any merit of our own, but because of our faith in the perfect obedience of Christ and His sacrificial death.

Forgiveness, grace and salvation are received thru a direct relationship with God without the mediation ministers or priests. Presbyterians believe that there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the God in man, Jesus Christ.

Make Dolls out of your Clothespins

and WIN a new ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER

5 FREE

ELECTRIC DRYERS WILL BE GIVEN AWAY contest closes November 30, 1957

HERE'S ALL YOU DO

Take a wooden clothespin (either type) and decorate it any way you like. You can use paint, paper, cloth, metal, string—just anything you desire to make a cute doll. You can enter as many as you want. Be sure to attach a tag to each one with your name, address and phone number on it. Then either bring it in, or mail it, to your nearest PGE office. Prizes will be awarded December 10th. Entries will only be accepted from people living in the PGE service area. All dolls become the property of Portland General Electric Company and will be donated to Children's homes and hospitals.

After all, what else clothespins good for? The modern homemaker has an automatic electric clothes dryer to make wash-days easier. She just pops the clothes out of the washer into the dryer . . . sets the dial . . . and a few minutes later clothes emerge dry and fluffy ready to iron or fold and put away. There's no backbreaking tugging of clothesbaskets loaded with wet, heavy garments . . . no tramping out in the rain to take down a wash . . . no fading of clothes in the hot sun. You save hours of work and worry. save money week after week THE ELECTRIC DRYER WAY. So have a "Clothespin Doll" party for the women in the neighborhood, your bridge club, or for the kids—they're loads of fun and you might win a brand new clothes dryer.
