

MT. HOOD ...

Returned to his home at Welches is Dave Schultz, who has been in a rest home recently.

Mr. Hood Golf Club all but had the SRO signs out at their club house this past weekend. Pleasant spring weather and a desire to get away from the city brought many old friends and some new ones to the club. All are enthusiastic about the newly decorated club room in the club house.

GOVERNMENT CAMP

Taking the place of Orval T. (Ted) Brunner, who has been postmaster at Government Camp for the past 11 years, Juanita (Mrs. Harold) Hagen assumed the duties of the office as of May first. Mr. Brunner, who is retiring because of ill health, is making the most of his enforced leisure and working at some long put-off projects at his home near Rhododendron.

George Rogers, member of the State highway paving crew, has returned to Government Camp from Emanuel hospital where he was confined after a car accident last Friday night. Mr. Rogers is thought to have fallen asleep at the wheel and had a wreck between Rhododendron and Government Camp.

The Joe Leautholds of Government Camp are the proud parents of a daughter, Toni Laurita, born April 30. The little lady weighed in at 5 pounds 6 ounces and is the couple's first child.

R. H. "Mac" MacDonald and wife Velma along with the Glen Roberts family journeyed to Scappoose over the week end to visit the Everett Worthingtons and do some salmon fishing. Velma showed the boys how it was done by catching a 17-pounder on Saturday. Everett and Irene Worthington, former owners of Hills Place, now own and operate the Longfellow Inn at Scappoose. While in Scappoose the Glen Roberts visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Itel, former residents of Sandy.
