

Major Bob Cooke Of Air Command Visiting Family

ESTACADA—Major Robert R. Cooke, Jr., of the United States Air Force, is here with Mrs. Cooke and their three sons for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Cooke, Sr. The senior Cooke is Estacada city recorder and municipal judge. Major Cooke is currently stationed at Travis air base near Fairfield, California, and flies Globemaster transports throughout the world. He is scheduled to leave Travis air base on Friday of next week on a flight to Japan. Major Cooke joined the air force just prior to the second world war and at the conclusion of hostilities decided to make it his life's career. Major Cooke is looking forward to a golf game with his dad at Mt. Hood Golf club before he returns to his California base.

More Spaces Open For County Fair

CANBY—There are still several spaces open for commercial exhibitors at the 1955 Clackamas county fair, it was reported Tuesday by F. G. Lawrence, executive secretary. Information on these spaces can be obtained at the fairgrounds here which are now open from 9 AM to 4 PM, Monday through Friday. The new premium books also are available and can be procured at the fairgrounds or by writing to the Clackamas County Fair board at Canby.

It was announced that more space will be available this year for open livestock exhibitors as the 4-H and FFA are splitting their show, each group showing for two days. Additional space has also been added for open class poultry and the rabbit show.

Work is now in progress in improvements and repairs to the buildings. The 4-H is helping to keep expenses down by doing their own work on their building and concession stand.

Clackamas County Groups At Picnic

SANDY—The Clackamas County Farmers Union held its annual picnic Sunday, July 17, at Eagle Fern Park. Members from the various locals were present. After a potluck dinner, the afternoon was spent in playing games and renewing acquaintances.

Estacada Locals

A family picnic was enjoyed on the Ralph Wade home lawn last week by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Henriksson and three boys of Eugene, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wade and children of Estacada, and Mr. and Mrs. Mac Varner and three children of Chinook, Montana. This picnic gave the children, who are all cousins, a chance to become better acquainted with each other.

Nell's Notes

By Nell Howe

Norman Bishop with a new motorcycle... The George Bishorouses home with a shining new coat of paint... Gordon Winfrey recovering nicely after his emergency appendectomy... Hannah Greenwood back for a brief visit... The Arba McPaul's pet dog was killed on the Highway... Phyllis Ellwood and Shelley down from Tacoma for a few days at the Golf Club... The Wy'east Garden Club's Rhododendron Garden came in for a great deal of praise while it was in bloom and was it beautiful... Keep in mind the Lions Club's big auction sale August 14th. Dig out all your White Elephants and anything else that you can possibly live without and donate to this sale. The Lions have made considerable progress in remodeling the Community Hall and lets contribute all we can to this so worth while cause...
