

Mrs. Lyle Seaman left this week for Glendale, Arizona to attend funeral services for her daughter-in-law Lillian, wife of the Seamans youngest son Tommy. Death was reportedly from pneumonia. She leaves two small children.

The Gladstone Kiwanis Club hosted an inter-city club meeting April 24 at the West Linn Inn. Clubs represented included the host club Gladstone, Sandy, Estacada, Oregon City and Milwaukie. Mark Hatfield was speaker. The meeting was attended by 89 members and wives. From the Sandy club were the Ken Fredericksons, Pete Perrines, George Howellers, Harold Edes Bill Browns and the Percy Shelleys. Others were Don Livesay, Herb Peterson and Harry Wright.

Alan Searls has been in the Providence hospital following a back injury suffered while at work last week.

Alfred Meinig, who has been hospitalized since a heart attack a few weeks ago is reported to be improving slowly.

A Bible Study, sponsored by the Church of Christ, was held Tuesday afternoon at the Mira Hornecker home with fourteen ladies present. There were several ladies from the Portland, Troutdale and Gresham areas.

Mrs. Bill Perkins, wife of Bill Perkins of The Sandy Post suffered a stroke Friday evening and was taken to the Providence hospital by Sandy Volunteer ambulance. As of Wednesday she was showing much improvement and it was hoped she would be released soon.

Mrs. Mike Lamb entered Providence hospital last Sunday where she underwent major surgery Monday morning. She is reported doing fine and hopes to be home again real soon.

There will be a meeting of the Sandy Club of the Republican Women's Federation Monday afternoon May 5th at 1:15 at the home of Dr. Amanda Lowe on Hillcrest Road at the foot of Meinig Hill.

The Dorcas ladies will hold a food sale Tuesday, May, 6, at Art's Television Shop in Sandy. Also on sale will be several gift items especially suited for Mother's Day.

Judy Bakke, Cathy and Lela Williams were home for the weekend from Columbia Academy at Battleground, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stiles and family visited last week. They are former Sandy residents who have moved to College Place, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parker and family, Sandy, had an outing at Cannon Beach on Sunday.

Reverend Ray Whipps of the Bible Meditation league was a special speaker at the Sandy Baptist Chapel on Sunday evening April 27. He showed slides of their work in India.

On Sunday, April 20, Mr. and Mrs. Zeryl Silver and family visited in Eugene with Mrs. Silver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gump.

At their monthly night meeting Thursday, April 24, the Ladies Mission Circle of the Sandy Baptist Chapel had an installation service for this year's officers. Mrs. Ray Stonehocker was in charge of the service. Officers installed were Mrs. Norma Syblon, president; Mrs. Jeanette Sandercok, vice-president by proxy in absence of Mrs. Sylvia Fussell; Mrs. Pauline Moore, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Benshoof, treasurer and Mrs. Mildred Minyard as Bible teacher. Mrs. Maxine Moffett led devotions. The regular business was conducted and roll call taken by 12 ladies. Cookies and coffee were served in the Chapel kitchen.

The regular annual business meeting and election of officers will be held at the Sandy Baptist Chapel on Wednesday, May 14.

Paul Moore, who has been on the sick list this week, is now in Doernbecher hospital.

Miss Ailene Temple, a sophomore at Sandy High School, is now making her home with the Everett Dryer family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Rhode were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson in Portland on Sunday.

It is reported that little Diana Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buswell, has been brought home after a two week stay in Doernbecher Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Anderson and two children Kimberley and Garlan were dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Rhode on Monday evening. Both Mrs. Anderson and her father celebrated their birthdays on that day.

Attending the Home Show held in Portland recently were Mr. and Mrs. Wally Oberg and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Earley of Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dryer were guests at a surprise party honoring her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Messenger on their 50th wedding anniversary. It was held at the Messenger home in Portland.

The Willis Oldenkamp home was the scene of a birthday party honoring the twins Starla Raye and Keith Ray on their fifth birthday. Young guests were Lynn and Steve Bell, Becky Flath, Larry Kreiger and Jenny and Gary Livesay.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Croston on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Eggleston of St. Helens. Mr. Eggleston is superintendent of schools in St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Earley and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Oberg visited in Hillsboro with Rosalie and Bob Marsh, former Sandy residents recently.

Mrs. Frank Kertesz of Route 2, Sandy was taken by Sandy ambulance to the Portland Sanitarium where she underwent major surgery last week. Mr. Kertesz has been in Portland to be near his wife for the better part of each day since her hospitalization.

Mrs. Dick Arnett, Sandy, who was injured in an auto accident early in March and who only recently was released from the hospital, reports she hopes to have the cast removed from her leg this week and then will be able to get about with the use of crutches. She would enjoy visitors at her home, too. Mrs. Arnett has been Sandy librarian for a number of years and Mrs. Lois Sherman is now helping out at the library while Mrs. Arnett has been recovering from her injuries.

Visitors at the Florence Hite home last weekend were her son Dave and wife from Cottage Grove. Also stopping off for a visit were her grandson and wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hite of Medford who were on their way to Alaska to spend the summer.

Visiting a week ago to the Florence Hite home were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of Crescent City, California. Visiting two weeks ago were Mrs. Hite's grandson, David Corder and friend also from Crescent City.

Harry Howard, Portland, brother of W. W. Howard of Bluff road is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard this week and doing some outdoor work for them including the cutting and clearing out a few old fruit trees and general yard work as well as doing a bit of building.

Mrs. John Mills, Sandy, was the guest of her daughter Jean during the recent mother's weekend. The twelfth annual affair featured a fashion show, coffee hour, a banquet for both male and female students with their mothers, a play, a special dormitory breakfast, a concert and silver tea. The mothers stayed in the campus dormitories for the activities.

PTA Council To Hear Panelists

Mindful of the increasing public interest in the subjects taught in today's schools, the Clackamas County PTA Council will initiate its first evening meeting, 8 PM, Wednesday, May 7, at the Sunset Grade School, with a panel of five top-ranking Clackamas County Educators on the curriculum of the modern schools.

Panelists with respect to topics are as follows: (1) Leonard Garmire, assistant superintendent of Milwaukie elementary schools, speaking on "Modern Elementary Curriculum"; (2) Dr. C. Edwin Ditto, assistant superintendent of Oregon City Schools, "Modern Secondary Curriculum"; Owen Sabin, superintendent of Milwaukie high schools, "Curriculum Improvement"; (4) Jerry Becker, director of testing and guidance in Lake Oswego schools, "Guidance and testing in Today's Schools"; (5) Warren Adams, principal of Lake Oswego high school, "Community Participation in School Curriculum."

Registration will start at 7:30 PM. Business will be kept to a minimum with minutes and reports being mimeographed.

Incoming officers will be installed in a brief ceremony at the end of the business meeting. A new first vice-president will be chosen by the executive board to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Walter Steiner.

The County Council meeting is open to any member or patron of any affiliated Clackamas County School District.

SCRATCHPADS FOR SALE

AT

THE SANDY POST

No Room for Gloom!

MARK HATFIELD will rebuild Oregon with fresh, new ideas. Oregon is not an "economic disaster area"! The only disaster has been the lack of positive state leadership. Let's get Hatfield and get GROWING!

FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR

MARK X HATFIELD
He can win in November!

Pd. Adv. Sandy Hatfield for Governor Committee
W. H. Perkins, Box 5, Sandy, Oregon

No man was ever great by imitation.

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

Carroll Funeral Home

Phone MOhawk 5-3794

Gresham, Oregon

Keepsake
GROKETT JEWELRY

Loop Hiway MU 7-3101

Sandy Home Laundry
Main St. opposite Meinig
WET WASH
CUSTOM DRYING
S & H Green Stamps

Open for 9AM to 6 PM
Closed Thursday

Mrs. Verla Boone,
Phone MU 7-3504

Bateman Funeral Chapel

The caskets available in our display room represent a wide variety of prices, designs and materials.

From this large selection, the family can choose the casket that will be completely appropriate.

530 W. Powell
Gresham, Oregon
Phone MOhawk 5-4811