Triple Threat Meet For Kiwanis

Ladies night, the annual Christmas party and installation of newly elected officers promised a full evening for the Sandy Kiwanis Club when it meets Thursday, December 20th in the annex of the Community Presbyterian Church.

Each guest was requested to bring a Christmas gift, club officers reported, with both ladies and gentlemen choosing a present suitable for one of their number.

Kiwanis members reminded the public of the annual canned goods show, in conjunction with other civic organizations, slated for Saturday, December 22, 1:30 p.m., at the Sandy Theatre. Admission is canned goods to be distributed in baskets for needy people. Kids were promised that Santa would be at the matinee with a special treat for each child.

Sewing Circle Completes Quilt

RHODODENDRON — Six members of the Golden Rule Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Leannah Morris for a potluck luncheon on the 29th of November.

The group completed another quilt for charitable purposes. Their supply of completed quilts had been exhausted in helping out several families who had lost all their possessions by fire in the last six weeks.

The ladies expressed their pleasure upon receiving two quilt tops from Mrs. Dudley.
