

SANDY PARTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and daughter Diane, Sandy Miss Maureen Byrd, Borwick, spent the weekend at Pendleton where they visited Williams' son, John D., his wife, and son Larry. They returned beautiful sunshine in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Metsger and family were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Belford Buck, near Gresham.

The Past Noble Grands club of the Sandy Rebekah lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. Art Colson on Monday evening, March 17.

Reverend and Mrs. Albert Carow and two children arrived in the United States in Japan March first. Reverend Carow was there for five years as a Lutheran missionary. Friday evening the Carows and Reuben Ulrichs were dinner guests at the Emil Reich home. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts of Portland served a buffet supper from their restaurant to 45 relatives honoring the Carows. This week the Carows left for Nebraska to visit Mrs. Carow's parents. They will visit in the middle west and Canada until they return here in September. At that time they will speak at many of the churches and groups in the Portland area. Next March they will return to Japan for four years.

The Young Life Fellowship of the Sandy Baptist Chapel along with other youth groups in the area attended a skating party on Tuesday at the Gresham rink.

Mrs. Norma Syblon, Sandy is visiting in Roundup, Montana for a few weeks with her mother Mrs. Mary Perkins who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ben-shoof, Sandy, were in Portland on Sunday afternoon to see his parents the A. S. Ben-shoofs.

John and Paul Moore were Sunday dinner guests of Jerry Hubbard.

A birthday dinner in honor of Wayne Owens was held Sunday at the Owens home with Mrs. Mildred Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allen attending.

Several members from the Sandy Assembly of God church attended the monthly fellowship meeting of this section at Estacada Monday evening.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Befus were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Befus and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hofferber, all of Denver, Colorado.

The monthly business meeting of the Ladies Mission Circle of the Sandy Baptist Chapel was held Thursday at the parsonage with Irene Stonehocker as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spray and daughter Lois of Portland were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Smoke of Sandy.

Aid Meeting Set Ahead

The March meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Sandy Community Presbyterian church has been changed from the regular meeting date to the third Wednesday, March 19. The change in dates was made to permit members to attend the annual Presbyterian meeting at the Moreland Presbyterian church in Portland on Wednesday, March 26, from 9:45 to 3 PM. Several of the local group plan to attend.

Mrs. Robert Bunnell and Mrs. Ed Bruns will be hostesses for the 1 PM dessert luncheon with the regular business meeting to follow. Aid members are asked to bring food to the March 19 meeting for the Westminster Fellowship retreat to be held at the coast.

Scouts Note Anniversary

Girl Scouts throughout the country will celebrate National Girl Scout Week March 9 to 15 as well as the 46th anniversary of Girl Scouting, on March 12.

Another event this week starting March 13 to 29 is the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale. The Brownies and Girl Scouts will conduct a house to house campaign offering a choice of two kinds of cookies, a vanilla cream filled cookie and the Dutch Dainties. Funds from the sale of cookies equip and maintain Girl Scout Camps.

At the neighborhood meeting held February 24, Frances Croston was elected cookie chairman for the Sandy and Welches neighborhood. Recruitment of new leaders was discussed.

Mrs. Art Colson Attends Meeting

Mrs. Art Colson was the only representative of Sandy Rebekah lodge present at the March first yearly meeting of District No. 2 in Oregon City. She gave the response to the address of welcome from Willamette lodge, hostess for the day.

Mrs. Mary Barker made her visit to the convention and gave an instructive talk.

Chairman for the convention was Mrs. Mary Wilson and vice-chairman was Mrs. Hazel Zimmerman.

New officers elected were Mrs. Hazel Zimmerman, Milwaukie, chairman; Mrs. Lydia Steininger, Molalla, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Art Colson of Sandy was appointed outside guardian.

Official guests for the day were Mrs. Mary Barker, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Edna Oster, vice-president of the assembly; Mrs. Ruth Vose, warden of the assembly and Mrs. Helen Wright, treasurer of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon.

One hundred and two Rebekahs attended the all-day session.

Rebekah Club Sets Card Party

A public card party, sponsored by the social club of Sandy Rebekah and Odd Fellows Lodges, will be held on Saturday evening, March 22 at the Sandy IOOF hall.

The event will start at 8 PM with the proceeds to go toward the expenses of the Clackamas County contestant to the United Nations this summer. The public is cordially invited.

The card party is under direction of Bina Bell and refreshments are being planned by Dorothy Gray and Audrey Colson.

P.T.A. To Name New Officers

Election of officers and a special musical program will highlight the Tuesday night, March 18 meeting of the Sandy Parent-Teachers Association which will begin at 8 PM. The meeting will be held in the grade school gymnasium this time only because of the anticipated numbers to attend.

Over 107 school students will participate in a spring music program under the direction of Mrs. Carol Dversdal. Accompanist will be Mrs. Everett Dryer.

Mothers of third grade students will serve refreshments in the cafeteria following the meeting.

The 7th and 8th grades would like to express their thanks to the bus drivers, Mr. Doty, an eighth grade teacher, and Mr. Ludi, who drove them to the skating rink in Gresham for their skating party last Friday March 7 for a very enjoyable evening.
