

Ziemer Son Hits Top Honor List

GREENVILLE, S.C. — Six students from Oregon have been named on the Bob Jones University Dean's List of the 3,000 students attending for the first semester of the 1956-57 school year. This official list is composed of students who made "A" or "B" averages during the semester.

Among the six honor students were Richard Carl Ziemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ziemer, of Route 2 Sandy, who is a freshman in the School of Religion at the university.

GIWANIS RACE 1 col 18 ROP
The annual "Bean or Steak" attendance contest of the Sandy Kiwanis club was still tied Thursday, February 14, with 30 for Frederickson's Fireballs and 30 for Lamke's Legumes, with 7 weeks to go in the race. One of the two teams will host the winner to a steak dinner on Thursday, April 11.

Reports were due at the February 21 meeting of Kiwanis on the annual Kiwanis Auction which is scheduled for some time in May. Proceeds from the auction go to the underprivileged children's fund.

Bill Elliott, Gresham tenor, was featured on the Thursday night program with arrangements made by Claude Dove, chairman. Thursday was also Ladies' Night and attendance prizes were in charge of Bill Stover and Clyde Sutherland.

Farm Union Holds Monthly Meeting

COTTRELL — The Kelso Local Farmers Union had its regular meeting on the second Thursday of the month, the evening of February 14, at the home of Vance Hewitt with a pot-luck supper. Twenty-five members and three visitors were present. The next meeting is scheduled for the home of Frank Vorhees.

J. M. Bettis of Bluff road is in a Portland hospital recovering from complications following a very severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo paid a visit this week to Emanuel hospital where their niece, Mrs. Zelca Hix, has undergone surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Forest are entertaining friends from the western part of Texas.

Edwin Woody, A 2/c, is now on his way from New Hampshire to England. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody of Radford road.

David Warner, who is in the army, has been transferred to Georgia. He will take military police training.

First Year Brings Party

OREGON CITY — Little Carol Kay Servas was guest of honor on her first birthday at a party held in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Servas, Oregon City, last Wednesday. Decorations were in keeping with Valentine's Day. Ken Servas, basketball coach and instructor at Sandy high school, took colored pictures of his daughter enjoying her birthday cake. He also showed slides taken when he and his wife, Kay, visited her parents, the John Shermans in Ketchikan, Alaska, last summer.

Other guests at the dinner were the Melvin Johnstons of Oregon City.

LWML Mulls Anniversary

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League met Monday evening with Mrs. Louis Dubarko and Mrs. Herbert Huck as hostesses. Twenty-two members were present.

The members are making baby clothes to be sent overseas to mission projects and miscellaneous articles to be sent to the Thrift Store in Terra Bella, California, sponsored by the Good Shepherd Home for the mentally retarded.

The anniversary committee reported that plans are being made for the 50th anniversary of Immanuel Lutheran church in November. Committee members are Mrs. Henry Schwartz, Mrs. Ronald Krebs, Mrs. Kenneth Flath and Mrs. Carl Krieger.

Grange Fetes Birthdays

BRIGHTWOOD — The Mt. Grange went on record opposing the compulsory closing of all banks all day Saturday, a measure proposed at the current session of the Oregon state legislature. The Grange Legislative committee also made a report on the Huber Act.

Carl Neels was given the 3rd and 4th degree obligation by Grange Master Selma Wilson.

Preceding the business meeting the Mt. Grange held its annual pot-luck dinner Saturday, February 9, with covers laid for 20 and Susie McDonald and Agnes Stickney acting as hostesses. Mrs. Andrew McDonald made a large Valentine birthday cake for all the members who had birthdays during the first quarter. The cake was served with coffee following the business meeting.

It was announced that the Mt. Grange will visit the Damascus Grange at Boring on Saturday, March 2, when a regular business session will be conducted. Damascus will provide the Lecturer's program.

Details were promised for the near future on the Easter Bake Sale to be sponsored by Mt. Grange on the Saturday before Easter.

Program Set By Assembly

Sunday, February 24, has been set aside as National Women's Missionary Council day and will be observed at the Sandy Assembly of God church with a special program in charge of the church women. Mrs. W. E. Foster, president of the organization, will preside as chairman.

The reader for the evening will be Mrs. Florence Radford, who is vice-president. Mrs. Martin Osterback, secretary-treasurer, will be at the piano. She will also give a financial report for the past year.

The speakers for the evening will be Mrs. Ward Woods, who is returning soon to Africa with her family for their second term as missionaries, and Mrs. Melvin Grams, wife of the local pastor.

There will be a display of the women's handiwork. The public has been invited to attend the special service.

SVFD CLAIMS CIRCUS NET TOPS PLANS

Delighted members of the Sandy Volunteer Fire Department and the women's Auxiliary figured Thursday that proceeds from their two-night "Laff-O-Rama" circus had netted enough money to finish paying for the Sandy ambulance, bought and maintained by the department. With only incomplete returns calculated, a SVFD spokesman believed about $600 had been earned.

Laff-O-Rama played to capacity crowds at the Sandy High School auditorium Wednesday and Thursday nights last week with a cast of 152 recruited from local talent from Kelso up the mountain to Welches. Duane Knapp acted as ringmaster using narration and tremendous vocal power to keep the acts moving smoothly.

Before the first act in Thursday night's show, the anxiously awaited results of the Tiny Tot popularity contest were announced with little Linca Kreiger and Douglas Eliason crowned as king and queen of Toyland. Named as prince and princess were Lesley Schmitz and Jesse Wilson while Debra Gunderson and Jeffrey Schneider were crowned cutesh and duke. Loving cups presented to each member of the reigning royalty were donated by Bob Grockett Jewelry.

Among the most outstanding acts presented were the clowns, from the Mt. Hood Lions Club; a thrilling tumbling act put on by Sandy High School students under the direction of George Potter, instructor; lively square dancing by the Mt. Hood Hoppers; and the magnificent performance by the Sandy High School band which played "When The Saints Go Marching In" in marching formation complete with three twirlers.

Snyder Bros. To Open Office Here

Snyder Bros. Realty of Gresham Wednesday announced the purchase of Keller Realty in Sandy, with plans for operating a branch office in Sandy.

Brothers Harvey L. and Leonard A. Snyder detailed plans for operation and staffing of their two offices. Leonard Snyder will be in charge of the Sandy branch, with John Schmalz, previously associated with the Kellers at Sandy, continuing on the staff. Harvey Snyder will be in charge of the Gresham office, with Milton Erickson, Dean Lundstrom and Paul Pfeifer as salesmen.

The Sandy agency was sold by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Keller who plan to move to Arizona.
