MT. HOOD . . .

Mrs. Pat Rogan, local Red Cross representative, has made plans for the Bloodmobile to visit the mountain area May 6. It will be stationed at Welches school. Welches PTA will sponsor the Bloodmobile this year.

Mt. Hood Lion's Club members entertained their wives at dinner at Zig Zag Inn on Wednesday, February 12. At that time they had as guest speaker a representative of the Tuberculosis Association. The Lions Club, following the club policy of serving the community, will sponsor the X-ray unit on the mountain February 20 between 11 AM and 4 PM at Welches school. It has been several years since the TB X-ray unit has visited the mountain. Everyone is urged to make a special effort to drop in while it is in our community.

Tuesday evening a group from the mountain attended an Inter-Club dinner of the Lions Auxiliary organization at the Mayfair House at 82nd and Division street in Portland. There were 76 ladies present at the dinner. Representatives from this area were Harriet Day, Margo Fox, Helen Cook, Jessie Chaney, and Luradel Callaghan.

In honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry a lovely reception was held by friends and associates at the Chapel of the Hills, Thursday evening, February 6.

At a beautifully set table Mrs. Volbrecht and Mrs. Ardis Green poured and Mrs. Albert Closner cut the decorated cake. Miss Leopold served the punch. Mrs. Irene Petrie was in charge of the guest book.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Perry were presented a silver tray by their friends.

Another wedding anniversary was commemorated when the Allan Olsons of Cherryville entertained the Frank Christensens of Brightwood at dinner on the occasion of the Christensens' 23rd wedding anniversary.

The young people at Sandy High school hurried home last Friday afternoon to see their friends Jack Skipper and Jan Clum dance in the contest on High Time, station KPTV, channel 12 and were thrilled to see the young couple win the week's contest over the other four winning couples.

For winning, Jack and Jan received radios, Jan a wristwatch, Jack a wallet and many other nice things. Their picture will also appear in TV Preview magazine. At an assembly during the week Jack and Jan were called upon to demonstrate their dancing skill.

Many residents of the area were thrilled to see the seldom seen Aurora Borealis or Northern lights display Monday evening. The whole sky to the north was a vivid fiery red.

Drillers moved in Monday morning to start drilling a new well to supply the club house at the Mt. Hood Golf Club.

Mary Jean Purdy, daughter of the Loren Purdys of Hilltop celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party at her home on Wednesday, February 12.

Two additional den mothers have volunteered to help with the mountain Cub Scout troop in addition to the present leaders Mrs. Muldoon and Mrs. Carter. The new den mothers are Mrs. John Lake of Rhododendron and Mrs. Brazee of Zig Zag.

The two mountain Brownie troops combined forces recently for a trip two miles up Truman Road to observe the beavers at work and to see their houses and a beaver dam. The site of the beaver colony is near the Currier's new home.

Friends are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Gladys Ferguson who is in Providence hospital. Mrs. Ferguson makes her home with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Buck. Mrs. Buck is neighborhood chairman for the girl scouts.
