Sandy Locals

Jeannette Metzger, youngest daughter of the John Metzgers, celebrated her third birthday last Wednesday with a luncheon party at her parents' home. Playmates Adrian Revenaugh, and Danny Dahrens, were guests in addition to sister Judy and brother Ricky. Invited but unable to attend were her friends and cousins Kimberly and Garlan Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Potter and daughter, Nancy, left last week for a six weeks' trip motoring across the country. They plan to return in time for school opening.

Sally Lane and Florence Krebs rode their bicycles to Dodge Park this week to go swimming. The girls rode down the hill and pushed the bikes on the return trip.

Colleen Sheldon worked behind the Sandy Drug soda fountain, substituting for Edna Gunderson this week.

Word was received this week from Connie and Bob Pearce who moved back to New Hampshire after a year's residence in Sandy. The Pearces, with their two small children and Connie's parents, motored through Washington and Idaho and visited Niagara falls before reaching Nashua July 1.

Mrs. Dick Froman of Eugene is visiting this week with her sister Mrs. Jeann Harrison, Eagle Creek.

Roxie Burns returned from a visit with her daughter Delores, in San Francisco, bringing her two grandchildren with her. When she took the children back home, Roxie made the motor trip to and from San Francisco non-stop.

Mrs. Vic Ullmen and Mrs. Alvin Sheldon took 15 children swimming to Bonnie Lure Park this week. Six of the children belonged to Mrs. Ullmen and two were Sheldons.

Del Gilkison, Bay City, Oregon, spent the weekend with his daughter and her family, the Alvin Sheldons.

Mrs. Alfred Lindland chose one of the hottest days of this summer, Wednesday, to spend shopping in Portland.

Miss Laverne Gunderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gunderson writes that she will accept a new position as society editor on a paper in a California seacoast town near the nationally known Monterey area.

Mrs. Ethel Vincent, resident of Sandy for the past year, writes from Melvindale, Michigan that she has taken a position as housekeeper in a home near Detroit.

Nancy and Daryl Eliason and children, Susan and Doug returned the past weekend from a week's vacation spent in Seattle. During the week there they made a trip by ferry through the San Juan Islands taking the ferry out of Anacortes, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dove, Sr. of the Kelso area observed their 25th wedding anniversary on Wednesday of this week.

Lois and Bob Hazelwander and family of California are visiting relatives and friends in the Sandy area this week. They are former Sandy residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gist of California arrived in Sandy the past weekend to spend some time at their cottage here. Mr. Gist is a brother to Mrs. George Beers and Miss Olive Gist, both of Sandy. The Gists have spent part of their summers here for a number of years now.

Mr. and Mrs. Fern DePue of McCune, Kansas, are visiting at the Mr. and Mrs. M.D. Kirby of Sandy home of their son and family. The two families attended the Molalla Buckaroo during the Fourth of July and this past weekend the DePues made a trip to Eugene. They plan to spend the remain-

Wallace Roberts visited briefly with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Roberts of Route 1, Eagle Creek on Sunday morning. He drove in from Seattle where he is attending a special automobile school for 2 weeks. Wallace graduated from Oregon Tech, near Klamath Falls on June third and is now employed at the Ford garage in Madras.

Four-year-old Brian Boothby, son of the Tom Boothbys, fell face down against a log last week. Brian spent a long hour in the doctor's office getting splinters picked out of his left cheek and came to Sunday school with a big, dark bruise.

John Huxley, Chicago, spent a few hours Wednesday, visiting his sister Mrs. Fred Dickman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alex, Scenic drive, spent the hottest days of the year painting and re-roofing their house. Mrs. Alex chose "hot" colors too, Mexican pink with chili-bean brown trim.
