Kevin McCarthy plays a crippled bank teller who thinks he's useless until he foils a bank robbery in "Weapon of Courage" on Schlitz Playhouse of Stars, Friday, over KOIN-TV, 8:30 p.m. Maxine Cooper and Michael Winkelman play his wife and son. Oregon's Victor Jory plays the bank robber.

NEW SHOW: Jay P. Morgan, the little blonde who made a hit on the "Robert Q. Lewis" show a season ago, will star in her own twice weekly NBC teevee show on Channel 27 beginning this Wednesday. The "Jay P. Morgan Show" will be presented each Wednesday and Friday at 6:30 p.m. on KPTV. Proving that music can be a family affair, Jay's four singing brothers, Charlie, Bob, Dick and Duke will be featured with her. The boys, billed as the Morgan Brothers, were so successful in West Coast TV appearances, they were signed to an exclusive RCA-Victor recording contract, which hits have been "The Longest Walk", "Chee-Cheoo-Chee" and "Johnny Casanova" her latest. How'd she get to be named "J.P."? When little Mary Margaret Morgan was elected treasurer of her high school class. WEEKEND TEEVEE HIGHLIGHTS: 10:45 a.m. "A House for Albert," How to build your dog a house, Channel 12. 3:30 p.m. Glamour Girl, the show that each day takes some woman on a 24-hour glamour transformation, from housewife to femme fatale, Channel 12. 6:30 p.m. I Search For Adventure, Romanin Wilhelmsen stowed away aboard the Omega last of the windjammers and a jinxed ship, shows his films "Thirty Days Before the Mast," Channel 6. 7:30 p.m. CLIMAX! Dennis O'Keefe portrays an over-sentimental manager of a baseball team; Ruth Hussey is his wife and Gale Gordon (Mr. Conklin of Our Miss Brooks) a rival manager in a comedy, "A Trophy For Davenport," Channel 6. FRIDAY, June 29; 1 p.m., Armchair Theatre, "A Kiss for Aunt Sophie," Channel 6. 3:30 p.m., Northwest Home; Barbara Angell in charge of a sociological experiment; examining the strange rites of the American teenager in demonstration of the adolescent dances for today, Ch. 27. 6 p.m., Cavalcade of Sports, Gil Turner of Philly vs. Yama Bahama of Bimini, Florida, in a ten round welterweight bout from Madison Square, Channel 27. 6:30 p.m., Person to Person, Ed. R. Murrow visits Dizzy Gillespie, jazzman in Corona, Long Island and author-lecturer Emily Kimbrough (co-author with Cornelia Otis Skinner of the side-splitting hit "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay") in Manhattan, Ch. 6. 7 p.m., PREMIERE, of another try by bantam Mickey Rooney to put over his series as a page boy at network television station.

Barton Locals

by Virginia Horger
Work has started on the new Barton Grade School. Mr. B. Byrd, contractor, stated that the building should go up fast in the week to follow.
Gary Wymore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wymore, fell a week ago and chipped a bone in his foot and now has it in a cast to his knee. Gary is up walking around but will have to wear the cast for some time.

The teachers, helpers and baby sitters of the D.V.B.S. of the Barton Church feted themselves to a banquet Tuesday evening following the closing of the Bible School on June 15th. It was held at the Chinese Village in Portland. There were 21 present, including husbands. Everyone enjoyed chicken dinner, songs and fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Darell Wright and three children have returned from a three weeks trip to South Dakota and Chicago. In Chicago the temperature was 105. They visited museums, television studios, and the Tribune Tower which is 33 stories high. Loren Wright, their seven year old son, was on a T.V. program, Luncheonette, which is a children's program in the east. The highlights of the trip were a family reunion.

June 30th the Crusaders for Christ will play ball at the Highland Church at 6:00 P.M. Afterward they will meet at the home of Darlene Scribners in Highland. The challenge given to the men of the church by the Crusaders has been postponed until July 7th when they will meet at the North Logan School. All the church is invited to hear Marty Walt and see his films of Young Life Ranches at 8:00 PM in the Barton Church.

The Crusaders for Christ played ball on Saturday evening, June 23, at the North Logan School ground. Devotions were then held at the Barton Church and Earl Wilson was the guest speaker. Terry Kawamoto gave a summary of Rev. 7-13. A short executive meeting was held following the service.

Sunday morning Rev. E.D. Landon will be speaker at the Barton Church. Rev. and Mrs. Walden Askren and children are vacationing in Iowa. Reverend Landon will be living in the parsonage while the Askrens are away for two weeks. Mrs. Bob Stenson will sing the pre-sermon solo. The evening service will be given also by Rev. Landon. Mary Paine will give an accoridian solo and Elaine Valen-tine will sing the pre-sermon solo.

Channel 12.
