ronto, Canada last summer after his graduation from Oxford University. He has been working at various jobs since then. After a swing around the U. S. he expects to return to England. Later he may settle in Canada.

In Oxford his major was History and he was very much interested in learning about Oregon's pioneer days. He was much impressed by our super-markets. In England they have small shops.

Commenting on "Little Rock":

"The whole world has been looking to the States for hope, and leadership and when something like Little Rock happens, we wonder whether we are following the wrong star. The question is, Shall we go west or east? Without a doubt it was a very severe blow to the prestige of the United States. It will take a long time to undo that damage and a lot of doing."

The English people think it very possible that Russia may again let loose the "dogs of war".

Dale TenEyck of the Air Force is now stationed at Warren Air Base, just out of Cheyenne, Wyoming. He is attending automotive school and finds it very interesting. He is extremely faithful about writing home so his parents know just what he is doing. He thinks he is having a wonderful experience and is learning a great deal.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth and daughters, Marcens, Marilyn and Alice Ellen of Logan were Sunday guests of the George TenEycks.

A tragedy hit our neighborhood Monday, January 13. Our neighbors the Chavas' house burned to the ground and everything in it. They certainly have the sympathy of all their neighbors. None of the family were at home when it happened. Old timers will remember the place as the "Danielson place".
