MT. HOOD . . .

Partly responsible for the most successful March of Dimes drive held in the upper mountain area is Mrs. Donnetta Clem, executive housekeeper at Timberline Lodge. Mrs. Clem, who has had experience within her own family with polio and its aftermath, waged a determined campaign that brought in a total donation of $75 from Timberline employees and Mr. Kohnstam.

Mt. Grange will meet this Saturday night, March 15, at 8 PM at the Grange hall.

This meeting is being held to try to institute a program to eliminate the "litterbug" in this wonderful recreation area. All organizations in the community and others interested in the project are invited to attend and help work this out.

The Grange members feel "the beauty of a community is the pride barometer of its people."

Barlow Trail Inn will be the scene of a dance Friday night, March 14, sponsored by the Mt. Hood Lion's Club. Funds raised by the dance will help to defray the expenses of the many projects of the club.

One of these projects is to supply glasses to children recommended to the club by the county health nurse and the school principal.

Another Lion's club sponsored project will be the visit of the Tuberculosis Association's X-Ray Unit on March 20 at Welches school. Lion's club members will transport anyone not able to get to Welches for their X-Ray.

Enjoying the lovely coastal weather the Frank Christiansons spent the weekend of the 2nd and 3rd at Seaside digging clams.
