

County PTA Council Meets

The Clackamas County PTA Council Board of Managers held the first meeting of the new season 10-12 a.m., August 21, at the Gladstone Community House on Exeter Street in Gladstone.

The main business on the agenda was the planning of the School of Instruction to be held Wednesday, September 11, at the Thora B. Gardiner Junior High School, Ethel and Leonard Sts. in Oregon City and the compiling of the County Council Directory for 1957-58.

The School of Instruction is designed as a special workshop for all elected PTA officers and appointed PTA chairmen of all Clackamas County schools. Following registration at 9:30 a.m. and preceding the workshops, Mrs. Russell Case, president of the Oregon State Congress of Parents and Teachers, will give an inspirational talk on PTA activities for the coming year.

The two workshop sessions scheduled at 10:40 and 11:35 a.m. and 11:40 and 12:45 respectively will be presided over by the elected officers with the resource material being given by the chairmen of the various activities. The group divisions will be as follows: 1. president, vice-president, secretary; 2. treasurer, budget, ways and means, tuition scholarship; 3. program, music, founder's day; 4. high school and junior high school service; 5. hospitality, room representative, membership and registration; 6. youth, recreation; 7. publicity, publications, library; 8. parent and spiritual education, juvenile protection; 9. health, safety, civil defense; 10. legislation, citizenship, school education. In the youth and recreation group various leaders of youth groups will be asked to provide resource material.

There will be a coffee-break at 10:15-10:30 a.m. Lunch will be served in the school cafeteria at 1 p.m. Nursery service will be available for young children.

Elected officers for the County PTA Council are Mrs. Orville Adams, president; Mrs. Ted Huff, junior past president; Mrs. Walter Steiner, Mrs. R. W. Sutton, Mrs. J. D. Lehan, junior vice-presidents; Mrs. Emery Games were played and prize winners were Mrs. Grace Snyder, Miss Barbara Rose and LaVonne Haggarty. A poem was read by Mrs. A. D. Benshoof and devotions were led by Mrs. Grace Snyder.

The gifts of baby articles were opened after which cake and punch and coffee were served. Other ladies present were Mrs. Irene Grover and Elizabeth, Mrs. Errett Moore, Mrs. C. E. Lindsey, Mrs. Helen Fritsche, Mrs. Mildred Minyard, Mrs. Irene Minyard and Sandra, Sharon Moffett, Mrs. Minnie Stotts, Sheila Moffett and Beth Snyder.

Rest Booth Well Used

The rest booth at the Clackamas county fair sponsored by the Odd Fellows was well received by the public. The chairs were made possible by the Burgess Furniture and Appliance of Canby.

The booth under the sponsorship of the Mt. Hood Encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Oregon was provided by the generous donations of seven Odd Fellows and seven Rebekah Lodges of Clackamas county and the Gresham Odd Fellows of Multnomah county. Also aiding were the Oregon City and Canby encampments.

Lodges sending plaques were Gresham, Estacada, Shamrock Rebekahs and the Sandy Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges. Sandy's plaque was painted by the young local artist, Linda Shearman.

Rebekahs Go

Several members of the Sandy Rebekah lodge visited the Molalla lodge on the evening of August 20.

Visiting were Vice-grand Dorothy Gray, Sadie Bosholtz, Bina Bell, Manda Colson, Audrey Colson and Grace Lamb. Also at the Molalla lodge was the President of the Rebekah Assembly.

Social Activities Many At Bull Run

The Labor Day holiday has already started to usher in the fall season in the Aims-Bull Run area. School is due to start Tuesday and the social events include the Aims Community Club pot luck luncheon on Wednesday, September 4; the P.T.A. at Bull Run on Thursday evening, September 5 and the American Legion Auxiliary at Corbett on the same evening. Most of the organizations have been on a summer vacation.

The Aims Community church had a piano solo by Carolyn Baker last Sunday morning. There were no evening services except a sing-along to conclude the picnic at Roslyn Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunlop have his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Bigler of New Middletown, Ohio, as house guests.

Christening Attended

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Duncan, of Rhododendron attended the christening of their great-grandson, on Sunday, August 25 at the First Congregational Church in Portland.

Little Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aldred Ruedy and grandson of Dr. and Mrs. Veryl Ruedy. The Ruedys entertained the guests after the ceremony at their home on Oswego Lake.

Country Sale Set By GOP

An old-fashioned country sale is to be given by a group of Clackamas County Republican clubs Saturday, Saturday, September 21 at the Country Square Second and B streets, Oswego from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Don Quesinberry, newly elected central committee chairman will co-ordinate and GOP's from Oregon City, Canby, Sandy, Molalla, Milwaukie and Oswego will man the booths.

Striped awnings and gay calico prints will be used to decorate the tables on the Square which is a shopping center. Home-made cakes and pies, jams and jellies, glorified "white elephants", antiques, and all kinds of Oregon products like boxes of apples, new-laid eggs, and honey in the comb will be on sale.

Door prizes will be many and varied and will include, besides Oregon products, a beautiful etching of the White House, sent for the Fair by Mrs. Eisenhower, and a handsome carved box sent by Mrs. Richard Nixon. Drawing for the prizes will be at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. George P. Gillette of Lake Grove is general chairman of the affair.
