

SANDY PARTY LINE

David Bell, Sandy Ridge, who has been in Emanuel hospital the past few days is reported much improved.

Mrs. Jack Hansen, is reported recovering from her recent illness at the Wildwood Rest home, Gresham and able to have visitors.

Wayne Scott, Sandy, was able to return to his work at Richardson Chevrolet following an attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bodley were called to Albany the last of December because of the illness and death of Mrs. Bodley's sister, Mrs. Ira Bates. They attended funeral services there on January 3.

Visitors at the Ivan Barker home recently were their nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker and sons Craig and Bill of Eugene. They had driven to Sandy to see Grandma Barker. Also guests at the Barker home were Mr. Loy Barker and his son Jerry of Klamath Falls. After several days visit, Jerry had to return to his studies at the University of Washington.

Gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wink Chilton for a chili feed were the John Mettsers and Mr. and Mrs. John Rowell. The three couples then attended the Mariners skating party.

Another get-together before the Mariners party was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Burg. Their dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lindsey and family.

Brief visitors in Sandy on Brief visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Babcock and three girls of Hood River. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frasier and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Mettsger and family.

A weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Reckman recently was their nephew Jim Hartley of Portland.

Recent dinner guests at the Leo Anderson home were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reich and family.

Reverend and Mrs. Donald Livesay and family were dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Chilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, former Sandy residents who were injured when a Greyhound bus toppled over near Albany two weeks ago, have been removed from the Albany hospital to the Portland General hospital, according to word received here by friends. Both were more seriously injured than was first suspected but are now showing satisfactory improvement.

ment.

The Ladies Missionary Circle of the Sandy Baptist Chapel elected officers Thursday at the home of Mrs. Norma elected president. Vice-president is Mrs. Sylvia Fussell, secretary is Mrs. Pauline Moore and Mrs. Gladys Benshoof was named treasurer. In the afternoon, the pastor, Mr. Ray Stonehocker, spoke to the ladies concerning the part of their organization in the over all work of the church. The threefold purpose of the Missionary Circle in practical Christianity was outlined as found in John 12:1-3. The next meeting was decided upon for January 23 at the home of Mrs. Stanley Davis.

Sunday evening, January 19 at 7:45 in the regular evening service at the Sandy Baptist Chapel, Demcy Myler will present the staff of the new Christian Radio station which operates from Forest Grove. The call letters are KRWC and is found on the dial at 1570. Reverend Myler will bring the message and he and Mrs. Myler will sing. The services are open to the public and anyone wishing to attend is welcome.

Wednesday, January 8 a carload of ladies attended a workshop in Portland for the Child for Christ Crusade at the Evangel Baptist church. Dr. Wilder spoke and several practical helps were demonstrated. Those attending from Sandy were Mrs. Margaret Silver, Gladys Benshoff, Grace Snyder, Pauline Moore, Norma Syblon, Jeanette Sandercock and Reverend Ray Stonehocker.

Mrs. Lydia Markwart recently visited relatives and friends in Dalles where her nephew built a new home on the site where Mrs. Markwart lived as a girl and a reception was held for the young couple. Many of the guests were old friends of Mrs. Markwart.

Clarence Bennett is at home convalescing from a recent operation and is reportedly doing fine.

Sunday, January 12, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sandercock, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sandercock of Sandy and Mrs. D. W. Sandercock of Portland visited in Hood River with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Sandercock. Harold Sandercock was also there. Three family birthdays were celebrated.

Guests from Longmont, Colorado last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Befus were his parents and brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Befus and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Befus and children Donna and Jerry.

Attending the Assembly of God Fellowship meeting at McMinnville Monday evening, January 13 were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stokes, Reverend and Mrs. Melvin Grams and Clifford Wishon. Officers were elected for the year and Reverend Grams was elected CA youth representative for this area.

Mrs. W. W. Howard taught as substitute for Mrs. Brooke at the grade school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver, son Larry and daughter, Debby of Gresham were Sunday visitors at the W. W. Howard home.

Weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Hazel Murray were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lazinka of Pendleton.

A recent gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Rhode featured a lutefisk and leftse dinner. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson, Mrs. Kate Dye, aunt of Mr. Rhode and her daughter Bunny, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dye, cousins of Mr. Rhode and their three children, all of Portland.

CP

CLASSIFIEDS PAY YOU

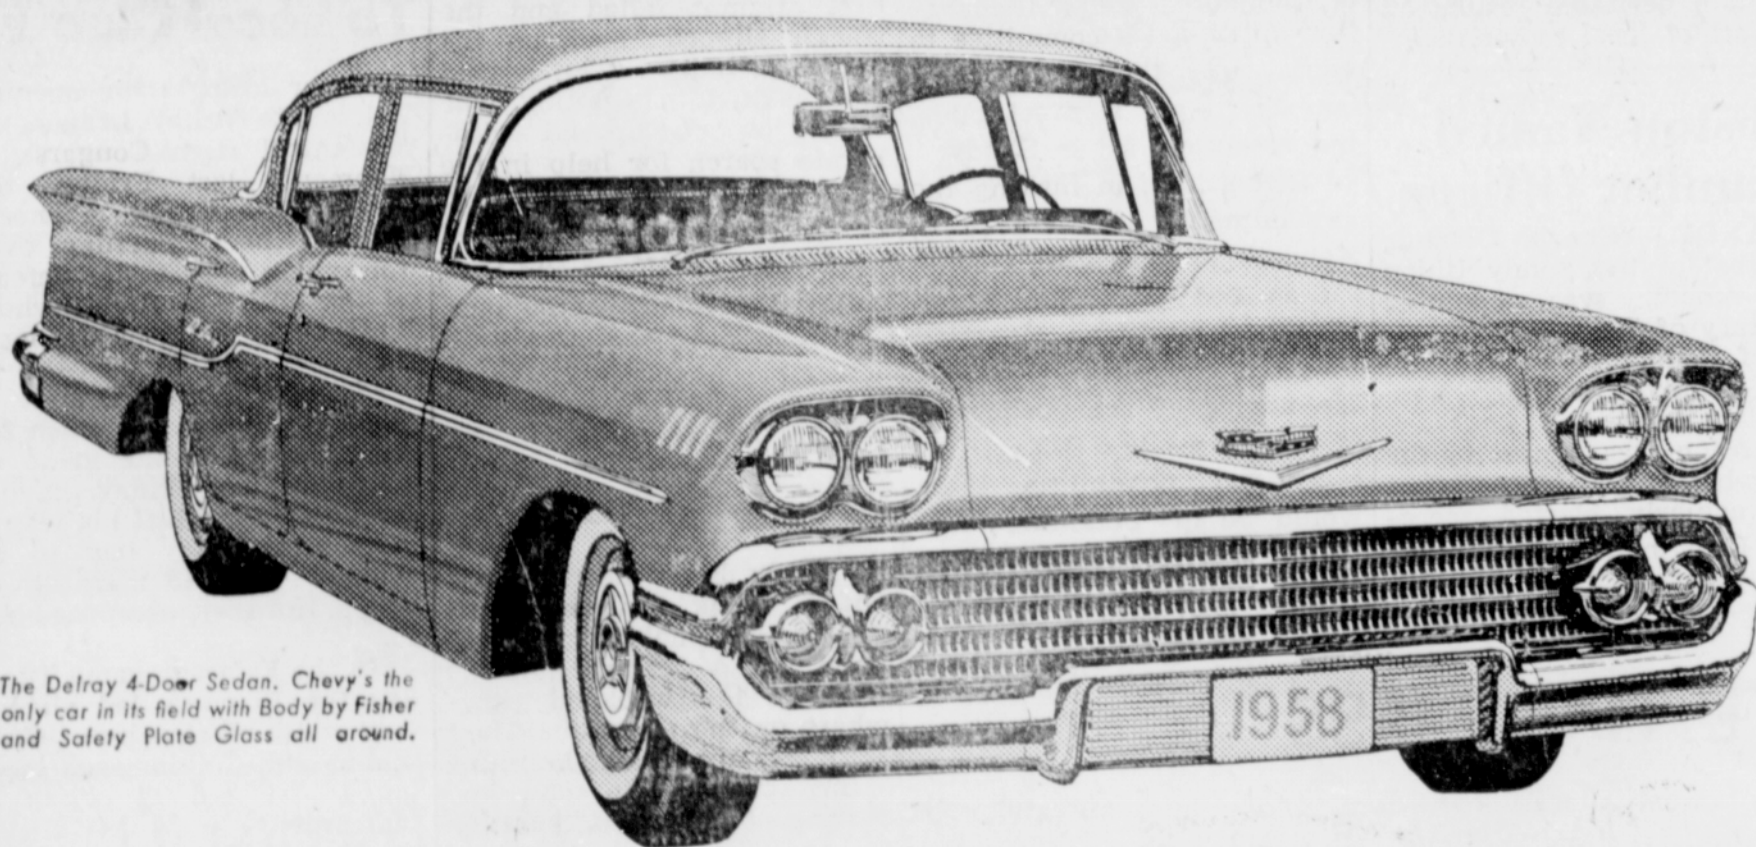

"For the most part, cute dishes are seldom seen in the kitchen!"

FRED SMART

Brickwork Fireplaces Plaster

Rt. 2, Box 394 Sandy

NOTHING ELSE NEAR THE PRICE HAS WHAT'S IN THIS PACKAGE!

The Delray 4-Door Sedan. Chevy's the only car in its field with Body by Fisher and Safety Plate Glass all around.

It's one of Chevrolet's dollar-stretching Delrays!

The handsome Delrays are the lowest priced of all the low-priced Chevrolets. And they're full-size Chevrolets—wider, lower and nine lively inches longer. In size, in style, in fine details and construction, no other car priced so low gives you so much!

When you're thinking about buying a car because of its extra-low price, there are two things it pays to watch for. First, be sure you get full measure when it comes to size. Don't settle for a cut-down bargain model. Second, be sure you get all the equipment and conveniences that you'd normally expect to be standard in a car. Chevrolet's Delray models are the lowest priced in the line. But they're full-size Chevrolets—and they're equipped to do you proud. Nothing else near the price has what's in this package. See and drive this big beauty soon at your Chevrolet dealer's!

Only franchised Chevrolet dealers display this famous trademark

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for quick appraisal—prompt delivery!

