pierce was governor of Oregon. Malarkey was a suspected murderer on whose head a price was set. Perkins was instrumental in capturing him in a lonely farmhouse where he had taken refuge.

Jerry Steinbarger is planning to take a Red Cross course in Home Nursing in Portland. Subsequently she will give instruction in this to a class in the mountain area.

Jennie Welch spent three days in Portland last week attending and participating in the antique show given at the Westminster Presbyterian church. About 26 Oregon antique dealers took part in the show.

Birthday Party Fetes Sandyite

SANDY—Mrs. Harvey Schneider was honored last week at a birthday party given by Mrs. Dean Bredekamp at her home in Troutdale.

Those present besides the guest of honor and Mrs. Bredekamp were Mrs. Keith Schneider, Mrs. Dean Schneider, Julie and Debbie, Mrs. Bill Radford, Mrs. War-

Garfield Grange Aids Youth Group

GARFIELD—The Youth chairman took fifteen teenagers and four adults to Warner grange Saturday, April 16.

Following the meeting, the rest of the evening was spent playing games and square dancing.

A talent contest is planned for May 21, at the Redland grange. Nine new members were taken in at the last meet. Members are working and planning for a de-gree team.

The teenagers are very much a part of the evenings of square dancing and fun. All meetings are chaperoned and young people as well as adults have an enjoyable time. Also people who do not belong have volunteered their help and furnished refreshments.

About sixty were in attendance at the last dance. Transportation was furnished by Ernest Duns, Ray Gordon and Ed Lee.

Sells more...because it's worth more!

Ford's worth more when you buy it . . . and it's easy to see why! Only Ford brings you the long, low look of the Thunderbird and its "car-of-tomorrow" lines. Only Ford gives you the instant—and reassuring—response of Trigger-Torque power . . . power that whisks you up hills or around traffic . . . gives you "Go" when you need it for safety's sake! And Ford alone in its field gives you the solid comfort and handling ease of a new and smoother Angle-Poised Ride.

There are countless other worth-more features, from the smoothness and long life of Ford's deep-block engines to the colorfully fresh new beauty of Ford's Luxury Lounge interiors. A Test Drive will show you how many there are.

Ford's worth more when you sell it . . . and used car prices prove it! For years, Ford cars have returned a higher proportion of their original cost at resale than any other low-priced car. And that's further proof that Ford's first in all-round, long-lasting value.

Before you buy any new car be sure you see and drive the worth more car...the '55 Ford
