

OES Plans For District Meet

The regular meeting of Mt. View Chapter, OES was held Tuesday evening at the Sandy Masonic hall with the worthy patron and worthy matron, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Richey presiding.

During the business session plans were discussed for the coming district meeting with Mountain Chapter, Estacada, to be held this year at Estacada on March 18. A practice for officers will be held the Sunday, preceding the meeting, March 16 at the Estacada hall. Reservations for the dinner preceding the district meeting must be made in advance. At the next regular meeting of the chapter here officers will participate in degree work and balloting as practice for the district meeting.

Refreshments of apple pie with ice cream and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. John Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peterson. Tables were decorated in the Valentine motif with bouquets of violets and anemones adding a touch of spring to the decor.

POST CLASSIFIED PAGES
BARCAIN FESTIVAL

Engagement Told

SANDY— Mr. and Mrs. J. Dwight Wilkinson, Route 1, Boring, announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha to Thomas C. Hornback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Hornback, Route 1, Boring. He is stationed at the naval base in Alameda, California. Miss Wilkinson is a senior at Sandy high school. No definite wedding date has been set.

SCRATCHPADS FOR SALE
AT
THE SANDY POST

Firesiders Hear Lecture Series

In place of their regular meeting, the Firesiders attended a lecture at Smith's Memorial Presbyterian church in Fairview last Tuesday night.

Dr. Leonard Odiorne was the speaker for this lecture, one of a series being presented this week.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wink Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allen, Reverend and Mrs. Don Livesay, Mrs. David Bell and Mrs. Luke Oldenkamp.

Chinese Cookery Demonstrated

A complete Chinese meal was served to the 33 members and guests of the Firwood Unit when "Chinese Cookery" was demonstrated at their meeting Tuesday February 11 at the annex of the Community-Presbyterian Church.

The menu consisting of egg flower soup, fried rice, sweet and sour ribs, egg foo young, chow mein, lotus blossom salad, Singapore slaw, panned broccoli, almond cakes and jasmine tea, and served with chopsticks, was prepared by the project leaders Mrs. Irene Armstrong and Mrs. Delight Blake assisted by hostesses Mrs. Arleigh Hall, Mrs. Katie Leech, Mrs. Lee Wesselink and Mrs. Pat Reckman. Samples of fortune cookies, Chinese candy, candied ginger and leechy nuts were later passed around to the ladies.

A plant and white elephant sale was held which netted over $20.00 - for the club's treasury.

Next month's demonstration will be on "Care of the Skin".

BUSY MANEUVER MAN—Master Sergeant Thomas F. Brett of Philadelphia, operations sergeant for a rifle battalion of the Fourth Armored Division at Fort Hood, Tex., doesn't get much sleep during combat exercises as he communicates with all units and maps the ever-changing tactical situation.

Valentine Party Calls Mariners

SANDY — A Valentine party was enjoyed by the Mariners at their meeting last Saturday night February 8 at the annex of the Community-Presbyterian church.

The twelve couples present enjoyed relays and other games with the holiday theme. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cummings were in charge of the entertainment for the evening.

The annex was gaily decorated with red streamers, cupids, and hearts. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served following the business meeting.

It was announced that next month's meeting would feature a progressive dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hames will be in charge.

Vocal Training Studio To Open

SANDY — A new vocal training studio is being opened to Sandy and the surrounding area to encourage people of all ages to revalue the art and joy of singing.

Teak Bell and Kay Oldenkamp are combining their musical abilities to promote a deeper appreciation of music in our town.

Engagement Told

SANDY — Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sheerman of Sandy, announce the engagement of their daughter Jean to PFC John E. Wallis, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallis of Boring.

Both are graduates of Sandy high school, class of 1956. Miss Sheerman is employed by United Grocers at Milwaukie. Wallis has been stationed at Ft. Lewis for several months but is leaving soon for overseas duty.

No date has been set for the wedding.

BARCAIN FESTIVAL
POST CLASSIFIED PAGES

BPW Features 'Bosses Night'

Twenty-two members and guests were in attendance when the Sandy Business and Professional Women's Club met for dinner at Schmitz's Cafe in Sandy Wednesday night, February 5. It was "bosses night" with the ladies entertaining their employers.

During the meeting both Ralph Richardson, representing the Chamber of Commerce and Ivan Barker, from the Kiwanis, spoke. Judge Howeler discussed the Telephone Service Improvement Committee plans.

The next regular business meeting will be held February 19 at the home of Jessie Gunderson.

Daughter To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Fay C. Mehlbrech of 585 Harvard Avenue, Gladstone, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Faye to Herbert F. Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayden of Estacada.

A May wedding is planned.

Square Dancers To Hold Party

The Mt. Hood Hoppers Square Dance Club will hold a Valentine party this Saturday night February 15 at the Women's Club hall.

A class for beginners will start at 7:00 PM with the regular dance beginning at 8:00 PM. Bob Fosberg of Oregon City is the caller.

In addition to the dancing, games will be played and a cake walk will be held. The club will appreciate having cakes and pies donated to the cake walk. Those attending are also asked to bring cupcakes for the evening's refreshments.

THE SANDY POST
CLASSIFIEDS PAY YOU

Poor and content is rich and rich enough.

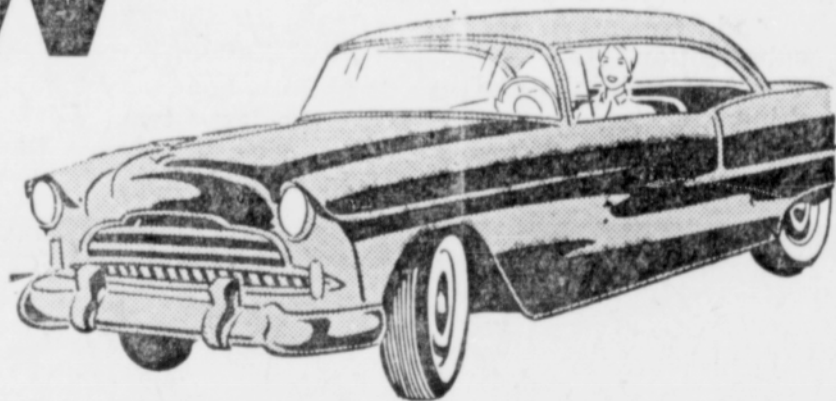

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

Carroll Funeral Home

Phone MOhawk 5-3794

Gresham, Oregon

NOW

Broader, Better Insurance Protection Than Ever Before

CHECK UP AND SEE: Call your local agent, SPIKE EMERSON. Let him show you how you can save with a complete OREGON BLANKET INSURANCE POLICY.

Walrad Insurance Agency

Phone MU 7-2861 Loop Hiway Sandy, Oregon