

Cubs Revive Days of Robin Hood At First Pack Meeting of Fall

SANDY—The first Cub Scout pack meeting of the season was held in the grade school gym Monday evening, October 3.

The meeting was opened with a plea from Cub Master Clifford Sandstrom for parent participation and more interest in what the young cubs are doing. Officers introduced were Alvin Sheidon, who will be in charge of the ceremonies and the awarding of badges and points; Albert Katt, assistant Cub master; and Mrs. Clapp, publicity.

Den mothers were then introduced and several new ones were assigned dens.

Following the reading of a poem by the Scout master a skit was put on by members of the pack. The theme of the month was Robin Hood. The skit was as follows: King John (Dan Alligeier) was challenged by Robin Hood (Hal Dyal) to meet with their men in some games of skill. The prize to be the life of Robin Hood or the beard of King John. The challenge was taken and the games were hand boxing, rooster fighting and Indian leg wrestling.

Spaghetti Dinner Planned Saturday

SANDY — Chrysanthemums, dahlias and colorful vine maple leaves decorated the brown and gold covered dining room tables for the dessert luncheon preceding the meeting of the Sandy Womans club last Thursday, October 6, at the Womans club hall in Sandy. Hostesses were Mrs. S. A. Mollner, Mrs. C. L. Idleman, Mrs. Margaret Bell and Mrs. Vernon Elmer.

Mrs. Joe Taylor, chairman of the Third District International Relations, was guest speaker for the afternoon program. She showed films on what the United Nations have done toward health improvement in Mexico and Thailand.

Mrs. McNaught of Tigard, who accompanied Mrs. Taylor to the meeting, was introduced.

Plans were completed for the Spaghetti dinner to be served this Saturday evening, October 15, at the Masonic hall between the hours of 5:30 and 7:30 PM. Agnes Barker, dinner chairman, stressed that the dinner is open to the public and all are invited to attend. Tickets are on sale by members of the club.

Although King John's men won the games he spared the life of Robin and the boys, all in fun, cut off the beard of the King.

The costumes were made in the den meetings and the scenery was built by Albert Katt and his den.

Anyone interested in being a den mother and father or any boys interested in joining the Cub Scouts should contact Cliff Sandstrom.

Student Council To Hold Meeting For Dad's Club

SANDY—The student council of Sandy high school accepted an invitation from the Sandy Hi Dad's club during its meeting Wednesday to hold a meeting before the Dad's club. The meeting will be staged October 27 at 8 PM in the high school.

Also at the Wednesday meeting the student council expressed interest in a teen-age driving safety club, and discussed ways of keeping the school grounds and buildings more beautiful. It recommended to the student body that more effort be made to keep papers off the lawns and out of the hallways of the school.

Boring Student Gets ROTC Honor

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—William R. Rogers of Route 2, Boring, is one of 27 students in army ROTC training at Oregon State college to be designated a "distinguished military student."

It is the highest honor given seniors in advanced army reserve officer training.

Rogers is majoring in engineering at OSC and is training to be an officer in the signal corps. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Rogers and is a 1952 graduate of Gresham high.

The distinguished student ratings are based on high scholarship, demonstrated leadership and outstanding performance of duty in ROTC training and summer camp. Distinguished military graduates have an opportunity to apply for regular army commissions instead of the usual reserve commissions given college men who complete the advanced ROTC program.

Bowling Scores

The Sandy Merchants bowling team, rolling at the Bowlerdrome Alleys in Portland last Thursday, split the points with their opponent, the Blue Keg team, winning two games but losing series.

Their individual scratch scores were as follows:

Sandy Oil Company, Bea Ferguson 503; Pullen's Food Market, Mildred Ketchum, 509; Economy Meat Market, Ruth Young, 429; Chamber of Commerce, Betty Kilgore, 440; and Richardson Chevrolet, Pauline Neely, 422.

Again Mildred Ketchum had not only the high series of 509, but also the high scratch single game of 198.
