

Ladies Aid To Make Scrapbooks

Wednesday, January 23 Mrs. Ivan Barker was hostess for the meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Community Presbyterian church with 24 members present. A dessert luncheon of upsidedown cake and ice cream and coffee was served at 1 PM with the business meeting following.

Mrs. Bina Bell, new club president, presided at her first meeting. Roll call was answered with a Bible verse starting with the letter B. Edna Hall led the devotionals.

Committees appointed for the year included the following: Martha Williams, devotionals; Edna Hall, Ways and Means with Pansy Inman, Sue Hewitt, Eula Belangy and Sarah Illge serving with her; Arleigh Hall, aprons; Esther Bunnell and Verona Schneider, pillow cases; Arleigh Hall, welfare and Sarah Illge, press.

During the business session the group decided on a project of making scrapbooks for shut-in children.

The next meeting will be held at the church annex with Martha Williams and Verona Schneider as hostesses.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's in the Bag

Out-of-towners must have wondered what was going on last Tuesday. Every parking meter was covered by a paper bag lettered "Free Parking."

Tuesday was officially designated "Free Parking Day" by the Town Council as a reward for going a year without a traffic accident.

"Traffic safety, like virtue, is its own reward," said Judge Cunningham as he proposed the motion. "But let's show our drivers we're proud of 'em!"

From where I sit, a little praise never hurts—in fact, that's why I talk in this column about the nice, fair-minded people I meet. Folks who live—and let live . . . who don't care whether you like beer or buttermilk at dinnertime. I say real neighbors never try to "park" their ideas on others!
