Interested fans of the Harlem Globetrotters had a double dose of enjoyment this week. The Zany experts with the educated basketball were seen Sunday on Omnibus (Channel 6, Sundays at 2 P.M.). Now a full-length feature movie has been made of the team. "Go, Man, Go," is built around the life story of their controversial, ball of fire manager, Abe Saperstein, played by Dane Clark. His love interest is Pat Breslin, who must lead a lively life with a barnstorming husband. It should prove lively and funny. The show runs at the Broadway Theatre-in-Estacada December 7 through 10. Feature companion is a science-fiction thriller, "This Island Earth," with Faith Domergue. Coming Sunday, December 11, at the Broadway is a musical "It's Always Fair Weather," with Gene Kelly, Dan Dailey, Cyd Charisse, Dolores Gray and Michael Kidd.
