

Gene's Launderettes Sponsor Ladies Premier Bowling Team

SANDY—Bowling every Thursday night in the Ladies' Premier League at the Bowlerdrome Alleys in Portland (same league as the Sandy Merchants team) is a team known as Gene's Launderettes, sponsored by Gene Brown, owner of Gene's Launderettes, located in Sandy and at 12 mile corner.

Members of the team, all Portland girls, are Bessie Pugh, Betty Kalk, Jean Gorman, Dorothy Warner and Ina Smith.

At present they have rolled the highest team series, a 2812 with handicap (2533 scratch which may be hard to beat. They also hold second place with the high team game—a 977 with handicap (884 scratch). Both of these scores were rolled the same night.

The team rolling at the Bowlerdrome Alleys in Portland last Thursday took all four points from their opponents.

They had a substitute bowler who rolled a 222 scratch game and a scratch series of 590.

This team is one point in the lead of the Sandy Merchants team.

Insurance Talk Slated For Meeting

SANDY—The Farmers Union, Kelso local, held its regular monthly meeting, Thursday evening, October 13, at the Cottrell school. A potluck dinner was served at 6:30 PM.

Emil Schermacher, state field man for Farmers Union Insurance and Jerome Evans of Farmers Union Regional office of Boise, Idaho, was present and addressed the group concerning all phases of insurance.

Students To Hear Salesmen, Photog

SANDY—Ring salesmen and photographers will be heard by the junior and senior classes of Sandy high school during this week. The student council here voted to hear prices from both the class ring salesmen and from photographers previous to placing orders.
