Barker's Bugle...

The man who never spoke a hasty word to his wife probably stutters.

"Now son," said the angry father, "tell me why I punished you."

"That does it," said Billy, "first you whale the tar out of me, and then ask ME why you did it."

Most husbands would not mind doing the dishes if the wife would only help with the house work.

Then there was the cowboy who took his Eastern girl on her first horseback ride: She got sore and walked home.

Uncle Homer says he thought he was making a pass at an angel but woke up holding the bag.

A man was signing up for a job in the berry fields last week. The questionnaire asked: "When are you available for work?" The man scratched his head and asked the clerk how to spell rat.

 "Why R A T, of course," answered the clerk.
 "No," said the man. "I don't mean that kind of rat. I mean rat now."

Ralph Richardson was exceedingly jubilant the other day and when Rita asked him how come: "How come," said Ralph, "remember last winter when my water pipes froze up?"

"Yes."
 "Well, the plumber who fixed them just brought his car in for repair."

Teacher: "Tell me, Willie, what you know about George Washington - was he soldier or a sailor?"

Bill: "I think he was a soldier."

Teacher: "Tell us why you think so."
 Bill: "I saw a picture of him crossing the Delaware - and anybody who would stand up in a rowboat ain't no sailor."

The girl who used to set her pies out to cool now has a daughter who takes them from the freezer to thaw.

Gresham Edges Sandy Nine In Close Game Monday PM

SANDY—Gresham high school displayed a little too much power and defeated Sandy high school 7 to 4, in a fast and interesting baseball game on the Sandy diamond Monday afternoon. Five Sandy errors contributed to Sandy's downfall, while Gresham escaped with but one miscue during the 7-inning contest.

A bases-full home run by Shortstop Snyder of Gresham in the second inning was the blow that dashed Sandy's hopes of victory. The local boys were never able to overcome that

Season Opens, But No Fishing

SANDY—According to the calendar and the state game commission, the 1955 fishing season in this area is scheduled to open bright and early Saturday morning.

But according to the weatherman whose perverseness, to put it gently, has become a little bit more than tiring this spring, the army of trout-hungry anglers in these parts are liable to discover that they might just as well have stood in bed.

Latest reports from the streams in the Mt. Hood area indicate that they are yet too high and too swift and too—well, it's just too bad!

But in spite of the gloomy outlook there'll probably be close to the usual quota out along the various Mt. Hood streams mulling through the snow drifts with high but misplaced courage.

Rangers Take Mt. Angel Tilt

ESTACADA—Estacada's Rangers walked away from the Mt. Angel diamond this week with a shaky 10-4 win in spite of an off day for Gary Lind who hurled a wild game.

The game was saved by the consistently good batting of Robert Shook, Jim Weston, and Gary Ames. Shook captured a three-bagger, Weston came through with a triple and a double and Ames picked up a single and a double.

Lind made three strikeouts and allowed five walks.

Estacada collected runs in the first, third and sixth innings and Mt. Angel scored in the first, third and last inning.

Rain Blasts Slated Meet

SANDY—Because of the heavy rain which has been general over western Oregon during the past week, the scheduled track and field meet between Sandy high school and Tigard high school at Tigard Wednesday was called off by the Tigard school officials.

Coach Bob Woodward of the Sandy team was in readiness to take his charges to Tigard Wednesday noon when he received word that the storms had made the track and field too wet for competition.

Postal Workers Get New Machine

SANDY—A new postal cancellation machine was installed in the post office here this last week, John Metzger, postmaster, said Wednesday.

The machine was installed Friday, April 22, and makes possible a continuous tally on letters which are sent through the post office.

Merchants Lose Games Thursday

SANDY—The Sandy Merchants team bowled against the second place Rushow Insurance team last Thursday evening and lost all games.

Their individual scratch scores were Sandy Chamber of Commerce, Myrtle Sublette, 390; Sandy Oil Company, Kay Moore, 430; Sandy Food Market, Ruth Young, 271; Sandy Beauty Shop, Ruby Gillmore, 466; and Economy Meat Market, Pauline Neely, 462.

Although Ruby Gillmore rolled a 192 scratch game, the team still rolled their lowest games to date and lost them all.

Sandy Loses Shoot Lead To Roseburg Gun Clubbers

SANDY—Sandy's Rod and Gun club was dethroned as leader in the final round of The Journal's annual telegraphic trapshooting league, and the Roseburg clubbers were acclaimed as leaders, according to reports received in Sandy Wednesday.

Although the six Sandy marksmen had perfect scores in the final round of the tournament, they were edged out by Roseburg, who finished with a one-point margin over the local scatter gun experts.

The final score sheet showed Roseburg to have won 26 matches and tied 11 during the season, while Sandy won 25 matches and tied 12. The Heppner-Condon and the Jefferson-Pine Grove teams tied for third place in final league standings. The Journal's scoreboard showed Roseburg finished the season with 63 points, with Sandy breathing down their necks with 62 points.

Sandy Locals

Myron and Dee Dale left Monday, April 18, for Indianapolis where Myron bowled in the NIBC tournament. They will return by way of Omaha where Dee will bowl in the Womens International bowling tournament.

Sandy Jr. Oddfellows held a skating party at Gresham Roller rink Saturday evening April 16.

Rod and Gun Club To Name Officers

ESTACADA—The Estacada Rod and Gun club will elect its new officers for the year at a meeting to be held here Thursday night at the Legion hall at 8 PM.

Also on the program, according to president Frank Marshall is two movies, The Flying Fisherman and the Flying Hunter. Lunch will be served following the business meeting.

The Rod and Gun club meets once a month.
