

Hillcrest Notes

HILLCREST — Karen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Reed, is back in school after spending a week in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bridgeman celebrated their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary on February 16. The Bridgemans have four children and five grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Theron Rutledge celebrated their twenty-eighth anniversary on February 20. They have twelve children and eight grandchildren. Mrs. Bridgeman and Mrs. Rutledge are sisters.

Gordon McQuaw, U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McQuaw, recently sent word to his parents about the long sea-voyage he has just completed. Now back in Hawaii, Gordon reported his ship traveled 14,456 miles over the South Pacific at 10 miles an hour. The ship stopped at 30 islands.

Six thousand Parisian copyists delayed the setting up of the printing press in Paris for fully 29 years after the invention of printing.

Aims Church Has Board Elections

AIMS-BULL RUN — An election was held last Tuesday, February 12, at Aims, during Adult Bible study, to decide about a new church board amendment to the church constitution. The motion passed unanimously on a ballot vote. The amendment calls for a board consisting of the Suncay School superintendent, one member of the Sunday School board and two lay members, with the pastor as advisor or inactive member. The two lay members will be elected at the pot-luck dinner on March 1.

The children in the beginners and the primary class of Aims Suncay School showed the collective Sunday School what they have been learning during a special program last Sunday. Teachers Mrs. Dunlap (1-4) and Mrs. Bowman (4-6) led the children in songs, poems and memory verses.

The Adult Bible study was held at the pastor's home Tuesday while the Real Life group studied at the Miller home. The group welcomed Mr. Miller, who is recovering from an illness.

Thursday of this week, the Lord's Helpers meet at 10 a.m. at the church with Mrs. Granberg and Mrs. Bowman as hostesses.

Friday will be the Children's Bible Club meeting at Aims if both the Corbett and Bull Run schools remain open on Washington's birthday.

The boys and girls of the two 4-H groups, the Forestry under Jack Nichols and the sewing with Mrs. Beebler, reported an enjoyable time at the skating rink last Friday.

The spring weather has started clean-up work around Aims with last fall's debris and the aftermath of winter's storms being disposed of.

BULL RUN — The Bull Run Needlepoint and the Bull Run Knotheads held their first skating party on Friday, February 15, in Gresham.

Members of the 4-H Clubs expressed their thanks to their parents for their cooperation in the transportation of the two groups.

Firwood Unit Has Seafood Meal

The Firwood Extension Unit met February 12 at the church annex at 10:30 a.m. Seafood in Meals was the lesson and dinner at noon was enjoyed by members present. Mrs. Lewis Hall and Mrs. R. S. Hall were demonstrators.

Thirty-four attended, with five guests: Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Richard Kuehn, Mrs. Ed Bruns, Mrs. Frank Belangy and Mrs. Elmer Belangy. Hostesses were Mrs. Alvy Klinski, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Sue Hewitt, and Mrs. Hazel Peterson.

Cake demonstration was by Mrs. Milton Leech and Mrs. Alvy Lamb, who showed a Washington's birthday cake and a bunny rabbit cake.

Program planning for next year was discussed under leaders Mrs. William Weicman and Mrs. Lewis Hall. There was a talk by Mrs. Gustave Heibert on health and safety and on Civil Defense. Mrs. Rutledge, baby sitter, was home sick with the flu.

Sandy Chapel Reports Work

The Young Life Fellowship, of the Sandy Baptist Chapel, meeting each Sunday evening, are studying a booklet titled, "This I Believe." The young people have divided into several teams with a captain for each group, responsible for at least one program each month. The young people's group also prepares programs of musical numbers preceding their New Testament study.

The Sunday School of the chapel is currently conducting an "Atom Submarine Race to New Guinea" contest with the "Simoneite" and the "Barnabite" captained by Charles Farr and Dick Lunceen. Each sub is racing to place a missionary in New Guinea and, in the process, hopes to increase Sunday school attendance. Co-authors of the plan are two ex-sailors, superintendent Art Skogan and his assistant, Dick Lundeen.

Reverend Roy Graham, pastor of the chapel, is illustrating his current series of sermons on the Old Testament Tabernacle with filmstrips.

ANNOUNCEMENT

KELLER REALTY TWO LOCATIONS

SOLD TO SNYDER BROS. REALTY

OUR THANKS:

It is with mixed feelings that we announce that we have sold our business in Sandy and are leaving very soon for Arizona.

We say mixed feelings because we are leaving many dear friends and faithful patrons. However, we are leaving our business in good hands—Snyder Bros. Realty. It is a firm of unquestioned ethics and aggressive, fair business practices. Harvey and Leonard Snyder will prove an asset to the growing Mt. Hood area and Sandy.

It is our wish that the same fine cooperation and friendly interest you have shown us will be given them.

And to that we can add just one more word... our thanks and gratitude for the warm neighborliness of our people in Sandy.

Glenn & Mary Lou Keller

DEAR FRIEND:

You may have heard by now that Glenn and Mary Lou Keller have sold their Real Estate business and are moving to Arizona, they are making this move for health reasons.

Harvey L. Snyder and Leonard A. Snyder owners of Snyder Bros. Realty at 16 N.E. Roberts Avenue in Gresham for the past several years have purchased the Keller Realty and will maintain the Sandy location as a branch office. John Schmalz, a very fine gentleman who has been connected with the Keller's will stay on with us. Leonard Snyder will be in charge of the Sandy office, we will add to the staff as the need arises.

Harvey Snyder will be in charge in the Gresham office, with him are 3 fine experienced salesmen, namely, Milton Erickson, Dean Lunstrom and Paul Pfeifer.

All of us connected with Snyder Bros. Realty are familiar with Sandy and the surrounding area as well as Gresham where we have been very successful. We believe that with the two locations we will be in a position to give good service in both areas. You no doubt will be interested in knowing that the salesmen in the Gresham office will know of the properties listed at the Sandy office, and visa versa. This should prove very satisfactory to all concerned.

Our first concern is to know you and your property. Mr. and Mrs. Keller have given us a list of all property they have listed for sale and Mr. Keller has been driving us around the area pointing out the various property, this way we will soon be familiar with all of the property that is for sale and even though we may not have seen you in person we will know a good deal about your property. Allow us to take this opportunity to cordially invite you to visit us at the office at anytime. We will contact all owners of property now listed as soon as possible as well as others who have real estate problems.

In addition to property sales we specialize in selling good contracts and mortgages, quite often we can be helpful in securing financing on property as first mortgage.

Thank you for your time, we will look forward to meeting you.
