Nasshahn - Howland Vows Read At Kern Park Church

BORING—In a double ring ceremony at Kern Park Christian church Friday, June 8, Miss Yvonne Marie Nasshahn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nasshahn of Boring became the bride of Pepper Harvey Stuart Howland son of Mr. and Mrs. Kieth Howland of 12648 S.E. Salmon street, Portland.

Performing the ceremony was Reverend Kenneth Johnston, Allan Blubaum was soloist and Miss Barbara LaChambre was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over slipper satin. Her cascade bouquet of white Esther Reed daisies and stephanotis was centered with a white orchid. A coronet of seed pearls held her fingertip veil.

Maid of honor was Miss Sharon Peterson and bridesmaids were Miss Patsy Nelson, Miss Patricia Foreman and Miss Phyllis Downey. Janis Rae Scofield, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The attendants wore frocks of pastel taffeta with headresses and shower bouquets in colors matching their dresses.

Donavon Laudenslager was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Wilford Nasshahn and the groom's brothers, George Howland and Robert Howland. Another brother, Michael Howland, was ring bearer.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Raymond Scofield, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Burt Gainer, aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Howland was at the coffee service and Mrs. George Howland presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. John DeMoss was in charge of the guest book Cousins of the bride, Miss Judy Nasshahn and Miss Sandra Nasshahn, were at the gift table and also assisted in the serving.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to the Oregon beaches the bride was wearing a powder blue suit with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will be at home at 12300 S.E. Division street after June 18.
